Explanation 2.-For the purpose of clause (i) —

(i) a person shall not be deemed to be disqualified if he has paid the arrears or the sum referred to in clause (i) of this sub-section, prior to the day prescribed for the nomination of candidates;

(ii) failure to pay the arrears or the sum referred to in clause (i) of this sub-section to the panchayat by a member of an undivided Hindu family or by a person belonging to a group or unit, the members of which are by custom joint in estate or residence, shall be deemed to disqualify all members of such undivided Hindu family or as the case may be, all the members of such group or unit.

Explanation 3.- For the purpose of clause (i) an officiating revenue or police patel or revenue or police patel who is an official or under the Bombay Hereditary Offices Act, 1874, or any other corresponding law for the time being in force, shall be deemed to be a servant of the Government.

Bom. 3 of 1874.

(2) A person who at any time during the term of his office is disqualified under the Gujarat Provision for Disqualification of Members of Local Authorities for Defection Act, 1986 for being a member of a taluka panchayat or, as the case may be a district panchayat shall cease to hold office as such member.

Bom. 23 of 1986.

<sup>1</sup>[(3) A Person shall be disqualified to continue as a member of a Panchayat if such person has been declared as a defaulther voter under sub-section (3) of section 34D subject to the decision in appeal, if preferred under section 34E.]

31. (1) If the validity of any election of a member of a panchayat is brought in question by any person contesting the election or by any person qualified to vote at the election to which such question relates, such person may, at any time within fifteen days after the date of the declaration of the results of the election, present an election petition to the Civil Judge (Junior Division), and if there be no Civil Judge (Junior Division) then to the Civil Judge (Senior Division), (hereinafter referred to as “the Judge”) having ordinary jurisdiction in the area within which the election has been or should have been held, for the determination of such question.

Determination
of election, inquiry by judge and procedure.

(2) A petitioner shall not join as respondents to his election petition persons except those mentioned in the following clauses, namely:-

(a) where the petitioner in addition to challenging the validity of the election of all or any of the returned candidates, claims a further relief that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected, all the contesting candidates other than the petitioner and where no such further relief is claimed, all the returned candidates, and

(b) any other candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in the election petition.

(3) An inquiry shall thereupon be held by the Judge and he may after such inquiry as he deems necessary, pass an order, confirming or amending the declared result, or setting the election aside. For the purposes of the said inquiry, the said Judge may exercise all the powers of a civil court, and his decision shall be conclusive.

(4) If the validity of the election is brought in question only on the ground of any error by the officer or officers charged with carrying out the rules made under section 274 or of an irregularity or informality not corruptly caused, the Judge shall not set aside the election.

1. Sub-section (3) was added by Guj. 22 of 2015, s. 9.

Explanation :- The expression “error” in this sub-section does not include any breach of or any omission to carry out or any non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder whereby the result of the election has been materially affected.

(5) All election petitions received under sub-section (1)-

(a) in which the validity of the election of members to represent the same electoral division is in question, shall be heard by the same Judge, and

(b) in which the validity of the election of the same member elected to represent the same electoral division is in question, shall be heard together.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 the Judge shall not permit-

(a) any petition to be compromised or withdrawn, or

(b) any person to alter or amend any pleading, unless he is satisfied that such application for compromise or withdrawal or the application for such alteration or amendment is bona fide and not collusive.

(7) (a) If on the holding of such inquiry the Judge finds that a candidate has for the purpose of the election committed a corrupt practice within the meaning of sub-section (8) he shall declare the candidate disqualified for the purpose of that election and of such fresh election as may be held under section 33 and shall set aside the election of such candidate if he has been elected.

(b) If, in any case to which clause (a) does not apply, the validity of an election is in dispute between two or more candidates the Judge shall after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each candidate, declare the candidate, who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour to have been duly elected:

Provided that for the purpose of such computation, no vote shall be reckoned as valid if the Judge finds that any corrupt practice was committed by any person known or unknown, in giving or obtaining it:

Provided further that after such computation if any equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, one additional vote shall be added to the total number of valid votes found to have been received in favour of such candidate or candidates, as the case may be, selected by lot drawn in the presence of the Judge in such manner as he may determine.

(8) A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice-

(a) who with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration, or holds out any promise of individual profit, or holds out any threat of injury to any person, or

(b) who, with a view to inducing any person to stand or not to stand or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at an election, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration or holds out any promise of individual profit or holds out any threat of injury to any person, or

(c) who hires or procures whether on payment or otherwise, any vehicle or vessel for the conveyance of any voter (other than the person himself, the members of his family or his agent) to and from any polling station:

Provided that the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by a voter or by several voters at their joint cost for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power:

Provided further that the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any tram car or railway carriage by any voter at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause.

Explanation-1. A corrupt practice shall be deemed to have been committed by a candidate, if it has been committed with his knowledge and consent, or by a person who is acting under the general or special authority of such candidate with reference to the election.

Explanation-2. “promise of individual profit” does not include a promise to vote for or against any particular measure which may come before a panchayat for consideration, but subject thereto, includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself or any person in whom he is interested.

Explanation-3. The expression “vehicle” means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise, and whether used for drawing other vehicles otherwise.

32. (1) If any member of a panchayat,

(a) who is elected, as such, was subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in <sup>1</sup>[sub-section (1) of section 30] at the time of his election,

(b) during the term for which he has been elected, incurs any disqualifications mentioned in <sup>1</sup>[sub-section (1) of section 30], he shall be disabled from continuing to be a member, and his office shall become vacant.

(2) In every case, the question whether a vacancy has arisen, shall be decided by the competent authority. The competent authority may give its decision either on an application made to it by any person, or on its own motion, until the competent authority decides that the vacancy has arisen, the member shall not be disabled under sub section (1) from continuing to be a member. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the competent authority may, within a period of fifteen days from the date of such decision, appeal to the State Government and the orders passed by the State Government in such appeal shall be final:

Provided that no order shall be passed under this sub-section by the competent authority against any member without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

33. If the election of any member is set aside under section 31 or if his office becomes vacant under section 32 a fresh election for the vacancy so caused shall, as soon as may be, be held in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

34. Every panchayat shall make available to the State Election Commission such members of its staff as such Commission may require for the performance of any duties in connection with an election and every such member shall carry out such directions as may be issued to him by such Commission or any competent officer in relation to such election.

Disability from continuing as members.

Fresh election if election is invalid.

Power of State Election Commission to require services of panchayat staff for election.

34A. (1) It shall be the duty of a qualified voter of the Panchayats to vote at the election of the Panchayat, however, he will be free to cast his vote in favour of none of the candidates contesting election as indicated in sub-section (2).

(2) The qualified voter shall cast his vote in favour of none of the candidates contesting election, in the manner as may be prescribed by rules, in case where he does not want to cast his vote in favour of any candidate.

Obligation to vote.

1. These words, brackets and figures were substituted for the word and figure “section 30” by Guj. 19 of 2017, s. 2.

2. Sections 34A to 34E were inserted by Guj. 21 of 2014, s. 9.

- Declaration of a voter to be a defaulter voter. 34B. (1) The election officer, as may be designated by the State Election Commission, may declare the voter to be the defaulter voter who failed to vote at the election of a Panchayat after giving him a notice in the form prescribed by rules.
- (2) The State Government shall be competent to prescribe by rules to be laid before the State Legislature, the disadvantages or consequences to be suffered by a defaulter voter.
- Valid and sufficient reasons for not voting. 34C. A qualified voter shall be exempted to vote at the election of the Panchayat-
- (1) if he is physically incapable due to illness to vote or other bodily infirmity to come and discharge his obligation, or
- (2) if he is absent on the date of election from the country or State of Gujarat, or
- (3) for such other valid and sufficient reasons as may be prescribed by rules by the State Government in consultation with the State Election Commission.
- Notice. 34D. (1) An election officer shall issue a notice to the voter who failed to vote at the election of the Panchayats.
- (2) The election officer shall by a notice inform the voter that he appears to have failed to vote at the election and that it is the duty of voter to vote at election. The voter may within a period of one month inform the valid and sufficient reasons, if any, for not voting alongwith supporting documents such as medical certificate, a copy of passport, etc.
- (3) If no reply to the notice referred to in sub-section (1) is received within a period of one month or where the voter writes to the election officer reasons for not voting and where the election officer is not satisfied with the reasons given by voter as valid and sufficient, the election officer shall by an order in writing containing reasons declare him a defaulter voter.
- Appeal. 34E. (1) The voter who is aggrieved by the order of the election officer under section 34D may prefer an appeal in the form prescribed by rules, within a period of one month to the Appellate Officer designated as such by the State Election Commission.
- (2) The Appellate Officer after providing an opportunity of being heard to the appellant may pass an appropriate order. The order of the Appellate Officer shall be final.]

REQUISITIONING OF PREMISES FOR THE PURPOSES OF ELECTION

44. (1) If it appears to an official authorised by the State Government in this behalf (for conduct of elections under this Act) (hereinafter referred to as “the requisitioning authority”) that in connection with an election under this Act-

Requisitioning of premises, vehicles, etc. for election purposes.

(a) any premises are needed or are likely to be needed for being used as a polling station or for the storage of ballot boxes after a poll has been taken, or

(b) any vehicle, vessel or animal is needed or likely to be needed for the purpose of transport of ballot boxes to or from any polling station or transport of members of the police force for maintaining order during the conduct of such election, or transport of any officer or other person for performance of any duties in connection with such election, the requisitioning authority may by order in writing requisition such premises, or as the case may be, such vehicle, vessel or animal and may make such further orders as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisitioning:

Provided that, no vehicle, vessel or animal which is being lawfully used by a candidate or his agent for any purpose connected with the election of such candidate shall be requisitioned under this sub-section, until, the completion of the poll at such election.

(2) The requisition shall be effected by an order in writing addressed to the person deemed by the requisitioning authority to be the owner or person in possession of the property, and such order shall be served in the manner prescribed by rules made by the State Government under this Act, on the person to whom it is addressed.

(3) Wherever any property is requisitioned under sub-section (1), the period of such requisition shall not extend beyond the period for which such property is required for any of the purposes mentioned in that sub-section.

(4) In this section —

(a) “premises” means any land, building or part of building and includes a hut, shed or other structure or any part thereof;

(b) “vehicle” means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise.

45. (1) Whenever in pursuance of section 44 the requisitioning authority requisitions any premises, the panchayat shall pay to the persons interested compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the requisitioning authority by taking into consideration the following factors that is to say-

Payment of compensation.

(i) the rent payable, in respect of the premises or if no rent is so payable, the rent payable for similar premises in the locality;

(ii) if in consequence of the requisition of premises, the person interested is compelled to change his residence or place of business the reasonable expenses (if any) incidental to such change:

Provided that where any person interested being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application to the requisitioning authority within the time prescribed by rules made by the State Government for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the requisitioning authority may determine:

Provided further that, where there is any dispute as to the title to receive the compensation or as to the apportionment of the amount of compensation, it shall be referred by the requisitioning authority to an arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the requisitioning authority for determination, and shall be determined in accordance with the decision of such arbitrator.

Explanation.-In this sub-section, the expression "person interested" means a person who was in actual possession of the premises requisitioned under section 44 immediately before the requisition, or where no person was in such actual possession, the owner of such premises.

(2) Whenever in pursuance of section 44, the requisitioning authority requisitions any vehicle, vessel or animal, the panchayat shall pay to the owner thereof compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the requisitioning authority on the basis of fares of rates prevailing in the locality for the hire of such vehicle, vessel or animal :

Provided that, where the owner of such vehicle, vessel or animal being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined makes an application within the time prescribed by rules made by the State Government to the requisitioning authority for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the requisitioning authority may determine:

Provided further that, where immediately before the requisitioning, the vehicle or vessel was by virtue of a hire-purchase agreement in the possession of a person other than the owner, the amount determined under this sub-section as the total compensation payable in respect of the requisition shall be apportioned between that person and the owner in such manner as they may agree upon, and in default of agreement, in such manner as an arbitrator appointed by the requisitioning authority in this behalf may decide.

Power to obtain information.

46. The requisitioning authority may, with a view to requisitioning any property under section 44 or determining the compensation payable under section 45 by order, require any person to furnish to such authority as may be specified in the order such information in his possession relating to such property as may be so specified.

Power of entry into and inspection of premises, etc.

47. (1) Any person authorised in this behalf by the requisitioning authority may enter into any premises and inspect such premises and any vehicle, vessel or animal therein for the purpose of determining whether, and if so, in what manner, an order under section 44 should be made in relation to such premises, vehicles, vessel or animal, or with a view to securing compliance with any order made under that section.

(2) In this section, the expressions "premises" and "vehicles" have the same meaning as in section 44.

Eviction from requisitioned premises.

48. (1) Any person remaining in possession of any requisitioned premises in contravention of an order made under section 44 may be summarily evicted from the premises by any officer empowered by the requisitioning authority in this behalf.

(2) Any officer so empowered may after giving to any woman not appearing in public reasonable warning and facility to withdraw, remove or open any lock or bolt or break open any door of any building or do any other act necessary for effecting such eviction.

Release of premises from requisition.

49. (1) When any premises requisitioned under section 44 are to be released from requisition, the possession thereof shall be delivered to the person from whom possession was taken at the time when the premises were requisitioned or if there were no such person, to the person deemed by the requisitioning authority to be the owner of such premises and such delivery of possession shall be a full discharge of the requisitioning authority from all liabilities in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any right in respect of the premises which any other person may be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the premises is so delivered.

(2) Where the person to whom possession of any premises requisitioned under section 44 is to be given under sub-section (1) cannot be found or is not readily ascertainable or has no agent or any other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf the requisitioning authority shall cause a notice declaring that such premises are released from requisition to be affixed on some conspicuous part of such premises and publish the notice in the Official Gazette.

(3) When a notice referred to in sub-section (2) is published in the Official Gazette the premises specified in such notice shall cease to be subject to requisition on and from the date of such publication and be deemed to have been delivered to the person entitled to possession thereof; and the requisitioning authority or the panchayat shall not be liable for any compensation or other claim in respect of such premises for any period after the said date.

50. If any person contravenes any order made under section 44 or section 46, he shall on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine, or with both.

Penalty for contravention of any order regarding requisition.

CHAPTER IV.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO PRESIDING OFFICERS OF PANCHAYATS AND MEMBER OF PANCHAYATS.

