HALSA WELCOMES NEW PATRON-IN-CHIEF

Haryana State Legal Services Authority feels immense pleasure in welcoming its new Patron-in-Chief Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kishan Kaul on being sworn as Chief Justice, Punjab & Haryana High Court on 1st June, 2013.

“STUDENTS LEGAL LITERACY MISSION” - ANNUAL STATE FUNCTION ORGANIZED AT GURGAON ON 19.5.2013

The Legal Literacy Mission with its motto “From Ignorance to Legal Empowerment” was launched by NALSA on 6th March 2005. It is a significant step towards the implementation of the policy “Access to Justice for all”. This mission aims at educating specified target groups, who are marginalized and vulnerable section of our society by creating awareness amongst them of their Constitutional and statutory rights & duties.

NALSA identified a set of beneficiaries who are to be immediately addressed, who includes students, women, prisoners, differently abled persons, victims of disaster & crime etc.

Haryana State Legal Services Authority (HALSA) is fully aware of the fact that for the proper development of the country, it is necessary that the student community be tapped for imbibing in them the sense of becoming good citizens for further shouldering the responsibility of taking the nation ahead as children are the prospective architects of the country.

With this aim, HALSA launched Student Legal Literacy Mission in the year 2009. Under the mission, HALSA in collaboration with Education Department opened Legal Literacy Clubs in 2348 Government and Private Schools and colleges all over Haryana.

In these legal literacy clubs, the students are apprised about various rights and duties of citizens and informed about various socio-legal issues like female foeticide, drug addiction, environment, juvenile justice, legal remedies, social justice legislation or constitutional values, national security and sovereignty.

To give impetus to the project, following competitions are organized at school/ college level, then District level, at divisional level and finally at State level on many legal and social topics for the last four years:-

- ☐ Declamation contest
- ☐ Poetry recitation
- ☐ Debate
- ☐ Essay writing
- ☐ Spot painting
- ☐ Slogan writing etc.

The winners at State level competitions are awarded prizes of ₹ 11000, ₹ 8000 and ₹ 5000 in the first, second and third prizes respectively. The winners of Divisional level competitions are given prizes of ₹ 5000/-, ₹ 4000/- and ₹ 3000/- for first, second and third prizes respectively in different categories. Besides the cash prizes, the winning students are also awarded gold, silver and bronze medals.

Every year Haryana State Legal Services Authority in association with Education Department has been organizing Annual Function to award prizes to the winner students.

First such competition was held in the year 2009 followed by the annual function at Kurukshetra on 6.2.2010. About 12000 students participated in the competitions. In the second year, about 17000 school students participated in the competitions followed by Second Annual Function at Kurukshetra University Auditorium on 19.2.2011.

In the third year, approximately 26,500 students participated in the competitions at various levels. The “Student Legal Literacy Mission- Annual Function” was organized at Rohtak on 20.5.2012, which was attended by Hon'ble Judge of Supreme Court of India as well as judges of Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court with Hon'ble Chief Minister Haryana as the Guest of honour.

As per the announcement made by Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana during the 3rd Annual Function of Student Legal Literacy Mission, book on legal literacy for students with title 'Lessons in law' is going to be introduced as an additional subject in the syllabus of the students of high school and colleges. This book would provide basic knowledge of all the relevant laws to the students in simple language, which they should know to become a better citizen.

This year, more than 40,000 students participated in all the competitions. State Level competition of college students was organized at Government College, Sector 40 Gurgaon on 12.5.2013 and that of school students, in Maru Mal Sr. Sec. School Sector-4, Gurgaon on 10.5.2013. This was followed by fourth State Annual 'Student Legal Literacy Mission' function, held on 19.5.2013 at Brahmakumari's Om Shanti Retreat Centre, village Bhora Kalan, District Gurgaon. The function was attended by more than 3500 students and teachers.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice P. Sathasivam, Judge Supreme Court of India and Executive Chairman National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) graced the occasion as Chief Guest. The function was inaugurated by Shri Bhupinder Singh Hooda, Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana and was presided over by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jasbir Singh, Acting Chief Justice, Punjab and Haryana High Court and Patron-in-Chief HALSA. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Satish Kumar Mittal, Judge Punjab and Haryana High Court and Executive Chairman, HALSA delivered the key note address.

HMJ M. Jaya Paul, HMJ Rajesh Bindal, HMJ L.N. Mittal, HMJ R.K. Garg, HMJ Paramjeet Singh, Judges, P & H High Court; Sh. Sameer Mathur, Additional Chief Secretary to Government of Haryana, Home Department; Sh. S.S. Prasad, Financial Commissioner and Principal Secretary to Government of Haryana, Higher Education Department; Mrs. Surina Rajan Financial Commissioner and Principal Secretary to Government of Haryana, School Education Department; Mrs. Asha Menon, Member Secretary NALSA; Dr. B.B.Parsoon, District and Session Judge-cum-Chairman DLSA, Gurgaon also graced the occasion.

