REPORT ON STUDENT LEGAL LITERACY CLUB

To mark beginning of National Legal Literacy Week commencing from 1st November, 2012, Haryana State Legal Services Authority took a step forward to broaden its sphere by spreading legal awareness amongst the students of private sector by opening “Student Legal Literacy Clubs” in all private senior schools, secondary schools/colleges and other educational institutions.

Hence, as a part of its second phase of Student Legal Literacy Mission, Haryana State Legal Services Authority under the able guidance of Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.K. Mittal, Judge, Punjab and Haryana High Court and Executive Chairman of this Authority launched the opening of Student Legal Literacy Club in private schools by starting it in “The Gurukul”, a private school located at Sector 20, Panchkula on 1st November, 2012.

The club was inaugurated by Hon'ble Mr. Justice A.K. Sikri, Chief Justice, Punjab & Haryana High Court & Patron-in-Chief of this Authority in the gracious presence of Hon'ble Mr. Justice Hemant Gupta, Judge, Punjab and Haryana High Court & Executive Chairman of State Legal Services Authority, U.T. Chandigarh and Hon'ble Mr. Justice Gurmeet Singh Sandhawalia, Judge, Punjab and Haryana High Court and Administrative Judge, Sessions Division, Panchkula. Smt. Anita Chaudhary, District & Sessions Judge-cum-Chairman, District Legal Services Authority, Panchkula; Sh. Deepak Gupta, Member Secretary, HALSA; Smt. Ashima Barar, Deputy Commissioner, Panchkula; Ms. Parul Kush Jain, DCP, Panchkula and other dignitaries were also present on the occasion.

Students of "The Gurukul" performing skit on the social issue of Child Labour

The students of the Gurukul presented an insightful documentary of their visit to village Maldhana district Panchkula, under the able guidance of Sh. Jaibir Singh Hooda, Secretary District Legal Services Authority, Panchkula, where they enlightened the villages with the legal provisions regulating child labour. Students also presented cultural programmes on the daunting issues of domestic violence and child labour which were heart throbbing.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice A.K. Sikri, Chief Justice, Punjab and Haryana High Court and Patron-in-Chief of the Authority in his address said that laws are made to curb social evils and the challenge lies in enforcing and implementing those laws in a country like India where 30-35% of its population is totally illiterate and most of the persons, who may be otherwise educated are not legally literate. Hence, while appreciating the efforts put up by students his Lordship referred them as brand ambassador of the society, who can bring an end to all social evils.

HMJ A.K. Sikri, Patron-in-Chief, HALSA distributing Identity Cards to the Student Member of the Legal Literacy Club in "The Gurukul", Panchkula

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Hemant Gupta explained the concept of; law of nature, law of society and civil law. His Lordship expressed that there is talent in every child which can be tapped and with the aid of legal literacy club, they can perform better.

The function came to an end with the vote of thanks delivered by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Gurmeet Singh Sandhawalia.

THE FUNCTION HELD ON THE OCCASION OF NATIONAL LEGAL SERVICES DAY IN M.P. HALL (POWER GRID COOPERATION CAMPUS) SECTOR-43, GURGAON ON 9.11.2012.

Haryana State Legal Services Authority celebrated National Legal Services Authority Day on 09.11.2012, at M.P. Hall (Power Grid Cooperation Campus) Sector-43, Gurgaon. Hon'ble Mr. Justice A.K. Sikri, Chief Justice, Punjab & Haryana High Court and Patron-in-Chief of HALSA, was the chief guest. The function was presided over by Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.K. Mittal, Judge, Punjab & Haryana High Court and Executive Chairman of HALSA in the presence of other dignitaries. Hon'ble Mr. Justice A.K. Sikri in his address to about 1000 people comprising students, teachers and principals of various schools and colleges of Gurgaon, panel advocates and para legal volunteers, appreciated the efforts of HALSA by saying that it is working on the principle of 'Justice for All' with its objective to help poor illiterate and needy people in getting justice.

HMJ A.K. Sikri, Chief Justice, PHHC giving trophy to a winning candidate

Earlier, His Lordship inaugurated Student Legal Literacy Club in Amity International School, Sector 43, Gurgaon. While laying emphasis to the role of students in raising voice against social evils, his Lordship made reference to Rabindra Nath Tagore's poem and told that students will also play the role of a small lamp made of mud, which would spread the light of legal awareness in the society in order to make the world a better place to live.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.K. Mittal in his speech highlighted that the main objective of National Legal Services Day is to reaffirm our commitment, solidarity and support to the disadvantaged people in order to make the legal process a surer means to social justice by providing free legal services and by making people aware of their legal rights and the welfare schemes floated by the Government. His Lordship further impressed upon that the HALSA aims to instill confidence and faith in the poorest of the poor and the person living in the remotest village.

Dr. B.B. Prasoona, District & Sessions Judge, Gurgaon-cum-Chairman, DLSA, Gurgaon disclosed various legal programmes and schemes launched by DLSA, Gurgaon. Mr. Deepak Gupta, Member Secretary, HALSA made the gathering aware about all the activities concerning Legal Literacy Club under the aegis of Haryana State Legal Services Authority and also about its various other legal schemes and programmes.

On 10th November, 2012 a “Run for Women Empowerment” was organised at Leisure Valley Park Area. The Run was flagged off by Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.K.Mittal, Executive Chairman, HALSA. More than 3000 female students of various schools participated in this run. The event was supported by Rotary Club, Lions Club, I.M.A. and Sun City school, Gurgaon.

HSLSA to make students legally aware

Sikri to open first Students' Legal Literacy Club in Gurukul, Panchkula, on November 1 to set the celebrations in motion.

Justice Hemant Gupta, Justice Churnet Singh Sandhawalia and a number of other judges would also grace the occasion, he said.

As a part of Students Legal Literacy Mission, the HSLSA in collaboration with the Education Department, had already opened 1,720 such clubs in various government and aided schools and colleges of the state.

He said instructions had been issued to all the District and Session Judges, Additional District and Session Judges (I)-cum-Chairman or Secretaries of District Legal Services Authorities of Haryana to ensure functioning of maximum number of these Legal Literacy Clubs.

Legal Literacy Classes for women, children and students will also be organised for them.

Legal Literacy Meets on the topics such as women empowerment, rights of trans-genders, rights of senior citizens, rights of juveniles and role of legal services authorities would also be held.

Besides, they had been directed to hold Lok Adalats, Rural Adalats, Legal Literacy Camps, and Seminars for the observance of the National Legal Services Week.

Gupta said a programme would also be organised at Gurgaon on November 9, 2012 on the concluding day of Legal Services Week.

He said November 9 was observed as Legal Services Day every year as the Legal