PART I

VILLAGE PANCHAYATS

51. (1) On the constitution of village panchayat or on its reconstitution under section 13 or under any other provision of this Act, there shall be called the first meeting thereof for the election of Upa-Srupanch from amongst the members of the panchayat.

First meeting of panchayat and election of [ * * ] Upa-Sarpanch.

(2) (a) The offices of Sarpanch of village panchayats in the State shall be reserved by the State Government for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and the number of the offices of Sarpanch of village panchayats in the State so reserved shall bear as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of offices of Sarpanch of village panchayat in the State as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the State or of the Scheduled Tribes in the State bears to the total population of the State. There shall be reserved by the State Government for socially and educationally backward classes ten percent of the offices of Sarpanch of village panchayats in the State,

(b) (i) <sup>2</sup>[As nearly as may be one-half] of the total number of offices of Sarpanch of village panchayats in the State reserved under clause (a), and

(ii) <sup>2</sup>[As nearly as may be one-half] of the total number of offices of Sarpanch of village panchayats in the State, not so reserved, shall be reserved by the State Government, for women.

(3) The number of offices reserved under sub-section (2) shall be allotted by the State Government by rotation to different village panchayats in the State in the prescribed manner.

(4) The meeting shall be held on such day within four weeks from the date on which the names of members elected at the general election are published under section 15 as may be fixed by the competent authority:

Provided that where no day is fixed within the aforesaid period of four weeks, the competent authority shall report the fact to the State Government or an officer or authority authorised by the State Government and the meeting shall be held on such day as the State Government or the said officer or authority as the case may be, may specify.

1. In the marginal note, the words "Sarpanch and" were deleted by Guj. 15 of 2015, s. 10.

2. These words were substituted for the words "One third" by Guj. 21 of 2014, s. 10.

(5) In the case of village panchayat, where there has been a failure to elect a Sarpanch or where the elected Sarpanch is not willing to take office, the first meeting of such village panchayat shall be presided over by such officer as the competent authority may by order appoint in that behalf.

Such officer shall have such powers and follow such procedure as may be prescribed but shall not have the right to vote.

(6) At the first meeting of the village panchayat no business other than the election of the Upa-Sarpanch shall be transacted.

(7) If at the election under this section there is an equality of votes, the result of the election shall be decided by lot drawn in the presence of the presiding officer in such manner as he may determine.

(8) In the event of a dispute arising as to the validity of an election under the foregoing provisions of this section, the dispute shall be referred within a period of thirty days from the date of the declaration of the result of the election to the competent authority for decision. The decision of the competent authority shall be final and no suit or other proceeding shall lie against it in any court.

Duty of retiring Sarpanch, etc. to handover charge of office.

52. (1) On the election of a new Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch it shall be the duty of the retiring Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch, to hand over to him charge of his office and deliver to him the record and property belonging to the panchayat and in his custody.

(2) The provisions of the sub-section (1) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a retiring member in the matter of handing over charge of his office.

Term of office of members of village panchayats and of Sarpanch, etc. thereof.

53. Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the term of office of-

- (a) the members of a village panchayat, and
  - (b) the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch of a village panchayat,
- shall be co-extensive with the duration of the panchayat.

Resignation of members, Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch.

54. (1) (a) The Sarpanch may resign from his office by tendering his resignation in writing to the Competent authority but the resignation shall not take effect until it is accepted by the competent authority.

(b) The Upa-Sarpanch may resign from his office by tendering his resignation in writing to the panchayat but the resignation shall not take effect until it is accepted by the panchayat.

(2) Any other member of the panchayat may resign from his office by tendering his resignation to the Sarpanch and the resignation shall take effect on the date on which it is accepted by the Sarpanch.

(3) If any dispute regarding any resignation arises, it shall be referred for decision to such officer, as the State Government may, by general or special order, appoint in that behalf and the decision of such officer shall be final:

Provided that no such dispute shall be entertained after the expiry of a period of thirty days from the date on which the resignation takes effect.

Executive functions of Sarpanch, or Upa-Sarpanch

55. (1) Save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, the executive power, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and the resolutions passed by a village panchayat shall vest in the Sarpanch thereof who shall be directly responsible for the due fulfilment of the duties imposed upon the panchayat by or under this Act. In the absence of the Sarpanch his power and duties shall, save as may be otherwise prescribed by rules, be exercised and performed by the Upa-Sarpanch.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision:-

(a) the Sarpanch shall-

(i) preside over and regulate the meeting of the panchayat;

(ii) exercise supervision and control over the acts done and actions taken by all officers and servants of the panchayat;

(iii) incur contingent expenditure upto <sup>1</sup>[five hundred rupees] at any one occasion;

(iv) operate on the fund of the panchayat including authorisation of payment, issue of cheques and refunds;

(v) be responsible for the safe custody of the fund of the panchayat;

(vi) cause to be prepared all statements and reports required by or under this Act ;

(vii) exercise such other powers and discharge such other functions as may be conferred or imposed upon him by this Act or rules made thereunder,

(b) the Upa-Sarpanch shall--

(i) in the absence of the Sarpanch preside over and regulate the meetings of the panchayat;

(ii) exercise such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the Sarpanch as the Sarpanch may, from time to time delegate to him ;

(iii) in case the Sarpanch has been continuously absent from the village for more than fifteen days or is incapacitated to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Sarpanch.

(3) In the absence of both the Sarpanch and the Upa-Sarpanch, every meeting of the panchayat shall be presided over by such one of the members present as may be chosen by the meeting to be Chairman for the occasion.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (iv) of sub-section (2), no money shall be withdrawn from the fund of the panchayat except with the signature of the <sup>2</sup>[Sarpanch or a member of the panchayat authorized in that behalf by the panchayat, and the Secretary].

56. (1) Any member who intends to move a motion of no confidence against the Sarpanch or the Upa-Sarpanch may give notice thereof in the prescribed form to the panchayat concerned. If the notice is supported by one half of the total number of members of the panchayat concerned, the motion may be moved.

Motion of no confidence.

(2) Where in the case of the Sarpanch or, as the case may be, the Upa-Sarpanch, the motion is carried by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the total number of the members of the panchayat, the Sarpanch or, as the case may be, the Upa-Sarpanch shall cease to hold office after a period of three days from the date on which the motion is carried unless he has resigned and the resignation has become effective earlier ; and thereupon the office held by him shall be deemed to have become vacant.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder a Sarpanch or, as the case may be, an Upa-Sarpanch, shall not preside over a meeting in which a motion of no confidence is discussed against him, but he shall have a right to speak or otherwise to take part in the proceedings of such a meeting (including the right to vote).

(4) When the offices of both the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch become vacant simultaneously, such Officer as the Taluka Development Officer may authorise in this behalf shall, pending the election of the Sarpanch, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions and duties of Sarpanch but he shall not have the right to vote in any meetings of the panchayat.

(5) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 91 or 95 a meeting of the panchayat for dealing with a motion of no confidence under this section shall be called within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the notice of such motion is received by the panchayat ;

1. These words were substituted for the words "fifty rupees" by Guj. 15 of 2015, s. 11.

2. These words were substituted for the words "Sarpanch and any one of the two other members of the Panchayat authorised in that behalf by the panchayat" by Guj. 19 of 2017, s. 3.

(b) If the Sarpanch fails to call such meeting, the Secretary of the panchayat shall forthwith make a report thereof to the competent authority and thereupon the competent authority shall call a meeting of the panchayat within a period of fifteen days from the date of the receipt of the report.

Removal from office.

57. (1) The competent authority may remove from office any member of the panchayat, the Sarpanch or, as the case may be, the Upa-Sarpanch thereof, after giving him an opportunity of being heard and giving due notice in that behalf to the panchayat and after such inquiry as it deems necessary, if such member, Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties or of any disgraceful conduct or abuses his powers or makes persistent default in the performance of his duties and functions under this Act or has become incapable of performing his duties and functions under this Act. The Sarpanch or, as the case may be, the Upa-Sarpanch, so removed may at the discretion of the competent authority also be removed from the membership of the panchayat.

(2) The competent authority may, after following the procedure laid down in sub-section (1) disqualify for a period not exceeding five years any person who has resigned his office as a member, Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, or otherwise ceased to hold any such office and has been guilty of misconduct specified in sub-section (1) or has been incapable of performing his duties and functions:

Provided that an action under this sub-section shall be taken within six months from the date on which the person resigns or ceases to hold any such office;

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order of the competent authority under sub-section (1) or (2) may, within a period of thirty days from the date of the communication of such order, appeal to the State Government.

Leave of absence.

58. (1) Any member of a village panchayat who during his term of office-

(a) is absent for more than three consecutive months from the village unless leave not exceeding four months so to absent himself has been granted by the panchayat; or

(b) absents himself for four consecutive months from the meetings of the panchayat without the leave of the said panchayat, shall cease to be a member and his office shall be vacant and there upon the panchayat shall as soon as may be inform him that the vacancy has occurred.

(2) Any dispute as to whether a vacancy has or has not occurred under this section shall be referred for decision to the competent authority, whose decision shall be final:

Provided that such reference shall not be entertained if it is made after the expiry of fifteen days from the date on which the panchayat informs under sub-section (1) the member as to the vacancy.

(3) Whenever leave is granted under sub-section (1) to a member who is an Upa-Sarpanch, another member shall, subject to the conditions to which the election of the Upa-Sarpanch so absenting himself was subject, be elected to perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of an Upa-Sarpanch during the period for which such leave is granted.

Suspension of Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch.

59. (1) The District Development Officer may suspend from office the Sarpanch or the Upa-Sarpanch of a village panchayat against whom any criminal proceedings in respect of an offence involving moral turpitude have been instituted or who has been detained in a prison during trial for any offence or who is undergoing such sentence of imprisonment as would not disqualify him from continuing as a member of the panchayat under section 30 or who has been detained under any law relating to preventive detention for the time being in force.

(2) Where any Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, has been suspended under sub-section (1) another member of the village panchayat shall, subject to the conditions to which the election of the Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, so suspended was subject, be elected to perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of a Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, during the period for which such suspension continues.

(3) An appeal shall lie against an order passed under sub-section (1) to the State Government. Such appeal shall be made within a period of thirty days from the date of the order.

60. A member of a village panchayat whose office has become vacant under section 32 or under section 58 shall, if his disqualification or disability has ceased, be eligible for re-election.

Eligibility of certain members for re-election.

61. (1) Any vacancy in the office of a Sarpanch, or Upa-Sarpanch, or member of a panchayat of which notice has been given to the competent authority in the prescribed manner shall be filled by the election of a Sarpanch, Upa-Sarpanch or as the case may be, member, who shall hold office so long only as the Sarpanch, Upa-Sarpanch or member, in whose place he has been elected, would have held office if the vacancy had not occurred:

Filling up of vacancies.

Provided that if vacancy of a member occurs within <sup>1</sup>[twelve months] preceding the date on which the duration of the panchayat expires under section 13, it shall not be filled:

<sup>2</sup>[Provided, however, that vacancy in the office of a member, if any, existing on the date of commencement of the Gujarat Local Authorities Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015, may not be filled till the general election is held for re-constituting the panchayat immediately after coming into force of the Gujarat Local Authorities Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015.]

Guj. 15 of 2015.

Guj. 15 of 2015.

(2) The meeting for the election of the <sup>3</sup>[ * * ] Upa-Sarpanch of a village panchayat under sub-section (i) shall be convened by the competent authority on such date as it may fix and the election shall be held in the same manner in which the election of a <sup>3</sup>[ * * ] Upa-Sarpanch is held under section 51 and the provisions of that section shall, so far as may be, apply in respect of such election.

62. (1) No disqualification of or defect in the election of any person acting as a member, Sarpanch, or Upa-Sarpanch or Chairman or member of a committee constituted under this Act or defect in the appointment of a presiding authority of the first general meeting shall be deemed to vitiate any act or proceeding of the panchayat or of any such committee as the case may be, in which the person has taken part wherever the majority of persons parties to such act or proceeding were entitled to act.

Acts and proceeding of panchayat and committee not vitiated by dis-qualification, etc. of members thereof.

(2) No resolution of a panchayat or of any committee constituted under this Act, shall be deemed invalid on account of any irregularity in the service of notice upon any member, provided that the proceedings of the panchayat or committee were not prejudicially affected by such irregularity.

(3) Untill the contrary is proved, every meeting of a panchayat or of a committee constituted under this Act in respect of proceedings whereof a minute has been made and signed in accordance with this Act, shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held and all the members of the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly qualified, and where the proceedings are the proceedings of a committee, such committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted and to have had the power to deal with the matters referred to in the minute.

(4) During any vacancy in a panchayat or committee thereof the continuing members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.

1. These words were substituted for the words "four months" by Guj. 15 of 2015, s. 12(1)(i).
2. This proviso was inserted, ibid., s. 12 (1)(ii).
3. The words "Sarpanch or" were deleted, ibid., s. 12 (2).

PART II

There shall be reserved by the State Government for socially and educationally backward classes ten percent of the offices of the President of Taluka Panchayats in the State;

(b) (i) <sup>1</sup>[As nearly as may be One-half] of the total number of offices of President of Taluka Panchayats in the State reserved under clause (a), and

(ii) <sup>1</sup>[As nearly as may be One-half] of the total number of offices of President of Taluka Panchayats in the State, not so reserved, shall be reserved by the State Government for women.

(3) The number of offices reserved under sub-section (2) shall be allotted by the State Government by rotation to different taluka Panchayats in the State in the prescribed manner.

(4) The meeting shall be held on such day within four weeks from the date on which the names of members elected at the general election are published under section 15 as may be fixed by the competent authority:

Provided that where no day is fixed within the aforesaid period of four weeks, the competent authority shall report the fact to the State Government or an officer or authority authorised by the State Government and the meeting shall be held on such day as the State Government or the said officer or authority, as the case may be, may specify.

(5) The first meeting shall be presided over by such officer as the competent authority may by order appoint in that behalf. Such officer shall, have such powers and follow such procedure as may be prescribed but shall not have the right to vote.

(6) No business other than the election of the President and Vice-President shall be transacted at the meeting.

(7) If at the election under this section, there is an equality of votes, the result of the election shall be decided by lot drawn in the presence of the presiding officer as he may determine.

