RIGHT TO INFORMATION

INFORMATION PERTAINING TO HARYANA STATE LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY AS REQUIRED UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT, 2005 PUBLISHED BY MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE(LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT IN THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA GAZETTE VIDE NO. 22 OF 2005 ON 21ST JUNE, 2005.

RESUME OF LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITIES ACT, 1987 (ACT NO. 39 OF 1987)

As per 42nd Amendment Act of 1976 a new provision, Article 39-A was incorporated in the Constitution for providing free legal aid and concept of equal justice found a place in our Constitution. Article 39-A which was incorporated under Part-IV – Directive Principals of State Policy reads as under:-:

Equal Justice and Free Legal Aid "The State shall secure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice, on a basis of equal opportunity, and shall, in particular, provide free legal aid, by suitable legislation or schemes or in any other way, to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities."

PARTICULARS OF ITS ORGANIZATION, FUNCTIONS AND DUTIES UNDER SECTION 4(I) OF THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT, 2005.

Pursuant to incorporation of Article 39-A in the Constitution of India by 42nd amendment and subsequent enactment of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 Haryana State Legal Services Authority was constituted w.e.f 3.4.1996 under the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 to provide free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the society to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities, and to organize Lok Adalats to ensure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice on a basis of equal opportunity. Section 7 (1) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 mandates that it shall be the duty of the State Authority to give effect to the policy and directions of the Central Authority and Section 7 (2) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 provides that without prejudice to the generality of the functions referred to in sub-section (1), the State Authority shall perform all or any of the following functions, namely:-

(a)	give legal service to persons who satisfy the criteria laid down under the Act;
(b)	conduct Lok Adalats, including Lok Adalats for High Court cases
(c)	undertake preventive and strategic legal aid programmes; and
(d)	perform such other functions as the State Authority may, in consultation with the Central Authority, fix by regulations.

(d)	Dispute comes to an end forever.
(e)	Entire Court fee is refundable.
(f)	Implementation of awards of Lok Adalat is easy because these are based on mutual consent.
(g)	There is no sense of victory or defeat. Such settlements finish bitterness and enmity and promote mutual consent
(h)	Settlement of one dispute in Lok Adalat results in disposal numerous connected cases pending in Courts horizontally and vertically. That reduces the workload of courts and accelerates their speed of disposal. That leads to quick decisions and end of long wait and anxiety of litigants for justice.
5.	Preventive and Strategic Legal Aid Programmes
	Equal access to Justice is a cherished ideal of our Constitution. It has to be made a reality by giving inexpensive justice to people and providing legal aid to those who cannot seek justice due to economic deprivation and social backwardness by making people aware of the availability of legal aid and generating legal awareness among them and by improving legal literacy of the disadvantaged sections of society and empowering them to seek justice. Right to legal aid has been specifically recognized as being a part of the fundamental right to life and liberty enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. In view of enactment of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 and reiterating of the entitlement for legal aid and advice in various other enactments dealing with social justice for example the Mental Health Act, 1987, the Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 and the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 the state is now under a statutory obligation to make available "legal service" which includes "rendering of any service in the conduct of any case or other legal proceedings".
(i)	Legal Aid Counsel for remand hours
(::)	According to Section 12(g) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 (as amended in 1994), any person in custody, including custody in a protective home or in juvenile home or in psychiatric hospital or psychiatric nursing home, is entitled to legal services for filing or defending a case. A large number of under-trial prisoners who are not in a position to engage lawyers for defending them, feel handicapped in their defence and remain incarcerated for long periods. Therefore the model scheme modulated by National Legal Services Authority has been implemented by Haryana State Legal Services Authority in all the districts and sub-divisions of Haryana so that nobody remains unrepresented at the time of remand hour.
(ii)	Permanent Legal Aid Clinics/Legal Aid Cells in Jail
	Haryana State Legal Services Authority has established Permanent Legal Aid Clinics/Centres in all the Jails/Sub Jails of Haryana. 6.	Legal Literacy
J.	About 70% of the people are living in rural areas and most of them are illiterate and even more than that percentage of the people are not aware of the rights conferred upon them by law. Even substantial number of the literate people living in the cities and villages do not know what are their rights and entitlements under the law. It is this absence of legal awareness which is responsible for the deception, exploitation and deprivation of rights and benefits from which the people suffer in the state. The miserable condition in which the people find themselves can be alleviated to some extent by creating legal awareness amongst the people. This Authority requested all the District Legal Services Authorities to organize Legal Literacy/Legal Awareness Camps in the remote rural areas in the State of Haryana at least once in a week so that the common man may be made aware about his legal rights.

