SOME RECENT JUDGMENTS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA

COMPROMISE IN A RAPE CASE IS NOT PERMISSIBLE

In State of M.P. Versus Madanlal (CRIMINAL APPEAL NO. 231 OF 2015) decided on July 1, 2015, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as follows:

In a case of rape or attempt of rape, the conception of compromise under no circumstances can really be thought of.

Sometimes solace is given that the perpetrator of the crime has acceded to enter into wedlock with victim which is nothing but putting pressure in an adroit manner. The Courts are to remain absolutely away from this subterfuge to adopt a soft approach to the case.

Any kind of liberal approach or thought of mediation in this regard is thoroughly and completely sans legal permissibility.

SOLE OBJECT OF ARTICLE 32 IS THE ENFORCEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS GUARANTEED BY THE CONSTITUTION

In DM Wayanad Institute of Medical Sciences versus Union of India and another (Writ Petition (C) No. 441 OF 2015), decided on July 23, 2015, the Hon'ble Supreme court observed as follows:

From reading of Article 32, it is manifest that clause 1(i) of Article 32 guarantees the right to move the Supreme Court for an appropriate writ for the purpose of enforcing the Fundamental Rights included in Part-III of the Constitution.

The sole object of Article 32 is the enforcement of Fundamental Rights guaranteed by the Constitution. It follows that no question other than relating to the Fundamental Right will be determined in a proceeding under Article 32 of the Constitution.

The difference between Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution is that while an application under Article 32 lies only for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights, the High Court under Article 226 has a wider power to exercise its jurisdiction not only for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights but also ordinary legal right.
