SOME RECENT JUDGEMENTS OF THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA

RIGHT TO LIFE INCLUDES RIGHT TO SAFETY OF PERSONS WHILE TRAVELLING ON THE ROAD

In Savelife Foundation & anr versus Union of India & anr (Writ Petition (c) no.235 of 2012) decided on March 30, 2016, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as follows:

Accident cases require fastest care and rescue which could be provided by those closest to the scene of the accident. Bystanders clear support is essential to enhance the chances of survival of victim in the 'Golden Hour' i.e. the first hour of the injury.

Right to life is enshrined under Article 21 which includes right to safety of persons while travelling on the road and the immediate medical assistance as a necessary corollary is required to be provided and also adequate legal protection and prevention from harassment to good Samaritans.

It is absolutely necessary that Good Samaritans feel empowered to act without fear of adverse consequence. There is need to provide certain incentives to Good Samaritans. There is also dire need to enact a Good Samaritan Law in the country since there is a felt need of legislation for affording protection to Good Samaritans.

A MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE THAT MAY OCCUR BY THE ACQUITTAL OF THE GUILTY IS NO LESS THAN FROM THE CONVICTION OF AN INNOCENT

In Sadhu Saran Singh versus State of U.P. and Ors. (Criminal Appeal Nos. 1467-1468 of 2005) decided on February 26, 2016, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as follows:
In these days, civilized people are generally insensitive to come forward to give any statement in respect of any criminal offence. Unless it is inevitable, people normally keep away from the Court as they feel it distressing and stressful.

Entire case cannot be derailed on the mere ground of absence of independent witness as long as the evidence of the eyewitness, though interested, is trustworthy.

The paramount consideration of the Court is to do substantial justice and avoid miscarriage of justice which can arise by acquitting the accused who is guilty of an offence.

“ It must be remembered that law is not a mausoleum. It is not an antique to be taken down, dusted, admired and put back on the shelf. It is rather like an old but vigorous tree, having its roots in history, yet continuously taking new grafts and putting out new sprouts and occasionally dropping deadwood. It is essentially a social process, the end product of which is justice and hence it must keep on growing and developing with changing social concepts and values. Otherwise, there will be estrangement between law and justice and law will cease to have legitimacy.”
