SUB: HANDLING OF LITIGATION WORK IN SUPREME COURT/HIGH COURT AND CAT IN NEW DELHI.

Reference this Dte General letter No. 14/MISC/Liaison/S.C./ACQ-II/DE dated 30.08.2012.

2. Sh. Pawan Kumar, UDC, office of DEO Delhi Circle, entrusted with the duties of Liaison Officer (LO) in Supreme Court of India, submitted a copy of notice No. F. No. 1/SG/2015 dated 13.01.2015 published under the signature of Secretary General of Supreme Court of India whereby it was brought to the notice of all concerned that the Competent Authority has been pleased to discontinue the practice of printing and rolling out the hard copies of the Cause Lists by the Rolling branch of the Registry with effect from 1st February 2015.

3. In view of the said notice, the LO expressed that in the absence of hard copies of cause lists, it would become difficult for him to collect and disseminate the details of the listed cases well in time. The LO has been nominated only to assist and facilitate the field officers to monitor the cases pending in the Hon'ble Supreme Court whereas the primary responsibility to defend and take follow up actions on behalf of UOI rests with the concerned Defence Estates Officers as intimated vide this Dte General letter under reference. Since the cause lists are available on the official website of the Supreme Court "supremecourtindia.nic.in" and all the DEOs have internet connectivity, it is requested that the DEOs may be instructed to monitor status of all the cases pending in the Supreme Court hereafter without relying upon the LO for intimation on the status of their cases and prior notice regarding listing of the same time to time.
