people, who are unaware of their rights. Thus LSAs create legal awareness amongst them and to the category of those persons who despite having legal knowledge are unable to enforce their rights due to some inability and also by providing a platform to those persons who are already involved in litigation for settling disputes mutually and amicably in Lok Adalats.

His Lordship told that ADR Centre will provide all ADR mechanism like negotiation mediation, Lok Adalat etc. to the parties in dispute under one roof.

ONE DAY CAMP OF WOMEN EMPOWERMENT AND LEGAL AWARENESS ON 22 MARCH 2013-ROHTAK.

HMJ Daya Chaudhary addressing the girl students

District Legal Services Authority, Rohtak in corroboration with the Government College for women organized one-day camp in which Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Daya Chaudhary, Judge Punjab and Haryana High Court graced the occasion as Chief Guest. Justice Chaudhary in her speech exhorted the girl students to develop such a strength that any male member may get frightened even to take a evil glance at them. She further enthused them with the views that real empowerment lies within them (women) and they have to invoke that power to claim their part of respect from the society.

The nodal officer of legal literacy cell of the college also made a report in which he elaborated the provisions of various laws for the benefit of women. The function was attended by Ld. District & Sessions Judge, Deputy Commissioner and other Judicial Officers and officers of the District Administration.

SEMINARS/SPECIAL LEGAL LITERACY CLASSES ON PROTECTION OF WOMEN FROM DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Seminars and Special Legal Literacy Classes for Women were organized all over Haryana by District Legal Services Authorities on the topic of the protection of women from domestic violence in which the panel Advocates and Para legal volunteers apprised the women about various aspects of the laws relating to their protection against exploitation and sexual offences and endeavour was made to solve their personal problems.

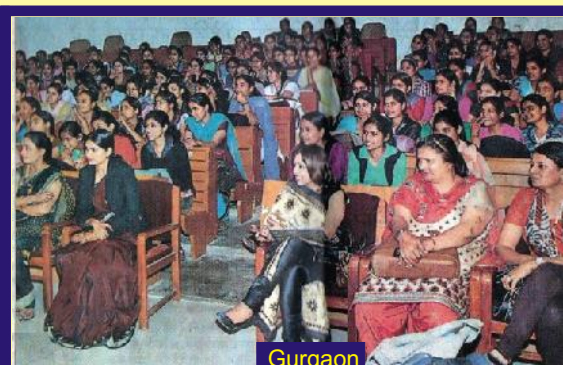

Women were sensitized about their rights from protection of domestic violence and were called upon to be confident, fearless, brave and to act for their self-defence.

Women were told that whenever they are harassed physically, mentally or economically by their family members, they can report to the Protection Officer or can seek help by approaching Legal Aid Clinic or Front Office of District Legal Services Authority.

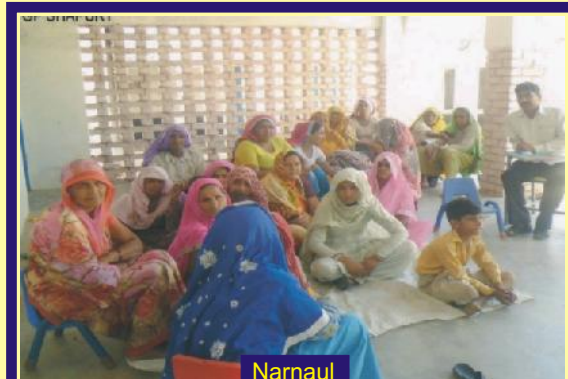

Exhaustive lectures were also delivered on the topic of women empowerment.