(8) In the event of a dispute arising as to the validity of an election under the foregoing provisions of this section the dispute shall be referred within a period of thirty days from the date of the declaration of the result of the election to the competent authority for decision. The decision of the competent authority shall be final and no suit or other proceeding shall lie against it in any court.

Duty of retiring president, etc. to handover charge of office.

64. (1) On the election of a new President or Vice-President, it shall be the duty of the retiring resident or, as the case may be, Vice-President to hand over to him charge of his office and deliver to him the record and property belonging to the panchayat and in his custody.

1. These words were substituted for the words "One third" by Guj. 21 of 2014, s. 11.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a retiring member in the matter of handing over charge of his office.

65. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the taluka panchayat shall pay to its President an honorarium at such rate as may be prescribed.

Honorarium allowances, etc. to President and Vice-President and travelling allowances to members.

(2)(a) The President shall be entitled without payment of rent, to the use of a residence, in the headquarters of the panchayat or with the previous sanction of the State Government at any other place in the taluka throughout his term of office and for a period of fifteen days immediately thereafter, or in lieu of such residence, a house allowance at such rate as the State Government may determine by a general or special order.

(b) No charge shall fall on the President personally in respect of the maintenance of any residence provided under this sub-section.

(3) During the leave or absence of the President, the Vice-President shall be paid such honorarium and allowances as may be prescribed.

(4) The President, Vice-President and a member of the panchayat shall be entitled to travelling allowances while touring on public business at such rates and upon such conditions as may be determined by rules made either prospectively or retrospectively.

66. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), where the President of a taluka panchayat remains absent or is on leave for a continuous period exceeding fifteen days, he shall not be entitled to any honorarium under sub-section (1) of section 65 for such period.

Payment of honorarium to President during leave or absence.

(2) Where the President remains absent on ground of illness duly certified by such medical authority as the State Government may by general or special order specify, the President shall be entitled to an honorarium under sub-section (1) of section 65 during the period of such absence in so far as such period does not exceed ninety days during any year.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to the absence of the President on account of his touring on public business.

<sup>1</sup>[67. (1) Save as otherwise provided in the Act, the term of office of members of a Taluka Panchayat shall be co-extensive with the duration of the Panchayat.

Term of office of members, President and Vice-President.

(2) The term of office of the President and the Vice-President of a Taluka Panchayat, save as otherwise provided in this Act, shall be two and a half years.

(3) There shall be called a meeting of the elected members of the Taluka Panchayat by the competent authority within thirty days before the expiry of the term of two and a half years for the election of President and the Vice-President from amongst such elected members.

(4) Subject to the other provisions of this section, the President or the Vice-President shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(5) If, during the term of his office under sub-section (2), the President or the Vice-President, ceases to be a member of the Panchayat, he shall vacate the office held by him.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the President or the Vice-President who has completed a period of two and a half years on the date of the commencement of the Gujarat Local Authorities Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015, shall continue to hold the office till the remainder term of the Panchayat.]

Guj. 15 of 2015.

68. (1) The President may resign from his office by tendering his Resignation in writing to the competent authority but the Resignation shall not take effect until it is accepted by the competent authority.

Resignation.

(2) The Vice-President may resign from his office by tendering his resignation in writing to the panchayat but the resignation shall not take effect until it is accepted by the panchayat.

1. Section 67 was substituted by Guj. 15 of 2015, s. 13.

(3) Any other member of the panchayat may resign by tendering his resignation to the President and the resignation shall take effect on the date on which it is received by the President.

(4) If any dispute regarding any resignation arises it shall be referred for decision to such officer as the State Government may by general or special order appoint in that behalf and the decision of such officer shall be final:

Provided that no such dispute shall be entertained after the expiry of a period of thirty days from the date on which the resignation takes effect.

Powers and functions of President and Vice-President.

69. (1) (a) The President shall-

(i) convene, preside at, and conduct meetings of the taluka panchayat ;

(ii) have access to the records of the panchayat ;

(iii) discharge all the duties imposed, and exercise all the powers conferred on him by or under this Act;

(iv) watch over the financial and executive administration of the panchayat and submit to the panchayat all questions connected therewith which shall appear to him to require its orders; and

(v) exercise administrative supervision over the Taluka Development Officer for securing implementation of resolutions or decisions of the panchayat or of any committee thereof.

(b) The President may in cases of emergency direct the execution or suspension or stoppage of any work or the doing of any act which requires the sanction of the panchayat or any authority thereof, and immediate execution or doing of which is, in his opinion, necessary for the service or safety of the public and may direct that the expenses of executing such work or doing such act shall be paid from the Taluka Fund:

Provided that, he shall report forthwith the action taken under this sub-section, and the reasons therefor, to the Executive Committee or any appropriate Standing Committee at its next meeting.

(2) The Vice-President shall-

(a) in the absence of the President, preside at the meetings of the panchayat;

(b) exercise such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the President as the President from time to time may, subject to the rules made by the State Government in this behalf, delegate to him by an order in writing ; and

(c) pending the election of President, or during the absence of the President, exercise the powers and perform the duties of the President.

Motion of no confidence.

70. (1) Any member who intends to move a motion of no confidence against the President or Vice-President may give a notice thereof in the prescribed form to the panchayat. If the notice is supported by such number of members as may be prescribed, the motion may be moved.

(2) If the motion is carried by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the total number of the then members of the panchayat, the President or the Vice-President, as the case may be, shall cease to hold office after a period of three days from the date on which the motion is carried, unless he has resigned earlier; and thereupon the office held by such President or Vice-President shall be deemed to be vacant.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder a President or Vice-President shall not preside over a meeting in which a motion of no confidence is discussed against him; but he shall have a right to speak or otherwise to take part in the proceedings of such a meeting (including the right to vote).

(4)(a) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 122, a meeting of the panchayat for dealing with a motion of no confidence under this section shall be called within a period of fifteen days from the date on which a notice of such motion is received by the panchayat.

(b) If the President of the panchayat fails to call such meeting, the Secretary of the panchaya shall make a report thereof to the competent authority and thereupon the competent authority shall call a meeting of the panchayat within a period of fifteen days from the date of the receipt of the report.

71. (1) The competent authority may remove from office any member of a panchayat or any President or Vice-President thereof after giving him an opportunity of being heard and giving due notice in that behalf to the panchayat and after such inquiry as it deems necessary, if such member, President or Vice-President has been guilty or misconduct in the discharge of his duties or of any disgraceful conduct or abuses his powers or makes persistent default in the performance of his duties and functions under this Act or has become incapable of performing his duties under this Act. The President or as the case may be, the Vice-President so removed may at the discretion of the competent authority also be removed from the membership of the panchayat.

Removal from office.

(2) The competent authority may, after following the procedure laid down in sub section (1), disqualify for a period not exceeding five years any person who has resigned his office as a member, President or Vice-President or otherwise ceased to hold any such office and has been guilty of misconduct specified in sub section (1) or has been incapable of performing his duties:

Provided that an action shall be taken within six months from the date on which the person resigns, or ceases to hold, any such office.

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order of the competent authority under sub-section (1) or (2) may within a period of thirty days from the date of the communication of such order appeal to the prescribed authority.

72. (1) Any member other than an associate member of a panchayat who during his term of office:-

absence.

(a) is absent for more than three consecutive months from the taluka unless leave not exceeding four months so to absent himself has been granted by the panchayat, or

(b) absents himself from four consecutive meetings of the panchayat without the leave of the said panchayat, shall cease to be member and his office shall be vacant and thereupon the panchayat shall, as soon as may be, inform him that the vacancy has occurred.

(2) Any dispute as to whether a vacancy has or has not occurred under this section shall be referred for decision to the competent authority, whose decision shall be final:

Provided that such reference shall not be entertained if it is made after the expiry of fifteen days from the date on which the panchayat informs under sub-section (1) the member as to the vacancy.

(3) Whenever leave is granted under sub-section (1) to a member who is Vice-President, another member shall subject to the condition to which the election of the Vice-President so absenting himself was subject, be elected to perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of a Vice-President during the period for which such leave is granted.

1. These words were added by Guj. 15 of 2015, s.19(1).

2. This Explanation was inserted, ibid., s.19(2).

(3) A panchayat may, by resolution passed at its meeting and supported by two thirds of the whole number of members make provision for any public reception, ceremony or entertainment in the area within its jurisdiction or may make contribution towards an annual gathering or such other gathering of panchayats in the district or the State or towards the fund of any institution which is established with the object of promoting the spirit of community, self-help and mutual aid among village folk and suggesting ways and means for the efficient administration of panchayats and which is recognised by the State Government:

Provided that except with the previous sanction of the panchayat to which it is subordinate under section 6, the panchayat shall not incur expenditure exceeding <sup>1</sup>[five thousand rupees] on any such reception, ceremony, entertainment or gathering.

(4) If in respect of any land it comes to the notice of a panchayat that on account of the neglect of the occupant or superior holder thereof or dispute between him and his tenant, the cultivation of the land has seriously suffered the panchayat may bring such fact to the notice of the competent authority.

(5) A panchayat shall, in regard to the measures for the amelioration of the condition of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other backward classes, and in particular, in the removal of untouchability, carry out the directions or orders given or issued in this regard from time to time by the State Government or the competent authority and in case the panchayat fails to carry out any direction or order so given or issued, it shall be lawful for the State Government to withhold the payment to the panchayat of all or any of the grants payable under Chapter XI after the panchayat has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(6) A panchayat shall perform such other duties and functions as are entrusted to it by or under any other law for the time being in force.

(7) It shall be lawful for a panchayat to render financial or other assistance to any person for carrying on in the village panchayat any activity which is related to any of the matters specified in Schedule I.

101. (1) A village panchayat may compromise in respect of any suit instituted by or against it or in respect of any claim or demand arising out of any contract entered into by it under this Act, for such sum of money or other compensation as it shall deem sufficient: Power to compromise.

Provided that if any sanction in the making of any contract is required by this Act, the like previous sanction shall be obtained for compromising any claim or demand arising out of such contract.

(2) The panchayat may give compensation out of its fund to any person sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in it and its officers and servants under this Act.

102. It shall be the duty of every village panchayat to enquire and report in any of the following cases, namely:— Local inquiry and reports by village panchayat.

11 of 1974. (a) any case where a magistrate has directed that a previous local investigation be made by a village panchayat under section 202 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and the words “such other person” in sub-section (1) of the said section shall be deemed to include a village panchayat;

11 of 1974. (b) any case in which a magistrate making an inquiry under section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, may require from the village panchayat in whose jurisdiction either the wife or child for whose maintenance the application is made or the husband or parents respectively of such wife or child resides, reports as to the amount of maintenance which, having regard to the circumstances of the parties, should be payable and such report shall be evidence in such inquiry:

1. These words were substituted for the words “one hundred rupees” by Guj. 15 of 2015, s. 20.

Provided that no member of the village panchayat shall be required to attend as a witness touching any matter on which the report is itself evidence but the magistrate may, in his discretion, call for a further report.

Powers of panchayat to manage institutions or execute work transferred to it by taluka or district panchayat.

103. In the case of any institution managed by a taluka panchayat or district panchayat, or of any work to be, done out of the fund of a taluka panchayat or district panchayat, the taluka panchayat or, as the case may be, the district panchayat may, if the village panchayat so agrees entrust to the village panchayat, the management of such institutions or the execution of such work:

Provided that in every such case, the fund necessary for such management or execution shall be placed at the disposal of the panchayat by the taluka panchayat, or district panchayat.

Control on erection of buildings.

104. (1) No person shall erect or re-erect or commence to erect or re-erect within the limits of the village, any building without the previous permission of the panchayat.

(2) Permission shall be presumed to have been granted if the panchayat fails to communicate its sanction or refusal in respect thereof within one month from the date of receipt of the application for the permission. In case of refusal, the panchayat shall communicate to the applicant the reasons thereof, and an appeal shall lie against any such order of refusal to the taluka panchayat:

Provided that no such appeal shall be entertained if it is made after the expiry of thirty days from the date on which the refusal is communicated to the applicant.

(3) No person, who becomes entitled under sub-section (1) or (2) to proceed with any intended work of erection or re-erection shall commence such work after the expiry of one year from the date on which he became entitled to proceed therewith unless he shall have again become so entitled by a fresh compliance with the provisions of sub-section (1) or (2) as the case may be.

(4) Whoever erects or re-erects or commences to erect or re-erect any building without such permission or in any manner contrary to the provisions of sub-section (1) or any bye-law in force, or any conditions imposed by the panchayat shall, on conviction be punished with fine, which may extend to two hundred rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, he shall be liable to an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for each day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

(5) Without prejudice to the penalty prescribed in sub-section (4) the panchayat may—

(a) direct that the erection or re-erection be stopped,

(b) by written notice require such erection or re-erection to be altered or demolished, as it may deem necessary, and, if the requirement under clause (b) is not complied with within the time fixed in the notice, the panchayat may cause the alteration or demolition to be carried out by its officers and all the expenses incurred by the panchayat therefor, shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter X:

Provided that when a notice for bringing any action against any direction for the alteration or demolition of any erection or re-erection issued under this sub-section has been given under sub-section (2) of section 270, alteration or demolition shall not be caused to be carried out until the expiry of the period of such notice and a further period of seven days.

(6) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any building which is used or required for public service or for any public purpose, and if the property of the State or Central Government or any local authority, or is to be erected or re-erected by the State or Central Government or the local authority but reasonable notice of the proposed construction shall be caused to be given to the panchayat, and the objections or suggestions of the panchayat, if any, shall be considered.

Explanation.— The expression “erect” or “re-erect” with reference to a building in this section includes-

- (a) any material alteration, or enlargement of or in any building;
- (b) the conversion by structural alteration into a place for human habitation of any building not originally constructed for human habitation;
- (c) such alteration of a building as would effect a change in the drainage or sanitary arrangement or materially affect its security;
- (d) the addition of any rooms, buildings, outhouses, or other structures to any building;
- (e) the conversion by any structural alteration into a place of religious worship or into a sacred building of any place or building, not originally meant or constructed for such purpose;
- (f) roofing or covering an open space between walls and building's as regards the structure which is formed by roofing or covering such space ;
- (g) conversion into a stall, shop, warehouse, or godown of any building not originally constructed for use as such or vice versa;
- (h) construction in a wall adjoining any street or land not vested in the owner of the wall, of a door opening on such street or land.

