

Virtual Inauguration of Central Secretariat Building, Chhattisgarh - Network and Video Conferencing support provided by NIC Chhattisgarh

A Central secretariat to house 15 Union government departments in Nava Raipur, Chhattisgarh has constructed by the Central Public Works Department (CPWD). The building, with five floors and a basement, can accommodate 800 people and 192 vehicles.

On 27th August 2021, Hon'ble Union Minister of Housing and Urban Affairs & Petroleum and Natural Gas, Shri Hardeep Singh Puri virtually inaugurated the building in the presence of DG, CPWD Shri Shailendra Sharma, senior officials of the CPWD, State and District administration, NIC Network & VC coordinator and team.

Network and Video conferencing services support led by Sri Surendra Agrawal, Network and VC Co-coordinator under the guidance of State Informatics officer Dr. A. K. Hota, DDG were provided at Central Secretariat, Nava Raipur. NICNET Connectivity of 50 Mbps was provided at the building and Video conferencing facilities were installed at the location.

Timely provision of Network and VC facilities by NIC Delhi VC unit & NIC Chhattisgarh was appreciated during the event.