SOME RECENT JUDGMENTS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA

A NATION WITH A DESIRE TO PROSPER IS REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN HIGH DEGREE OF LAW AND ORDER SITUATION

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the judgement given in Chandra Prakash Versus State of Rajasthan( CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.1155 OF 2014 decided on May 9, 2014) , inter-alia, observed as follows:

Every citizen of this country is required to remember that national patriotism is founded on the philosophy of public good. Love for one's country and humanity at large are eternally cherished values.

A nation with a desire to prosper is required to maintain high degree of law and order situation apart from respecting “imperatives of internationalism”.

26th January is the date in 1950, when our organic, inclusive, humane and compassionate Constitution came into existence being given by the people of this country to themselves and the nation has been obliged to jubilate remembering the said important day in our national history, for it chartered the path of many an emancipation and conferred on the people the highly cherished fundamental rights.

COURT TIME LOST IS A DIRECT LOSS TO THE NATION

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the judgement given in Subrata Roy Sahara versus Union of India and others (WRIT PETITION (CRIMINAL) NO. 57 OF 2014 decided on May 6, 2014), inter-alia, observed as follows:

The judiciary as an institution, has extremely sacrosanct duties, obligations and responsibilities.

The Indian judicial system is grossly afflicted, with frivolous litigation. Ways and means need to be evolved, to deter litigants from their compulsive obsession, towards senseless and ill-considered claims. One needs to keep in mind that in the process of litigation, there is an innocent sufferer on the other side, of every irresponsible and senseless claim. He suffers long drawn anxious periods of nervousness and restlessness, whilst the litigation is pending, without any fault on his part.

Court time lost is a direct loss to the nation.