105. (1) Whoever, within the limits of a village-

- (a) builds or sets up any wall, or any fence, rail, post, stall, verandah, platform, plinth, step or structure or thing or any other encroachment, or obstruction, or
- (b) deposits, or causes to be placed or deposited, any box, bale, package or merchandise, or any other thing, or
- (c) without written permission given to the owner or occupier of a building by a panchayat puts up, so as to project from an upper storey thereof any verandah, balcony, room or other structure or thing, in or over any public street or place, or in or upon any open drain, gutter, sewer or aqueduct in such street or place, or contravenes any conditions subject to which any permission as aforesaid is given or the provisions of any bye-law made in relation to any such projections or cultivates or makes any unauthorised use of any grazing land, not being private property, shall on conviction, be punished with fine, and with further fine which may extend to twenty five rupees for each day on which such obstruction, deposit, projection, cultivation or unauthorised use continues after the date of first conviction for such offense.

(2) The panchayat may remove any such obstruction or encroachment and remove any crop unauthorised cultivated, on grazing land or any other land not being private property, and may remove any unauthorised obstruction or encroachment of the like nature in any open site not being private property, whether such site is vested in the panchayat or not:

Provided that if the site be vested in the State Government, the permission of the Collector or any officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall have first been obtained the expenses of such removal shall be paid by the person who has caused the said obstruction or encroachment and shall be recoverable under Chapter X:

Provided further that when before the removal of any such encroachment or projection a notice for bringing action in that behalf has been given under sub-section (2) of section 270, no action for the removal of the encroachment or projection shall be taken until the expiry of the period of such notice and further period of seven days.

Obstruction
and encroachment upon public streets and open sites.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (2) shall prevent the panchayat from permitting any construction referred to in clause (a) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) to stand on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(4) The power under sub-section (2) may be exercised in respect of any obstruction, encroachment, or projection referred to therein whether or not such obstruction, encroachment, or projection has been made before or after the village is specified as such under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution or before or after the property is vested in the panchayat.

(5) Whoever not being duly authorised in that behalf removes earth, sand or other material from, or makes any encroachment in or upon any open site which is not private property, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine and, in the case of an encroachment, with further fine which may extend to twenty five rupees for every day on which the encroachment continues after the date of first conviction.

(6) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the panchayat from allowing any temporary occupation of or erection in, any public street on, occasions of festivals and ceremonies, of the piling of fuel in by-lanes and sites for not more than seven days, and in such manner as not to inconvenience the public or any individual or from allowing any temporary erection on or putting projection over, or temporary occupation of, any such public street or place, or any other purpose in accordance with the bye-laws made under this Act.

(7) Where the panchayat finds it difficult to remove any obstruction or encroachment or any crop unauthorised cultivated on grazing lands as referred to in sub-section (2), it shall inform the Taluka Development Officer accordingly and the Taluka Development Officer shall on receipt of such information exercise the powers of the panchayat under sub-section (2) and take action to remove the obstruction, encroachment or, as the case may be, the crop.

(8) The Taluka Development Officer may, take action referred to in sub-section (7) suo-motu or whenever it is reported to him that though the panchayat was moved to take action under sub-section (2) it has not taken any action for three months:

Provided that before taking action suo motu he shall direct the village panchayat to take action and if the panchayat fails to do so within a specified time, the Taluka Development Officer may thereafter take action.

Numbering of Premises. 106. (1) The panchayat may, from time to time by written notice, require the owner of any premises or part thereof, either to put up, by means of a metal plate a number or sub-number on such premises, or part thereof in such position and manner as may be specified in such notice, or to signify in writing his desire that such work shall be executed under the orders of the panchayat.

(2) Any person who destroys, pulls down or defaces any such number or sub-number or puts any number or sub-number different from that put up by order of the panchayat and any owner of any premises or part thereof, who does not at his own expense keep such number or sub-number in good order after it has been put up thereon, shall on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(3) Where a number or sub-number is put upon any premises or part thereof, under the orders of the panchayat in accordance with sub-section (1), the expenses of such work shall be payable by the owner of such premises or part thereof, as the case may be.

(4) In this section "premises" means a house, outhouse, stable, shed, hut or other structure whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud, metal or any other material whatsoever whether used as a human dwelling or otherwise.

107. (1) Where any premises in any village are, in the opinion of the Taluka Development Officer, without adequate and suitable water closet or privy accommodation in accordance with the rules or bye-laws made under this Act in that behalf, the Taluka Development Officer, may, by written notice, require the owner of such premises to provide such water or privy accommodation in accordance with the rules or bye-laws made under this Act in that behalf, within such time as may be specified in such notice and if the owner fails to comply with such requirement, within the time so specified or within such time as may, on the application of the owner, be extended by the Taluka Development Officer for any reasonable cause, it shall be lawful for the Taluka Development Officer to make such provision from the taluka fund and where such fund is inadequate, with the permission of the district panchayat, from the District Development Fund. The expenses incurred by the Taluka Development Officer, in making such provision shall, on demand by the Taluka Development officer, be payable by the owner and if not paid by him on demand such expenses shall be recoverable by the Taluka Development Officer in accordance with provisions of section 215.

Powers of Taluka Development Officer to require owner to provide water closet or privy accommodation.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where the owner of any premises fails to comply with such requirement within the period specified under sub-section (1), the Taluka Development Officer may, in a case where the owner is not himself the occupier of such premises, permit the occupier of such premises to make provision for such water-closet or privy accommodation at the cost of the owner if the occupier is willing to do so instead of the Taluka Development Officer himself making such provision. Any such occupier who makes such provision shall, after obtaining the necessary certificate from the Taluka Development officer about such provision having been made by him in making such provision and the reasonableness of such expenses, be entitled to deduct, such amount of expenses as is certified by the Taluka Development Officer to be reasonable from the rent or any other sum payable by him to the owner or to recover, such amount from the owner in any other lawful manner.

(3) For the purpose of making the provision specified in sub-section (1), the Taluka Development Officer shall have power to do all acts necessary for that purpose and the Panchayat or the Taluka Development Officer shall not be liable to pay any compensation to the owner of the premises for any reasonable damage done to the premises in making such provision.

(4) Where any water-closet or privy accommodation is provided or set up by the Taluka Development Officer under sub-section (1) and the expenses incurred by the Taluka Development Officer in doing so are paid by, or recovered from the owner in full, such water-closet or privy accommodation shall belong to the owner of the premises and the owner shall be responsible for the expenses of maintaining it in good repairs and efficient condition.

(5) The provision as aforesaid made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not be deemed to be a permanent structure for the purpose of clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 13 of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947.

Bom. LVII of 1947.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section, “water closet” means a closet used as a privy in which discharge are pushed in or carried off by water and includes an acqua privy, gas plant, latrine attached with gas plant, a closet of type known as P. R. A. I. (Planning Research Action Institute) type, septic tank type, band flush type, bore hole type, clap trap type or any other type which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

(C) Property and Funds

Government may vest certain lands in panchayat.

108. (1) For the purpose of this Act, the State Government may subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may think fit to impose, vest in a panchayat open sites, waste, vacant or grazing lands or public roads, streets, bridges, ditches, dikes and fences, wells, river-beds, tanks, streams, lakes, nallas, canals, water courses, trees or any other property in the village vesting in the Government.

(2) Subject to any conditions and restrictions imposed by the State Government under sub-section (7) and with the previous sanction of the Collector, a panchayat may discontinue or stop up any such public road or street vested in it by the State Government, but which is no longer required as public road or street and may lease or sell any such land therefore used for the purposes of such public road or street:

Provided that one month before it is decided to stop up or discontinue such public road or street, the Sarpanch shall, by notice signed by him and affixed in the part of the public road or street which is proposed to be discontinued or stopped up, and published in such other manner as is prescribed, inform the residents of the village of the said proposal and consider any objections in writing made thereto. The notice shall indicate the alternative route, if any, which it is proposed to provide or which may already be in existence.

(3) Whenever any public road or street or any part thereof has been so discontinued or stopped up, reasonable compensation shall be paid to every person who was entitled to use such road or street or part thereof, otherwise than as a mere member of the public, as a means of access to or from his property and has suffered damage from such discontinuance or stopping up, and the provisions in the Bombay Highways Act, 1955 in relation to the assessment, apportionment, and payment of compensation shall, mutatis mutandis, apply thereto as they apply in relation to the closure of a highway under section 52 of that Act.

Bom. LV of 1955.

(4) Where any open site or waste, vacant or grazing land vesting in Government, has been vested by Government in a panchayat whether before or after the commencement of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the State Government to resume at any time such site or land, if it is required by it for any public purpose:

Provided that in case of any improvement of such site or land made by the panchayat or any other person, the panchayat or person, as the case may be, shall be entitled to compensation equal to the value of such improvement and such value shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894.

1 of 1894.

Other property of village panchayat.

109. (1) A taluka panchayat or the district panchayat may from time to time direct that any property vesting in it shall vest in a village panchayat and thereupon notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, or the Indian Registration Act, 1908, such property shall vest in the village panchayat.

IV of 1882. XVI of 1908.

(2) Every work constructed by a panchayat out of its fund, or with Government assistance or people's participation shall vest in the panchayat.

Limitation on power of panchayat to transfer immovable property.

110. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) no lease, sale or other transfer of any immovable property vesting in, or acquired by a panchayat shall be valid unless such lease, sale or other transfer has been made with the previous sanction of the competent authority.

(2) In the case of a lease of immovable property other than the property vesting in the panchayat under section 108, no such previous sanction shall be necessary, if the period of lease does not exceed three years.

Village Fund.

111. (1) There shall be in each village a fund to be called the village fund.

(2) The following shall be paid into and form part of the fund, namely: -

(a) The proceeds of any tax or fee imposed by or assigned to the panchayat under this Act;

- (b) all sums ordered by a court to be paid as compensation;
- (c) all other sums ordered by a court to be placed at the credit of the village fund;
- (d) the sale proceeds of all dust, dirt, dung, refuse, or carcasses of animals, except in so far as any person is entitled to the whole or a portion thereof;
- (e) sums contributed to the fund by the State Government or the taluka panchayat or the district panchayat;
- (f) all sums received by way of loans from the State Government or the taluka panchayat or the district panchayat or out of the District Development Fund or otherwise;
- (g) all sums received by the panchayat by way of gift or contribution;
- (h) the income or proceeds of any property vesting in the panchayat;
- (i) the net proceeds (after deducting the expenses of assessment and collection) of the cess authorised by section 203;
- (j) all sums, realised by way of rent or penalty otherwise than as the amount of any fine in a criminal case;
- (k) all sums realised as pound fees after deducting the expenses.

112. (1) All property vested in a panchayat under this Act, and all funds received by it in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and all sums accruing to it under the provisions of any law for the time being in force, shall be applied subject to the provisions and for the purposes of this Act and all such funds and sums shall be kept in such custody as may be prescribed.

Application of fund.

(2) Any surplus funds in the hands of a panchayat which may not be required for current charges, may be invested in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) in the case of any loan taken by a panchayat, the payment of the principal or instalment thereof and the payment of interest thereon shall be a first charge on its fund.

113. (1) In any revenue village where any property or any right in or over any property is claimed by or on behalf of the panchayat or by any person against the panchayat, it shall be lawful for the Collector, after formal enquiry of which due notice has been given, to pass an order deciding the claim.

Decision on claims to property by or against village panchayat.

(2) Any suit instituted in any Civil Court after the expiration of one year from the date of the communication of any order passed by the Collector under sub-section (1), or if one or more appeals have been made against such order within the period of limitation, then from the date of communication of any order passed by the final appellate authority as determined according to section 204 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, shall be dismissed (although limitation has not been set up as a defence) if the suit is brought to set aside, such order or if the relief claimed is inconsistent with such order, provided that the plaintiff has received due notice of such order.

Bom. V of 1879.

(3)(a) The powers conferred by this section on the Collector may be exercised also by an Assistant or Deputy Collector or by a Survey Officer or such other officer appointed under the said Code.

(b) The formal inquiry referred to in this section shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions relating to such enquiry under the said Code.

(c) A person shall be deemed to have had due notice of any inquiry or order under this section if notice thereof has been given in the prescribed manner.

(D) Officers and servants of Panchayats*Secretary and servants of panchayats.*114. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made there under—

(a) there shall be a Secretary for every village panchayat who shall be appointed in accordance with the rules;

(b) a village panchayat shall have such other servants as may be determined under section 227. Such servant shall be appointed by such authority and their conditions of service shall be such as may be prescribed:

Provided that the State Government having regard to the population of a village and income of the panchayat thereof may direct in respect of a group of village panchayats that such group shall have one Secretary and thereupon there shall be one Secretary for that group.

(2) A Secretary of a village panchayat shall subject to the control of the Sarpanch-

(a) keep in his custody the records and registers of the panchayat,

(b) issue receipts under his signature for sums of money received by him on behalf of the panchayat,

(c) prepare all statements and reports required under this Act, and

(d) perform such other functions and duties under this Act as may be prescribed.

(3) The other servants of the panchayat shall perform such functions and duties and exercise such powers under this Act as may be imposed or conferred on them by the panchayat, subject to rules, if any, made in this behalf.

(E) Contribution to District Development Fund.*Contribution to District Development Fund.*115. Every village panchayat shall contribute every year to the District Development Fund constituted under section 223 a sum equal to such percentage not exceeding ten percent of its income from such sources as may be prescribed:

Provided that where any village panchayat fails in any year to make a contribution under this section, it shall be lawful for the State Government to deduct such amount from the grant payable to the panchayat under section 219 in the next succeeding year as may be sufficient to make the contribution and credit the same to the District Development Fund on behalf of the village panchayat.

(F) Budget Estimates*Annual Budget Estimates.*116. (1) Every village panchayat shall have prepared annually on or before the 15th December of the current year of such date not later than 31st December of the current year as may be approved by the taluka Panchayat, in such form and manner as may be prescribed in this behalf a budget estimate of its income and expenditure for the next year and forward the budget estimate to the taluka panchayat on or before—(a) the 31st December of the current year where the budget estimate is prepared on or before the 15th December of the Current year, or

(b) the 15th January of the current year where the budget estimate is prepared on or before the approved date:

Provided that the budget estimate shall be so prepared that at the end of the year the panchayat shall have at its credit a balance of not less than such minimum amount as may be prescribed in that behalf.