The function was also attended by worthy spouses of Hon'ble Mr. Justice P. Sathasivam, HMJ Jasbir Singh, HMJ Satish Kumar Mittal, HMJ M. Jaya Paul and HMJ L.N. Mittal and other officers of the State Authority including CJM-cum-Secretaries of DLSA; Chairmen of Sub Divisional Legal Services Committees; the Judicial Officers and the officers of the Administration.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.K. Mittal in his key note address welcomed all the dignitaries. His Lordship while emphasizing the need of legal awareness said that the objective of Constitution is to provide social, economic and political justice and one of the main problem in the way to achieve this aim is the illiteracy in the country, as an illiterate person feels helpless and confused for the want of legal knowledge and the effect of its violation regarding enforcement of his right. Therefore, His Lordship said that Haryana State Legal Services Authority under the aegis of NALSA is striving to spread the light of legal awareness, thereby paving a way for effective administration.

Brahmakumari Asha Didi from Om Shanti Retreat Centre welcomed the dignitaries and blessed the students with her enlightened message.

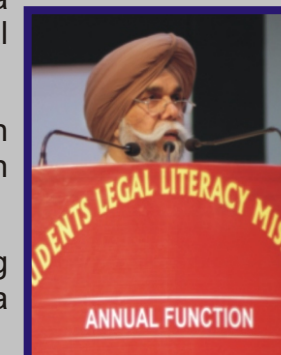

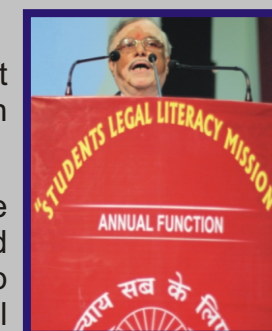

Hon'ble Mr. Justice P. Sathasivam exhorted the students to abjure violence against women and emphasized that legal literacy is the foundation of liberty. His Lordship further stated that Legal Literacy Mission aims to dispel ignorance of laws by utilizing the potential of young students as messenger of legal awareness and harbinger of social change, who can thus play a reformatory role by coaxing their elders to abide by the law of land.

Sh. Bhupinder Singh Hooda, Hon'ble Chief Minister in his speech noting the participation level of students, appreciated the work done by Haryana State Legal Services in creating legal awareness.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jasbir Singh advised the students to remain in touch with their civilization and ethical values.

A documentary film showing the objective of creating Legal Services Authorities and the activities done by Haryana State Legal Services Authority was also played.

The zeal and the concern for eradicating social evils stood reflected in the artifacts prepared by the students during competitions, which were also exhibited in the function along with the publication of HALSA and from the level of participation in various competitions.

Winner students in each category were awarded with the cash prizes of ₹ 11000, 8000 and 5000/- for standing first, second and third respectively. Besides this gold, silver and bronze medals were also given to the winner students.

The students of various schools also enthused the gathering by presenting cultural items on the issues like female foeticide, women empowerment, education of girl and child labour. Special emphasis was laid on the concept that the children are just like fresh buds of flowers who should be allowed to bloom by giving them ample opportunities of growth and education.

In this mission, HALSA has been able to access about 22 lacs students so far. HALSA is committed to organize such type of programmes, which would help in spreading legal awareness. HALSA has already got printed booklets on various legal topics for distribution amongst the students and general public, so that they may be made aware about their rights and fundamental duties.

Through this mission of Students Legal Literacy, HALSA has not only aimed to spread legal awareness but has further taken steps for future preventive and strategic legal aid to the society as a whole.

Book "Empowering Women" - Released

Smt. Rachana Gupta, CJM-cum-Secretary, DLSA, Rohtak and Jhajjar did laudable work towards the cause of bringing legal awareness amongst women by writing a book titled 'Empowering Women', in which she complied all the rights of the women, the offences and remedies for their protection. The book was released in the Annual Function of Students Legal Literacy Mission by the esteemed dignitaries.

Efforts on to ensure speed justice to victims: SC Judge

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

GURGAON, MAY 19
 "Following the Delhi gang rape, the Indian judiciary is now identifying and prioritising cases related to women and children to ensure speedy justice to victims," said Justice P Sathasivam, Judge, Supreme Court, and Executive Chairman of National Legal Services Authority (NALSA).

Justice Sathasivam was in city today to preside over the fourth annual function of Students' Legal Literacy Mission, organised by the Haryana Legal Services Authority (HALSA). He asked students to
