Gram Panchayat Planning
Collection of Data
Available Resources

Gram Panchayats have been following the practice of participatory planning process and implementation since long as mandated by the Government of West Bengal and following the State Guideline for Participatory Planning.

The planning process starts with the formation of Gram Panchayat Facilitating Team (GPFT). They are capacitated in different phases on the steps of participatory planning process. The team consists of Elected Representatives (ERs) and employees of the GP, employees of line departments operating at GP level including MMA, AGM, GDO Supervisors, members of the Self-Help Groups (SHGs), School teachers and community volunteers. The GPFT have steered the planning process, they are frontline workers for the process. Intensive community mobilisation through GPFT and Women's SHCs

Latest Notification