(2) The taluka panchayat shall scrutinize the budget estimates and return to the panchayat within two months of its receipt with such observations and recommendations as it may make in respect of the budget estimate.

(3) The panchayat shall thereupon approve the budget estimate on or before the 31st March of the current year with such modifications as it may think fit having regard to the observations and recommendations made by the taluka panchayat under sub-section (2).

(4) Where any village panchayat has failed to comply with the provisions of sub-section (3), it shall be lawful for the State Government to form an opinion that the panchayat is incompetent to perform the duties imposed on it or functions entrusted to it under the provisions of this Act.

Explanation.— A village panchayat shall not be deemed to have failed to comply with the provisions of sub-section (3), if such failure has resulted on account of non-compliance by the taluka panchayat of provisions of sub-section (2).

117. (1) A taluka panchayat may at any time during the year for which any budget estimate has been approved cause a revised or supplementary budget estimate to be prepared. Every such revised or supplementary budget shall be considered and approved by the panchayat in the same manner as if it were an original annual budget estimate:

Revised or supplementary budget of reappropriation of funds.

Provided that the taluka panchayat shall scrutinise the budget and return to the panchayat within one month of its receipt.

(2) Reappropriation of fund in a budget estimate may be made from time to time subject to the same approval as is required for the budget estimates.

118. (1) Save in the case of a pressing emergency, no sum shall be expended by or on behalf of a village panchayat unless such sum is included in some budget estimate approved under section 116 or 117 and in force at the time of incurring the expenditure.

Except in emergency no sum to be expended unless it has been included in budget estimates.

(2) If on a pressing emergency, any sum is expended otherwise than in accordance with sub-section (1), the circumstances shall be forthwith communicated in writing to the taluka panchayat, with an explanation of the way in which it is proposed by the panchayat to cover such extra expenditure.

119. Accounts of the income and expenditure of every panchayat shall be kept in such form and manner as may be prescribed and shall be balanced annually on the 1st day of every year.

- (6) Land Department;
- (7) Prohibition Department so far as prohibition propoganda is concerned;
- (8) Co-operative Department;
- (9) Cottage Industries and Small Scale Industries ;
- (10) District Statistical Officer.

(3) On the transfer of any powers, functions and duties under sub-sections (1) and (2) the district panchayat shall, if the State Government so directs and with the previous approval of the State Government, may delegate to any panchayat subordinate to it any of the functions, powers and duties so transferred and allot to such panchayat such fund and staff as may be necessary to enable the panchayat to exercise the powers and discharge the functions and duties so delegated.

(4) Where any powers, functions and duties conferred by or under any enactment are so transferred or delegated, that enactment shall have effect as if this section had been incorporated in that enactment.

(5) The matters in respect of which the functions and duties are transferred or delegated under this section shall be deemed to be included in the Panchayat Functions List.

176. In transferring to a district panchayat any powers, functions and duties, relating to any matter, exercised by the State Government or any of its officers, it shall be lawful for the State Government to transfer to the district panchayat any property belonging to the State Government and connected with such matter together with the rights and liabilities (including rights and liabilities arising out of any contract) of the State Government in respect of the property and thereupon the rights and liabilities which accrued, before such transfer or which may accrue thereafter shall be the rights and liabilities of the district panchayat.

Transfer of rights and liabilities in respect of property transferred to Panchayat.

177. The transfer or allotment of any servant to panchayat under section 175 shall not affect-

Obligation or liability of servants transferred under section 175 not affected.

(a) any obligation or liability incurred or default committed before such transfer or allotment by such servant while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his duties as such servant; and

(b) any investigation, disciplinary action or remedy in respect of such obligation, liability or default and any such investigation, disciplinary action or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced in accordance with the law applicable thereto before such transfer or allotment by such authority as the State Government may by general or special order specify in this behalf.

Withdrawal of powers, functions etc. from district panchayat.

178. Notwithstanding the transfer of any powers, functions and duties in respect of any matter to a district panchayat under section 175 or under section 157 or 158 of the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1961, the State Government on a proposal from the district panchayat in that behalf or where it is satisfied that by reason of a change in the nature of the matter, the matter has ceased to be a matter in the Panchayat Functions List and that it is necessary to withdraw from the district panchayat the powers, function or duties in respect of such matter, may, after consultation with the State council for panchayats, by notification in the Official Gazette, withdraw such powers, functions and duties with effect from the date specified in the notification and make such incidental and consequential orders as may be necessary to provide for matters including the taking over of the property, rights and liabilities, if any, vesting in the panchayat under section 176 and of the staff, if any, which may have been transferred to the panchayat under section 175.

- (4) The matters in respect of which the scheme is entrusted to the district panchayat under sub-section (1) or (2) or to a taluka panchayat under sub-section (3) shall be deemed to be included in the relevant Panchayat Functions List.

CHAPTER VIII
CATTLE POUNDS

Cattle Trespass Act to cease to apply.

181. In any local area which is declared to be a village, the provisions of the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871 or any law corresponding to that Act in force in any part of the State shall cease to apply in relation to such local area: I of 1871.

Provided that-

(a) nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any person to any penalty under any law so ceasing to be in force;

(b) any appointment, notification, order, rule made or issued under any such law in respect of any cattle pounds within the limits of such village shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made or issued under this Act and continue in force until superseded by any notification, order or rule made under this Act;

(c) any cattle pound in the local area established under any law so ceasing to be in force shall be deemed to be vested in the village panchayat within whose limits it is situate and shall be maintained and managed by the panchayat in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Power to establish cattle pounds and appoint
keepers.

182. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, every village panchayat, within the limits of its jurisdiction shall from time to time, appoint such places as it thinks fit to be public pounds, and may appoint to be keepers of such pounds such persons as may be approved by the Taluka Development Officer. The duties of pound keepers shall be such as may be prescribed.

(2) Every pound keeper so appointed shall, in the performance of his duties, be subject to the direction and control of the panchayat by which he is appointed.

Penalty for allowing cattle to stray in street or to trespass upon private or public property.

183. (1) Whoever, within the limits of a village, allows any cattle which are his property or in his charge to stray in any street or to trespass upon any private or public property shall, on conviction, be punished—

(i) for the first offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to three hundred rupees, or with both;

(ii) for a second or subsequent offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both:

Provided that in absence of adequate and special reasons to the contrary to be mentioned in the judgment of the Court,-

(i) for a first offence, such fine shall not be less than one hundred rupees, and

(ii) for a second or subsequent offence, such fine shall not be less than two hundred and fifty rupees.

(2) The Magistrate trying the offence under sub-section (1), may order,—

(a) that the accused shall pay such compensation not exceeding two hundred fifty rupees as the Magistrate considers reasonable, to any person for any damage proved to have been caused to his property or to the produce of land, by the cattle under the control of the accused, trespassing on his land; and also,

(b) that the cattle in respect of which the accused is convicted shall be forfeited to the State Government.

(3) Any compensation awarded under sub-section (2) may be recovered as if it were a fine imposed under this section.

(4) An offence under this section shall be cognizable.

(5) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) shall render any person liable to any punishment provided in that sub-section, if in the opinion of the Court, the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

184. (1) It shall be the duty of every Police Officer and a Watch and Ward appointed by the panchayat, and it shall be lawful for any other person, to seize and take to any such public pound for confinement therein, any cattle found straying in any street or trespassing upon any private or public property within the limits of the village. Impounding cattle.

(2) Whoever forcibly opposes the seizure of cattle liable to be seized under this Act, and whoever removes the same after seizure, either from a pound or from any person taking or about to take them to a pound, shall on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees or with both.

185. (1) If the owner of cattle which are impounded under section 184 or his agent appears and claims the cattle, the pound keeper shall deliver them to him on payment of the pound fees and expenses chargeable in respect of such cattle under section 187 and on depositing the amount of security, if any, prescribed under section 189. Delivery of cattle claimed and consequences of failure to pay pound fees and expenses, etc.

(2) If the owner or his agent appears but refuses to pay the fees and expenses as required under sub-section (1) on the ground that the seizure was illegal and that the owner is about to make a complaint under section 188, then upon the deposit of the fees and expenses incurred in respect of the cattle, the cattle shall be delivered to him.

(3) If on any complaint referred to in sub-section (2), the seizure is declared to be lawful or if the owner or his agent fails to make such complaint within a period of four weeks from the date of delivery of the cattle to him and the provisions of section 189 are applicable, the pound-keeper shall require the owner or his agent to make a declaration and to deposit the amount of security as required by that section. If the owner or his agent fails to make such declaration or to deposit such amount, the cattle delivered to him under sub-section (2) shall be seized again for the purposes of sub-section (4).

(4) If the owner or his agent appears and refuses or omits to pay the pound-fees and expenses under sub-section (1) or to deposit the pound-fees and expenses under sub-section (2) or to deposit the amount of security and to make a declaration as required by sub-section (3), the cattle or as many of them as may be necessary shall be sold by public auction by such officer at such place and time and subject to such conditions as are referred to in section 186. The amount of pound-fees leviable and the expenses of feeding and watering together with the expenses of sale, if any, and the amount of security, if any, as prescribed under section 189 shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale.

186. (1) If within seven days after any cattle have been impounded, no person appearing to be the owner of such cattle offers to pay the pound fee and expenses chargeable under section 187 such cattle shall be forthwith sold by auction in the prescribed manner and the surplus remaining after deducting the fee and expenses aforesaid from the proceeds of the sale, shall be paid to any person who, within fifteen days after the sale, proves to the satisfaction of such officer as the panchayat authorises in this behalf that he was the owner of such cattle and shall in any other case, from part of the village fund. Sale of cattle not claimed.

(2) No Police Officer, or officer, member or servant of the panchayat including the pound-keeper shall directly or indirectly, purchase any cattle at a sale under sub-section (1).

187. (1) The pound-fees chargeable shall be such as the State Government may from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette specify for each kind of cattle. Pound fees and expenses chargeable to be fixed.

(2) The expenses chargeable shall be at such rates for each day during any part of which any cattle is impounded, as shall from time to time be fixed by the panchayat with previous approval of the District Panchayat.

Complaints of illegal seizure or detention.

188. (1) Any person whose cattle have been seized under this Act or having been so seized, have been detained in contravention of this Act, may, at any time within ten days from the date of the seizure make a complaint to the Magistrate of the first class.

(2) The complaint shall be made by the complainant in person, or by an agent personally acquainted with the circumstances. If the Magistrate on examining the complainant or his agent sees reasons to believe the complaint to be well founded, he shall summon the person complained against, and make an inquiry into the case.

(3) If the seizure of detention be adjudged illegal, the Magistrate shall award to the complainant for the loss caused by the seizure or detention reasonable compensation not exceeding one hundred rupees to be paid by the person who made the seizure or detained the cattle, together with all fees paid and expenses incurred by the complainant in procuring the release of the cattle, and, if the cattle have not been released the Magistrate shall besides awarding such compensation order their release, and direct that the fees and expenses leviable under this Act shall be paid by the person who made the seizure or detained the cattle.

(4) The compensation, fees and expenses mentioned in this section may be recovered as if they were fines imposed by the Magistrate.

Security in respect of impounded cattle.

189. (1) In any village to which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette apply this section, every pound-keeper shall before releasing any impounded cattle, require the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent to make, in the prescribed form a declaration regarding the ownership of such cattle and to deposit by way of security such sum as may be prescribed. Progressively increasing scales may be prescribed in respect of cattle belonging to or kept by the same person according to the number of cattle impounded at a time and the number of times the cattle are impounded and different scales may be prescribed for different villages.

(2) If any cattle belonging to such owner are impounded within a period of six months from the date on which the security is deposited, and if the seizure is not adjudged illegal, the amount of deposit or a part thereof, as may be directed by the State Government by rules made in this behalf, shall stand forfeited to the State Government. If cattle are not impounded as aforesaid, the amount of security deposit shall on an application made by or on behalf of the depositor be refunded to him on the expiry of that period.

Removal of cattle to specified places.

190. (1) If in any local area to which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply this section, a Mamlatdar or Mahalkari is satisfied—

(i) that the grazing land set apart for the use of cattle of one or more villages in the taluka, or mahal under his jurisdiction is insufficient for the cattle belonging to the permanent residents of such village or villages;

(ii) that the crops or grass standing on any agricultural land or grazing land so set apart are likely to be damaged by cattle belonging to persons who are not residents of such village or villages and who own more than twenty head of cattle, he may—

(a) in any case referred to in clause (i) direct any such resident owner, by special or general order, to remove or cause to be removed all or any dry or useless cattle belonging to him to such place or places within the State and within such period as may be specified in the order, and

(b) in any case referred to in clause (ii) direct any such non-resident owner, by special or general order, to remove or cause to be removed all or any of this cattle to such place or places within the State and within such period as may be specified in the order.

(2) If the owner of the cattle fails to remove the cattle as directed under sub-section (1), the Mamlatdar or Mahalkari, as the case may be, may direct a Police Officer not below the rank of Head-Constable to remove or cause to be removed such cattle to the place or places specified in the order.

(3) If the Mamlatdar or Mahalkari is satisfied that the order issued by him under sub-section (1) is contravened by any owner or keeper of cattle, he may impose a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees. Any fine so imposed may on failure of such owner or keeper to pay the same within the specified time, be recovered by sale of all or any of the cattle ordered to be removed under sub-section (1).

CHAPTER IX

TAXATION

PART I

Taxation by the State Government

191. (1) The State Government shall levy, on the conditions and in the manner hereinafter discribed, a cess at the rate of fifty paise on every rupee of-

Leavy of fifty paise cess on every rupee of land revenue.

(a) every sum payable to the State Government as ordinary land revenue except sums payable on account of any of the charges mentioned in sub-section (2) and except sums payable on account of any charge which may be notified by the State Government in this behalf;

1879.

(b) every sum which would have been payable as land revenue by a small holder as defined in the Explanation to section 45 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879, in respect of the land held by him for the time being for the purpose of agricultue, had land revenue been payable in respect of such land under the said section by such small holder; and

(c) every sum which would have been assessable on any land as land revenue had there been no alienation of the land revenue:

Provided that no cess shall be levied under this section on sums less than twenty five paise:

Provided further that the amount of cess shall, if not a multiple of five paise be increased to the next highest multiple of five paise;

(d) every sum which would have been payable as land revenue in respect of any land leased by the Government as if land revenue is leviable on such land, notwithstanding that no land revenue is leviable on such land under the terms of such lease.