(A)	Legal Aid Camps and Legal Literacy and Awareness
	It is a truism to say that the vast milieu of our country is ignorant about the laws enacted by their own elected representative. Because of this ignorance, many of the rights conferred by laws remain not known to the real beneficiaries. This results in exploitation and undeserved sufferings. Although ignorance of law is not an excuse, ignorance of laws can lead to exploitation and often results in acts in conflict with law. Under this circumstances and in view of the fact that a large number of our population is distanced from the knowledge of law, the need for legal literacy and legal awareness assumes importance.
	Legal Literacy and legal awareness programmes will be conducted with the help of lawyers, law teachers, law students and legal academics. Specific Legal Literacy classes will also be organized for educating people on following topics:
>	Hindu Marriage Act, christen Marriage Act, Muslim Women's Protection Act & Special Marriage Act.

(B)	Implementation of Legal Literacy Missions
	In order to achieve the objective of spreading Legal Literacy, Haryana
	State Legal Services Authority has initiated special Legal Literacy Schemes.
	Earlier Haryana State Legal Services Authority had initiated two Legal Literacy schemes namely, Prisoners Legal Literacy Mission (PLLM) and Į	Legal Literacy Mission for empowerment of underprivileged (LLUP).
	During the year 2009 another Legal Literacy scheme namely Legal Literacy for Students (LLS) has been initiated. Brief details of these

"Nashakhori Sey Nashamukti Ki Aur" (dealing with evil of drug abuse). ▶ "Savera" (dealing with knowledge of legal services and Lok Adalats). Electronic Media are even more effective than print media. Even an illiterate person can be informed about his rights and duties through the electronic media. District Legal services Authorities disseminate information about the Lok Adalats and various schemes launched by Legal services Authorities through the use of cable networks. 11. Para-Legal volunteer scheme As per the instructions from National Legal Services Authority (NALSA), Haryana State Legal Services Authority has initiated steps for development of Para-Legal Services. These Para-Legal Volunteers would assist an individual in obtaining the services of NALSA, DLSAs and SDLSCs. Such Volunteers would be expected to have some rudimentary knowledge of the basic rights of the individuals, functioning of courts, functioning of Legal Services Authorities and the functioning of some of the organizations such as Municipal Corporations and District Administration. These Para-Legals would include people at the grass-root level such as Anganwari workers, Teachers, Primary Health Workers, Panchayat Members, etc In the first phase every District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) has been asked to identify about 50 volunteers and every Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee (SDLSC) shall identify about 25 volunteers who can read and write vernacular language.

HSLSA proposes to build a strong base of Para-Legals all over Haryana, not only to act as a bridge between the individuals and Legal Services Authorities but also to help people in need, to approach the concerned authorities such as the Police and the District Administration by helping them in preparing petitions, filling forms and providing relevant information which may be necessary for asserting any right.

Haryana State Legal Services Authority has initiated steps for development of Para-Legal services. Vide letter No. 9322-9340 dated 21.7.2009 HALSA has asked every District Legal Services Authority to identify about 50 volunteers and every Sub-Divisional Legal Services Committee to identify about 25 volunteers. Para Legal Volunteers have been identified/appointed by all the District Legal Services Authorities in the State of Haryana