(2) The following sums shall not be taken into account for the purposes of sub-section (1), namely:—

1879.

(i) penalties and fines, including any charge imposed under section 148 of the Land Revenue Code, as penalty or interest in case of default, but not including any fine levied under section 65 of the said Code on grant of permission to use land for a purpose unconnected with agriculture;

(ii) occasional fixed payments, in commutation of all claims of the State Government in respect of succession to or transfer of inams, payable on each succession or transfer of inams;

(iii) land revenue on service inam land, recovered from inferior village servants for periods of unauthorised absence from service, and all other such charges of assessment on inams and watans for broken period and past years;

(iv) fees for grazing when charged per head of cattle.

(3) (a) If it appears to a district panchayat that for the purposes of its functions under Schedule III an additional provision of funds is necessary, it may by a resolution passed at its meeting apply to the State Government to increase in relation to its district, the rate of cess levied under sub-section (1) to such extent and for such period as may be specified in the resolution:

Provided that by such increase the rate of cess shall not exceed three hundred paise on every rupee on which such cess is leviable under sub-section (1).

(b) On receipt of an application under clause (a) State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, increase the rate of the cess as proposed by the district panchayat and thereupon sub-section (1) shall have effect as if for the rate specified therein the rate as so increased has been substituted.

Rules for Assessment.

192. In the assessment of the said cess on villages alienated as defined in the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879:-

Bom. V of 1879.

(a) if the village has been surveyed and assessed in the manner laid down in the said Code and the rules made thereunder, the cess shall be fixed on the total amount of assessment of the village as fixed under the said Code or the rules made thereunder;

(b) if the village has come under summary settlement under the Exemptions from Land Revenue (No.1) Act, 1863 or the Exemptions from Land Revenue (No. 2) Act, 1863 and clause (a) of this section does not apply, the cess shall be fixed on the total annual assessment as settled for the purpose of summary settlement; and Bom. II of 1863.

Bom. VII of 1863.

(c) in villages to which neither of clause (a) or (b) of this section applies, the cess shall be fixed on the old or kammal rate recorded in the books of the Collector; and if no such rate is recorded or if the rate so recorded is objected to by the holder or proprietor of the alienated village, the cess may be fixed as agreed upon by the Collector in agreement with the district panchayat which shall pass a special resolution to that effect and such holder or proprietor, or, failing agreement, by a rough survey and assessment to be made by the State Government the expense of such rough survey being borne half by the district panchayat and half by the holder or proprietor of such village.

Levy of cess on water rate.

193. The State Government may levy a cess not exceeding twenty paise on every rupee of water rate leviable under the provisions of the Bombay Irrigation Act, 1879.

Bom. VII of 1879.

Manner of levying cess described in section 191.

194. The cess described in section 191 shall be levied, so far as may be, in the same manner, and under the same provisions of law as the land revenue:

Provided that, in the case of any land in the possession of a tenant if such tenant is liable to pay the land revenue in respect of such land under the provisions of the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act, 1948, or the Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands (Vidarbha Region and Kutch Area) Act, 1958, such tenant shall be primarily liable for the payment of cess in respect of such land.

Bom. LXVII of 1948.

Bom. XCIX of 1959.

Manner of levying cess described in section 193.

195. The cess described in section 193 shall be levied so far as may be, in the same manner, and under the same provision of law, as water rates payable to the State Government under the Bombay Irrigation Act, 1879.

Bom. VII of 1879.

Assistance to superior holders.

196. The provision of law relating to the assistance to be given to superior holders and owners of water-courses for the recovery of their dues from their tenants and occupants under them, or from persons authorised to use their water-courses shall be applicable to all superior holders, whether of alienated or unalienated land, and to all owners of water-courses in respect of the recovery of the said cesses from their tenants, occupants or persons authorised to use their water-courses, and shall be applicable also to occupants of land under the Land Revenue Code for the recovery of the said cesses from their tenants or joint occupants.

197. The local cess leviable on water rate under section 193 in respect of lands shall be paid by the State Government to the taluka panchayat within the jurisdiction of which the lands are situated, after deducting such portion thereof as cost of collection, as the State Government may prescribe by rules.

Collection and credit of local cess on water rates.

198. The local cess leviable on lands under section 191 shall be paid by the State Government to the district panchayat within the jurisdiction of which lands are situated, after deducting such portion thereof as cost of collection, as the State Government may prescribe by rules.

Collection and credit of local cess of land revenue.

199. The State Government may, on the application of the district panchayat to which the cess is payable, suspend or remit the collection of cess or any portion thereof in any year in any area, subject to the jurisdiction of such district panchayat.

Suspension and remission of local cess.

PART II

(6) Any person aggrieved by the assessment, levy or imposition of any tax or fee may appeal to the district panchayat within the prescribed period.

(7) No such appeal shall be entertained unless the amount claimed from the appellant has been deposited by the appellant with the panchayat.

(8) The State Government may suspend the levy or imposition of any tax or fee and may at any time rescind such suspension.

201. (1) Subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, and regard being had to the fact that a factory itself provides in the factory area all or any of the amenities which such panchayat provides, village any factory with the sanction of the State Government to receive a lump-sum contribution in lieu of all or any of the taxes levied by the panchayat. Lump-sum contribution by factories in lieu of taxes levied by panchayat.

(2) Where no such agreement as is referred to in sub-section (1) can be reached, the matter may be referred to the State Government in the manner prescribed and the State Government, may after giving to the panchayat and the factory concerned an opportunity of being heard decide the amount of such contribution. The decision of the State Government shall be binding on the panchayat and the factory concerned.

(3) In the case of any matter referred to the State Government under sub-section (2), the State Government may, subject to such condition as it may think fit to impose having regard to the circumstances of the case, by order in writing direct the panchayat to stay the collection or recovery from the factory of all or any of the taxes until the State Government decides the matter under sub-section (2).

202. (1) It shall be lawful for a village panchayat to lease by public auction or private contract the collecting of any fees levied by it on markets and weekly bazars <sup>1</sup>[* * *]: Framing of fees on markets, etc.

Provided that the lessee shall give security for the due fulfilment of the conditions of the lease.

(2) All sum payable under the terms and conditions of the lease, if not paid, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

(3) The lessee and every person employed by the lessee to assist him in the collection of the fees <sup>2</sup>[* * *] shall be deemed to be appointed by the panchayat to collect the same under this Act and shall exercise all the powers and be subject to all the responsibilities attaching to person appointed to collect such fees <sup>2</sup>[* * *] under this Act.

(4) Any rules or orders for the levy, collection and recovery of any such fees <sup>3</sup>[* * *] shall have effect subject to the provisions of this section.

203. (1) A village panchayat may by resolution passed by its meeting, apply to levy a cess at the rate not exceeding twenty-five paise, according to its needs and capacity, on every rupee of every sum payable to the State Government as land revenue, and on which a cess is leviable under clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of section 191 and thereupon the State Government shall (in addition to any cess leviable under section 191) levy and collect such cess in the area within the jurisdiction of such panchayat. Levy and Collection up to twenty five paise as cess on every rupee of land revenue.

(2) Where a village panchayat undertakes for the benefit of the community any special work or project so as to complete it within a specified period and for that purpose an additional provision of funds is necessary, the panchayat may by resolution passed at its meeting and with the previous permission of the district panchayat apply, to the State Government to increase the rate of cess levied in accordance with sub-section (1) to such extent and for such period as may be specified in the resolution:

Provided that such increase shall not exceed one hundred paise on every rupee of every sum payable to the State Government as ordinary land revenue.

1. The words "or the collecting of octroi" were deleted by Guj. 12 of 2001, s.4(a).

2. The words " or octroi, as the case may be" occurring at two places, were deleted, ibid., s.4(b).

3. The words "or octroi, as the case may be" were deleted, ibid., s.4(c).

(3) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1) or (2) the State Government shall levy the cess or increase the rate thereof as proposed by the panchayat and sub-section (1) shall have effect accordingly.

(4) The net proceeds (after deducting the expenses of assessment and collection) of any cess levied and collected in accordance with sub-section (1) shall form part of and be paid into the village fund.

(5) The State Government may, at the request of the panchayat to which the cess referred to in sub-section (1) is payable, suspend the collection of the cess or any portion thereof in any year.

Power of taluka panchayat to increase taxation of panchayat.

204. (1) If the income of a village panchayat falls below what in the opinion of a taluka panchayat is necessary for the proper discharge of the duties specified in Schedule I, the taluka panchayat may after having given such panchayat an opportunity of being heard, require it to take steps within six months, to increase its income to such extent as the taluka panchayat considers necessary. If the village panchayat fails to take adequate steps to increase its income to the required extent, the taluka panchayat may require it to levy any of the taxes or fees specified in section 200 or increase the rate at which any of the such taxes and fees is levied and it shall be the duty of the panchayat to comply with the requirement:

Provided that the taluka panchayat shall not compel the panchayat to levy any tax or fee or increase the rate thereof beyond the maximum rate prescribed in this behalf.

(2) The Panchayat in respect of which an order under sub-section (1) is made by the taluka panchayat may within the prescribed period prefer an appeal to the district panchayat, which may pass such orders on the appeal as it may think just and proper. The district panchayat may stay the execution of the order until the appeal is decided.

Recovery of cost of watch and ward.

205. If under clause (a) of item 4 of Schedule 1, a village panchayat incurs any expenditure on watch and ward of the village and of the crops therein the cost of such watch and ward shall be levied and recovered by the panchayat from such persons and in such manner (including the levying of a fee) as may be prescribed.

PART III

Taxation by Taluka Panchayat

Taxes and fees which may be imposed by taluka panchayat and mode of collection thereof.

206. (1) Subject to any general/special orders which the State Government may make in this behalf, every taluka panchayat may after observing the preliminary procedure required by section 212 impose an education cess and any of taxes and fees which are leviable by a village panchayat under section 200:

Provided that the rate of tax or fee leviable by a taluka panchayat in respect of any matter within the limits of any village shall not exceed 15 per cent, of the rate of the tax or fee actually levied by the village panchayat in respect of the same matter, and where no such tax or fee has been levied by the village panchayat, shall not exceed 15 per cent of the prescribed maximum rate of tax or fee in respect of the same matter:

Provided further that—

(i) no tax imposed as aforesaid other than a special sanitary cess or a water rate, shall without the express consent of the Government or, as the case may be, the district panchayat concerned be leviable in respect of any building or part of any building or any vehicle, animal or other property, belonging to the Government or the district panchayat and used solely for public purposes, and not used or intended to be used for purposes of profit and no toll shall be leviable for passage of troops, the conveyance of Government stores or of any other Government property, the passage of Military or Police Officers on duty, or the passage or conveyance of any person or property in the custody of such officer; and

(ii) no tax on property shall be imposed in respect of any land on which local cess is being collected.

(2)(a) Where in the exercise of the powers under sub-section (1) a taluka panchayat imposes a tax or fee in any area within the jurisdiction of a village panchayat, such tax or fee shall be collected by the village panchayat concerned from those persons who are liable to pay the same under the rules made by the taluka panchayat in accordance with the provisions of section 215 as if it were a tax or fee imposed by the village panchayat concerned under provisions of this Act and shall be paid to the taluka panchayat at such time and in such manner as the taluka panchayat may specify.

(b) <sup>1</sup>[(i)] Such percentage not exceeding 50 per cent. of the gross collection of such tax on fee <sup>2</sup>[(other than tax levied under section 3 the Gujarat State Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1976, read with clause (ix-a) of sub-section (1) of section 200)] in any financial year as the State Government may by general or special order determined shall not from part of the taluka fund but shall be assigned to the village panchayat in such manner as the taluka panchayat may determine.

<sup>3</sup>[(ii) Total amount of gross collection of tax levied under section 3 of the Gujarat State Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1976 read with clause (ix-a) of sub-section (1) of section 200, in any financial year in any area within the jurisdiction of a village panchayat shall not form part of the taluka fund, but shall be assigned to the concerned village panchayat.]

(c) If any panchayat makes any default in the payment of any sum due in respect of a tax or fee within the time specified under clause (a), the provisions of section 211 shall mutatis mutandis apply to such default and the taluka panchayat shall exercise the same powers as are exercisable by a district panchayat under that section.

Bom. LX of

207. (1) A taluka panchayat may, by resolution passed at its meeting, apply to the State Government for increasing the rate of stamp duty leviable under the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958 on instruments of sale, mortgage, lease or any other kind of transfer of immovable property situated within the limits of the taluka, to such extent as not exceed 15 per cent, of the rate of duty so leviable and specified in the resolution.

Increase of stamp duty for a taluka panchayat.

1958.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958 on receipt of an application under sub-section (1) the State Government shall by notification published in the Official Gazette, direct that the rate of stamp duty on the class of instruments specified in the notification and affecting the immovable property situated within the taluka shall be increased to the extent specified in the notification with effect from the date specified in the notification and thereupon, the rate of stamp duty shall stand increased accordingly.

1958.

(3) For the purpose of this section, section 28 of the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958, shall be read as if it specifically required the particulars therein referred to be forth separately in respect of—

- (a) property situated in the jurisdiction of any taluka panchayat; and
- (b) property not situated in the jurisdiction of any taluka panchayat.

(4) The increase in stamp duty in respect of any class of instruments under this section shall be in addition to any increase made therein in respect of the same class of instruments for a district panchayat under section 209.

1. Clause (b) was renumbered as sub-clause (i) by Guj. 10 of 2008, s. 19, Sch. II, Sr. No. 3(2)(1).
2. These brackets, words, figures and letters were inserted, ibid.
3. Sub-Clause (ii) was inserted ibid., s. 19, Sch. II, Sr. No. 3(2)(2).

(5) The State Government shall, every year after due appropriation made by law in this behalf, pay to the taluka panchayat from the Consolidated Fund of the State, a grant-in-aid approximately equal to the extra duty realised under sub-section (1) in respect of properties situated within the jurisdiction of the taluka panchayat.

PART IV

Taxation by District Panchayat

Taxes which may be imposed by a district panchayat.

208. Subject to any general or special orders which the State Government may make in this behalf, every district panchayat may, after observing the preliminary procedure required by section 212 impose any of the taxes and fees which are leviable by a village panchayat under section 200:

Provided that the rate of tax or fee leviable by a district panchayat in respect of any matter within the limits of any village shall not exceed 10 per cent. of the rate of the tax or fee actually levied by the village panchayat in respect of the same matter, and where no such tax or fee has been levied by the village panchayat shall not exceed 10 per cent. of the prescribed maximum rate of tax or fee in respect of the same matter;

Provided further that—

(i) no tax imposed as aforesaid other than a special sanitary cess or a water rate, shall without the express consent of the Government or, as the case may be, the taluka panchayats concerned be leviable in respect of any building or part of any building or any vehicle, animal or other property belonging to the Government or to the taluka panchayat and used solely for public purposes, and not used or intended to be used for purposes of profit and no toll shall be leviable for passage of troops the conveyance of Government stores or of any other Government property the passage of Military or Police Officers on duty, or the passage or conveyance of any person or property in the custody of such officers; and

(ii) no tax on property shall be imposed in respect of any land on which local cess is being collected.

Increase of stamp duty for a district panchayat.

209. (1) A district panchayat may, by resolution passed at its meeting apply to the State Government, for increasing the rate of stamp duty leviable under the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958 on instruments of sale, mortgage, lease or any other kind of transfer of immovable property situated within the limits of the district, to such extent as not to exceed 20 per cent. of the rate of duty so leviable and specified in the resolution.

Bom. LV of 1958.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958 on receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the State Government shall by notification published in the Official Gazette, direct that the rate of stamp duty on the class of instruments specified in the notification and affecting the immovable property situated within the district shall be increased to the extent specified in the notification with effect from the date specified in the notification and thereupon, the rate of stamp duty shall stand increased accordingly.

Bom. LV of 1958.

(3) For the purpose of this section, section 28 of the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958, shall be read as if it specifically required the particulars therein referred to be set forth separately in respect of-

Bom. LV of 1958.

- (a) property situated in the jurisdiction of any district panchayat; and
- (b) property not situated in the jurisdiction of any district panchayat.

(4) The increase in stamp duty in respect of any class of instruments under this section shall be in addition to any increase made therein in respect of the same class of instruments for a taluka panchayat under section 207.

(5) The State Government shall, every year after the due appropriation made by law in this behalf, pay to the district panchayat from the Consolidated Fund of the State, a grant-in-aid approximately equal to the extra duty realised under sub-section (1) in respect of properties situated within the jurisdiction of the district panchayat.

210. Wherein exercise of the powers given by this Act, a district panchayat imposes any tax or fee then notwithstanding anything in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, in any area within the jurisdiction of a village panchayat-

Tax on professions, etc. levied by district panchayat to be collected by village panchayat.

(a) such tax or fee shall be collected by the village panchayat concerned from those persons who are liable to pay the tax or fee under the rules made by a district panchayat and who reside, or carry on any trade or exercise any profession or follow a calling, within such area, in accordance with the provisions of section 215, as if it were a tax or fee imposed by the village panchayat under the provisions of this Act, and shall be paid to the district panchayat at such time and in such manner as the district panchayat may specify;

(b) <sup>1</sup>[(i)] such percentage not exceeding fifty per cent. of the gross collection of such tax or fee <sup>2</sup>[(other then tax levied under section 3 of the Gujarat state Tax on professions, Trades, callings and Employments Act, 1976, read with clause (ix-a) of sub-section (1) of section 200)] in any financial year, as the State Government may by general or special order determine shall not form part of the district fund, but shall be assigned to the village panchayat, in such manner as the district panchayat may determine.

<sup>3</sup>[(ii) total amount of gross collection of tax levied under section 3 of the Gujarat State Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1976 read with clause (ix-a) of sub-section (1) of section 200, in any financial year in any area within the jurisdiction of a village panchayat shall not form part of the district fund, but shall be assigned to the concerned village panchayat.]

211. (1) If any panchayat makes default in the payment of any sum due in respect of a tax on professions, trades, callings and employments, or any other tax or fee within the time specified by the district panchayat under clause (a) of section 210, the district panchayat may, notwithstanding any law relating to the funds vesting in such panchayat or any other law for the time being in force direct any bank in which any moneys of the panchayat are deposited or the person in charge of the Government treasury or any place of security in which the moneys of the panchayat are deposited to pay such sum from such moneys as may be standing to the credit of the panchayat in such bank or as may be in the hands of such person or as may from time to time be received from or on behalf of the panchayat by way of deposit by such bank or person and such bank or person shall be bound to obey such order.

Default in payment by panchayat.

(2) Every payment made pursuant to an order under sub-section (1) shall be as sufficient discharge to such bank or person from all liability to the panchayat in respect of discharge of any sum so paid by it or him out of the moneys of the panchayat so deposited, with such bank or person.

PART V

Procedure of levying tax or fee by taluka panchayat and district panchayat.

212. (1) A taluka panchayat or, as the case may be, a district panchayat shall, before imposing a tax or fee, by resolution passed at a meeting of the panchayat-

Procedure of taluka and district panchayat preliminary to imposing tax.

- (a) select a tax or fee which may be imposed; and
- (b) approve rules describing the tax or fee selected; and
- (c) shall in such resolution and in such rules specify—

(i) the class or classes of persons or of property, or both, which the panchayat desire to make liable, any exemptions which it desires to give (including the circumstances or principles on which exemptions can be given) and the duties and obligations of persons liable to pay any such tax or fee;

1. Clause (b) was renumbered as sub-clause (i) by Guj. 10 of 2008, s. 19, Sch. II, Sr. No. 3 (3) (1).
2. The brackets, word figures and letters were inserted, ibid.
3. Sub-clause (ii) was inserted, ibid., Sr. No. 3(3)(2).

(ii) the amount for which, or the rate at which, it is desired to make such classes liable; and

(iii) all other matters which the State Government may require to be so specified.

(2) When such a resolution has been passed, the panchayat shall publish the rules with a notice in the prescribed form and manner.

(3) Any inhabitant of the taluka or, as the case may be, district objecting to the imposition of the said tax or fee, or to the amount or rate proposed, or to the class of persons or property to be made liable therefore or to any exemptions proposed, may, within one month from the publication of the said notice, send his objections in writing to the taluka panchayat or, district panchayat, as the case may be, and the panchayat shall take all such objections into consideration, or shall authorise a committee of its members to consider and report on them.

(4) The panchayat shall take proposals and all objections received thereto and the report of the committee, if any, into consideration at a meeting and sanction the rules with or without modifications.

Procedure for abolishing or varying a tax. 213. (1) The panchayat may, at a special meeting, pass a resolution to propose the abolition of any tax or fee already imposed or a variation in the amount or rate thereof.

(2) Any such proposal shall be dealt with according to the procedure laid down in section 212 for the imposition of a new tax or fee; and the notification of the abolition or variation of a tax or fee under this section in the Official Gazette, shall be conclusive proof that such abolition or variation has been made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the power of a panchayat to propose an increase in rate of cess on land revenue or in the rate of stamp duty under the provisions of sections 203, 207 and 209.

Publication of sanctioned rules with notice.

214. All rules sanctioned under section 212 shall be published in the prescribed manner by the taluka panchayat in the taluka and by district panchayat in the district for which they are made, and the tax as described in the rules so published shall, from the date specified in the notice under that section (such date not being less than one month from the publication of such notice), be imposed accordingly:

Provided that-

(a) a tax leviable by the year—

(i) shall not come into force except on one of the following dates, that is to say, the first day of April, the first day of July, the first day of October or the first day of January, in any year, and

(ii) if it comes into force on any day other than the first day of April, it shall be leviable by the quarter till the first day of April then next ensuing ;

(b) on or before the day on which a notice is issued, the panchayat shall publish such further detailed rules as may be required, prescribing the mode of levying and recovering the tax therein specified, and the dates on which the tax or the instalments (if any), thereof, shall be payable; and

(c) if the levy of a tax, or of a special portion of tax, has been sanctioned for a fixed period only, the levy shall cease at the conclusion of that period, except as regards any unpaid arrears which have become due during the period.

CHAPTER X

RECOVERY OF TAXES, FEES, CESSSES AND OTHER DUES.

Recovery of taxes and other dues.

215. (1) When any tax or fee or any other sum has become due, a panchayat shall with the least practicable delay, cause to be presented to the person liable for the payment thereof a bill for the amount due from him, specifying the date on or before which the amount shall be paid.

(2) If any person fails to pay any tax or fee or any other sum due from him to a panchayat under this Act or the rules on or before the specified date of payment, he shall pay to the panchayat by way of penalty in addition to the tax, fee or sum, as the case may be, an amount equal to one per cent. of the amount of the tax or fee or sum, as the case may be, for each complete month during the time he continues to make default in the payment of tax, fee or sum, as the case may be.

(3) In the case of a person who is a defaulter under sub-section (2) the panchayat shall cause a writ of demand in the prescribed form to be served on such person.

(4) The presentation of every bill under sub-section (1) and the service of every writ of demand under sub-section (2) shall be affected by an officer or servant of the panchayat in this behalf—

(a) by giving or tendering the bill or writ to the person to whom it is addressed; or

(b) if such person is not found, by leaving the bill or writ at his last known place of abode, if within the area of jurisdiction of the panchayat, or by giving or tendering the bill or writ to some adult male member or servant of his family; or

(c) if such person does not reside in the area of jurisdiction of the panchayat and his address elsewhere is known to the officer directing the issue of the bill or writ then forwarding the bill or writ to such person by registered post, under cover bearing the said address; or

(d) if none of the means aforesaid be available, then causing the bill or writ to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land, if any, to which the bill or writ relates in the presence of at least two panchas.

(5) If the sum for which a writ of demand has been served is not paid within thirty days from the date of such service, the panchayat may levy such sum by distraint and sale of the movable property of the defaulter in the prescribed manner.

(6) Fees for—

(a) every writ of demand issued under sub-section (2);

(b) every writ of demand made under sub-section (3);

(c) the cost of maintaining any livestock seized under sub-section (5) shall be chargeable at such rates as may be prescribed.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections any tax or fee payable on demand in accordance with the rules shall be recoverable in such manner as may be prescribed.

(8) If a panchayat is unable to recover a tax or fee or other sum (including penalty) due to it as aforesaid, it shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

(9) If a panchayat fails to recover any tax, fee or any sum due to it, or neglects to take action under sub-sections (2) and (5) of this section, the competent authority may apply to the Collector to recover the same as an arrear of land revenue.

(10) On receipt of such application the Collector shall, after holding such inquiry as he thinks fit, proceed to recover the sum as an arrear of land revenue unless such sum is, under section 217 directed to be written off.

216. [Penalty for evasion of octroi] was deleted by Guj. 12 of 2001, s.5.

217. The District Development Officer may direct any sum certified by a panchayat as recoverable as an arrear of land revenue to be written off, if in his opinion the sum is irrecoverable:

District
Development Officer's power to direct irrecoverable sums to be written off.

Provided that no sum exceeding five hundred rupees shall be written off except with the previous sanction of the State Government.

CHAPTER XI
FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO PANCHAYATS

Provision by the State Government for making grants to panchayats.

218. The State Government shall, having regard to the recommendations, if any, of the Finance Commission, in each year after due appropriation made by the State Legislature by law in this behalf make provision for making grants to the panchayats in accordance with this Chapter.

Extent of grants out of the average of three year's collection of land revenue.

219. (1) For the purposes of section 218, the State Government shall in each year determine a sum which shall be equal to the average of the land revenue collected or recovered during the three preceding revenue years in the State.

(2) Out of the sum determined under sub-section (1) an amount equal to-

(a) such percentage of the sum as may be prescribed shall be set apart for meeting the expenditure on the salaries of the secretaries of village panchayats and of the village accountants (talatis) in the State and on their training;

(b) five per cent. of the sum shall be paid into the State Equalisation Fund established under section 220:

Provided that in the case of a village panchayat of a Devasthan village the land revenue in respect of which is wholly or partially alienated in favour of the Devasthan, the village panchayat shall be paid in each year out of the State Equalisation Fund a sum on the same basis as applicable to other villages under sub-section (3).

(3) Out of the balance remaining after making the provisions in accordance with sub-section (2)

(i) an amount equal to-

(a) 50 per cent. of the balance shall be distributed among the village panchayats;

(b) 25 per cent. of the balance shall be distributed among the taluka panchayats;

and

(c) 10 per cent. of the balance shall be distributed among the district panchayats in proportion to the average collection and recovery of land revenue from the respective village, taluka or, as the case may be, district panchayat in the three revenue years immediately preceding;

(ii) an amount equal to-

(a) 7½ per cent. of the balance shall be paid into the District Equalisation Fund established under section 221.

(b) 7½ per cent. of the balance shall be paid into the District Gram Encouragement Fund established under section 222.

State Equalisation Fund.

220. (1) There shall be established by the State Government a fund to be called the State Equalisation Fund, which shall consist of the payments made into it under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 219 and which shall be utilised for making special grants to backward districts so as to minimise the social and economic inequalities between the districts of the State.

(2) The fund established under sub-section (1) shall be non-lapsable.

(3) Special grants out of the said fund to district panchayats shall be made in accordance with the rules made in that behalf.

District Equalisation Fund.

221. (1) In each district, there shall be established by the district panchayat, a fund to be called the District Equalisation Fund consisting of the payments made into it under sub- clause (a) of clause (ii) of sub-section (3) of section 219 which shall be utilised by the district panchayat for making special grants to the backward panchayats subordinate to it so as to minimise the social and economic inequalities between the panchayats in the district.

(2) The fund established under sub-section (1), shall be non-lapsable and shall be invested in the prescribed manner.

(3) Special grants out of the said fund, shall be made in accordance with the rules made in that behalf.

222. (1) In each district, there shall be established by the district panchayat a fund to be called the District Village Encouragement Fund which shall consist of the payments made into it under sub-clause (b) of clause (ii) of sub-section (3) of section 219 and which shall be utilised by the district panchayat for making incentive grants to village panchayats to encourage them to raise their income by levying taxes and fees leviable by them under this Act.

District
Village
Encouragement Fund.

(2) The fund established under sub-section (1), shall be non-lapsable and shall be invested in the prescribed manner.

[[* * * *]]

223. (1) In each district, there shall be established a fund to be called the District Development Fund which shall consist of the contributions made by the village panchayats under section 115.

District
Development Fund.

(2) The fund shall vest in the district panchayat and shall be invested in the prescribed manner.

(3) The fund shall be utilised for granting loans to village panchayats in accordance with the rules and for payment of interest on contributions made by the said panchayats.

(4) The State Government shall make rules prescribing the purposes for which loans may be granted, the terms and conditions (including the rate of interest and of penal interest) which such loans may be made, the period therefor and all matters incidental to the grant of loans.

224. The State Government shall, after due appropriation made by the State Legislature by law in this behalf, pay to every district panchayat an amount equal to two per cent. of the forest revenue collected in the revenue year immediately preceding within the limits of the district.

Grant of a portion of forest revenue to district
panchayats.

225. Where any village is situate in a forest area and is not assessed under the Land Revenue Code then the State Government shall, in lieu of a grant of land revenue under section 219, pay to the village panchayat of the village, in each year such amount out of the forest revenue of the village collected in the revenue year immediately preceding, as it may fix but the amount so fixed shall not be-

Grant from forest revenue to certain village
panchayats.

(1) less than Rs. 500, and

(2) more than an amount calculated on the basis of the population of the village at such Per capita rate as is equal to the Per capita rate arrived at in respect of grants made under section 219.

CHAPTER XIII

PROVISIONS RELATING TO SERVICES

Panchayat service to be regulated by rules.

227. (1) For the purpose of bringing about uniform scales of pay and uniform conditions of service for persons employed in the discharge of functions and duties of panchayats, there shall be constituted a panchayat service in connection with the affairs of panchayats, such service shall be distinct from the State Service.

(2) The panchayat service shall consist of such classes, cadres and posts and the initial strength of officers and servants in each such class and cadre shall be such, as the State Government may, by order from time to time, determine:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prevent a district panchayat from altering, with the previous approval of the State Government, any class, cadre or number of posts so determined by the State Government.

(3) (a) The cadres referred to in sub-section (2) may consist of district cadres, taluka cadres and local cadres.

(b) A servant belonging to a district cadre shall be liable to be posted whether by promotion or transfer to any post in any taluka in the district.

(c) A servant belonging to taluka cadre shall be liable to be posted, whether by promotion or transfer to any post in any village in the same taluka.

(d) A servant belonging to a local cadre shall be liable to be posted whether by promotion or transfer to any post in the same village.

(4) In addition to the posts in the cadres referred to in sub-section (3), a panchayat may have such other posts of such classes as the State Government may by general or special order determine. Such posts shall be called "deputation posts" and shall be filled in accordance with the provisions of section 231.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may make rules regulating the mode of recruitment either by holding examinations or otherwise and conditions of service of persons appointed to the panchayat service and the powers in respect of appointments, transfers and promotions of officers and servants in the panchayat service and disciplinary action against any such officers or servants.

(6) Rules made under sub-section (5) shall in particular contain-

(a) a provision entitling servants of such cadres in the panchayat service to promotion to such cadre in the State service as may be prescribed,

(b) a provision specifying the classes of posts recruitment to which shall be made through the District Panchayat Service Selection Committee and the classes of posts, recruitment to which shall be made by Gujarat Panchayat Service Selection Board, and

(c) a provision regarding the percentage of vacancies to be reserved for the members of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other back ward classes in the panchayat service.

(7) Such rules may provide for inter-district transfers of servants belonging to the panchayat service and the circumstances in which and the conditions subject to which such transfers may be made.

(8) The promotion of a servant in a cadre in the panchayat service to a cadre in the State service in accordance with rules made under clause (a) of sub-section (6) shall not affect—

(a) any obligation or liability incurred or default committed by such servant during the period of his service in a cadre in the panchayat service while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his duties as such servant, or

(b) any investigation, disciplinary action or remedy in respect of such obligation, liability or default, and any such investigation, disciplinary action or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced in accordance with the law applicable thereto during the said period of service by such authority as the State Government may by general or special order specify in this behalf.

228. Subject to the rules, which the State Government may make in this behalf, the expenditure towards the pay and allowances of and other benefits available, to an officer or servant of the panchayat service serving for the time being under any panchayat shall be met by that panchayat from its own fund.

Expenditure towards pay, allowances, etc. of officers and servants in panchayat service to be met by panchayats.

229. Subject to any rules made under section 227 appointments to the posts in the panchayat service shall be made—

Mode of appointment.

(i) by direct recruitment,

(ii) by promotion, or

(iii) by transfer of a member of the States service to the panchayat service.

230. (1) The State Government shall, by a general or special order, allocate to the panchayat service—

Allocation of officers and servants to panchayat services.

(i) Such number of officers and servants, out of the staff allotted or transferred to a panchayat under sections 175 and 276 as it may deem fit,

(ii) all officers and servants of the nagar panchayats dissolved under section 261,

(iii) such other officers and servants employed in the State service as may be necessary to enable the panchayats to discharge efficiently their functions and duties under this Act.

(2) The Officers and servants allocated to the panchayat service under sub-section (1), shall be taken over by such panchayats in such cadre, on such tenure, remuneration and other conditions of service, as the State Government may, by general or special order determine:

Provided that the conditions of service of any such officer or servant shall not be less favourable than those applicable to him immediately before such allocation.

Allocation to panchayat service to be provisional for certain period and re-allocation of office and servants to State services.

231. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 230, the allocation to the panchayat service made under section 230 of officers or servants allotted or transferred to a panchayat under section 175, shall initially be provisional and it shall be lawful for the State Government to review their allocation within a period of four years from such allocation or transfer, and if necessary, to reallocate by an order made in that behalf any of such officers or servants to the State service for any of the following reasons, namely:—

(i) if out of the officers and servants so allocated, any officers or servants are found to be surplus in any category of the panchayat service;

(ii) if in the interest of public service it is considered necessary to recall any such officer or servant;

(iii) if in pursuance of any information called for in this behalf by or on behalf of the State Government at any time within the aforesaid period of four years, any such officer or servant has preferred to revert to the State service and after taking into consideration the exigencies of service in the panchayat organisation, and also of service under the State Government, the State Government thinks fit to recall such officer or servant.

(iv) any other reason prescribed by rules.

(2) Any officer or servant who is not re-allocated under sub-section (1) and continues in the panchayat service immediately before the expiry of the aforesaid period of four years, shall on such expiry, be deemed to be finally allocated to the panchayat service.

(3) The conditions of service of an officer or servant re-allocated to the State service shall not be less favourable than those applicable to him immediately before such re-allocation.

(4) The re-allocation of any officer or servant to the State service under sub-section (1) whether made before or after the commencement of 'the Gujarat Panchayats and the Gujarat New Capital (Periphery) Control (Amendment) Ordinance, 1964', shall not affect-

Guj. Ord.2 of 1964.

(a) any obligation or liability incurred or default commuted by such officer or servant during the period of his allocation to the panchayats service while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his duties as such officer or servant, and

(b) any investigation, disciplinary action or remedy in respect of such obligation, liability or default;

and any such investigation, disciplinary action or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced in accordance with the law applicable thereto during the said period of allocation by such authority as the State Government may by general or special order specify in this behalf.

Posting under panchayats of officers and servants in the State service.

232. (1) For the purpose of enabling the panchayats to discharge their functions and duties under this Act, it shall be lawful for the State Government to direct by a general or special order that such number of officers of the Indian Administrative Service and of Class 1 and Class II services of the State and such number of officers or servants allotted or transferred to a panchayat under section 175 but not allocated to the panchayat service under section 230 shall be posted under such panchayat and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order and accordingly the officers specified in the order shall be posted under such panchayat.

(2) The pay and allowances of an officer posted in accordance with sub-section (1) shall during the period of posting, be paid by the panchayat from its fund.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if in the opinion of the State Government, it is necessary so to do in the public interest, it shall be lawful for the State Government to post by an order in writing any servant of class III services of the State under such panchayat, and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order, and accordingly the servant specified in the order, shall be posted under such panchayat and the provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply to such servant as they apply to an officer posted in accordance with sub-section (1).

(4) The procedure in respect of disciplinary action against any officer or servant posted under a panchayat otherwise than as a member of the panchayat service, the authorities competent to take such action and the powers of such authorities shall be such as may be prescribed.

233. Any panchayat may, subject to the rules made in this behalf, obtain the services of any officer of Government on loan.

Loan services of Government officer to panchayats.

XIV of 1947. 234. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, or any other law for the time being in force, the allocation of any officer or servant to the panchayat service under section 230, shall not entitle such officer or servant to any compensation under that Act or law and no claim for any such compensation shall be entertained by any Court, Tribunal, or Authority.

No compensation payable for transfer of service.

235. (1) There shall be established a Gujarat Panchayat Service Selection Board consisting of five members including the Chairman.

Gujarat Panchayat Service Selection Board, its constitution and functions.

(2) At least one of the members of the Board shall be a person who is a member of the State service or has retired from such service.

(3) Subject to sub-sections (1) and (2), the State Government shall appoint as members of the Board such persons as it may think fit and out of the persons so appointed, appoint one person as the Chairman of the Board.

(4) A member of the Board shall hold office for a term of six years from the date he enters upon his office or until he attains the age of sixty two years, whichever is earlier and shall be eligible for re-appointment to that office for a further term of six years only:

Provided that no person appointed as member shall continue to hold his office as such after he attains the age of sixty two years.

(5) The conditions of service (including pay and allowances) of the members of the Board shall be such as the State Government may, by order determine.

(6) It shall be the duty of the Board to select candidates for recruitment to such posts in the panchayat service, and to advise the panchayat in such matters as may be prescribed by rules.

(7) The Board shall perform such other functions as provided by or under this Act.

236. (1) There shall be a District Panchayat Service Selection Committee in each district for selecting candidates for recruitment to such posts of the panchayat service and to advise the panchayats in such matters and to perform such other functions as may be prescribed.

District Panchayat Service Selection Committee and District Primary Education Staff Selection Committee.

(2) A District Panchayat Service Selection Committee shall consist of-

(a) one member of the Gujarat Panchayat Service Selection Board to be nominated by the Chairman of that Board,

(b) the President of the district panchayat of the district, and

(c) such officer of the panchayat service or State service as the State Government may nominate.

(3)(a) In Addition to the District Panchayat Service Selection Committee, the State Government may appoint in each district a District Primary Education Staff Selection Committee for the recruitment of primary teachers and such other staff in connection with primary education as may be prescribed.

(b) The constitution, powers and duties of such a committee shall be such as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XIV CONTROL

Power of Government to prepare State wise projects, etc. not affected. Panchayats to form part of State wise Panchayats Organisation and to perform function so as to carry out the State policy.

237. Nothing in this Act shall affect the power of the State Government to prepare for the whole State the Five Year Plan or the project and programmes relating to the construction of roads, water supply, or any other matter or to undertake any project or programme concerning a district or more districts.

238. The village panchayats, taluka panchayats, and district panchayats, notwithstanding that they are separate bodies corporate having distinct territorial jurisdiction and distinct functions to perform-

(1) shall form part of the panchayat organisation set up for the purpose of securing a greater measure of participation by the people of the State in local and governmental functions;

(2) shall perform the functions and duties assigned to them by or under this Act so as to conform to the State Five Year Plans and the National Five Year Plans and to the State policy in general and shall give effect to such general or special directions as the State Government may from time to time by order in writing issue in that behalf;

(3) shall carry their administration faithfully and efficiently.

Panchayat to invite designated officer or person to attend meetings.

239. (1) If in respect of any matter which is to be dealt with by a panchayat, the State Government so directs by a general or special order, it shall be the duty of the panchayat to invite such officer or person as may be designated by the State Government as an officer or person possessing technical knowledge and experience pertaining to such matter to attend the meeting of the panchayat or, as the case may be, of its committee whenever such matter is to be dealt with thereat.

(2) Where, upon such invitation, any such officer or person attends any meeting of the panchayat or, as the case may be, of its committee, he shall be entitled to take part in the discussion which may be held in respect of matter at the meeting but shall not be entitled to vote.

(3) Where any such officer or person attends any such meeting he shall be paid such allowances at such rates as may be prescribed.

Power of Government to issue directions.

240. Where the functions and duties assigned to village panchayats, taluka panchayats and district panchayats under the Panchayats Functions List relate to the same subject, then in order that the functions and duties may not overlap or that the responsibility for performing any such function or duty is not shifted by one panchayat to another on account of any ambiguity or misunderstanding, the State Government may, from time to time, by an order in writing, issue to all or any of the panchayats such directions, as it may think necessary for avoiding any such overlapping of functions, or shifting of the responsibility and the panchayats shall be bound to exercise their powers, and perform their functions and duties in conformity with such directions.

Necessity of administrative sanction, etc. to work of schemes, grant-in-aid and acquisition of property.

241. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), no work or development scheme which a panchayat intends to undertake as part of its functions and duties under this Act shall be commenced unless a detailed estimate of the cost of such work or development scheme has been approved by the panchayat and the plan thereof is approved by the prescribed authority.

(2) No such work or development scheme shall be commenced and no grant-in-aid shall be made by a panchayat from its fund unless previous sanction has been accorded thereto by such authority as may be prescribed by rules in that behalf.

(3) Subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed no property shall be acquired by a panchayat unless previous sanction has been accorded thereto by such authority as may be prescribed.

242. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, an appeal shall lie to the district panchayat against any order or decision of a village panchayat or taluka panchayat affecting any individual or institution. Appeals against order of village panchayat.

(2) Such appeal shall be made within a period of thirty days from the date of the order or decision.

(3) The district panchayat may pass such order on the appeal as it may deem just and proper and the order on appeal shall be final.

243. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 145, the appellate powers conferred on a district panchayat under <sup>1</sup>[sections 104, 200 and 242] shall be exercisable by an Appeal Committee of the district panchayat, which shall consist of the President of the panchayat and four other members of the panchayats as may be chosen by the panchayat from amongst its members. Appeal Committee to exercise appellate powers of district panchayats.

(2) The President of the panchayat shall be ex-officio, Chairman of the Appeal Committee.

(3) The term of the Appeal Committee shall be <sup>2</sup>[two and a half years.]

(4) A member chosen on the Appeal committee may resign from membership of the Committee by tendering his resignation to the Chairman.

(5) The State Government shall make rules consistent with this Act to regulate the procedure that the Appeal Committee shall follow in exercising its appellate powers and such rules may provide for-

(a) the sitting of the members of the committee in benches constituted by the President or such other member of the committee as is authorised by him ; and

(b) the mode of settling differences of opinion which may arise between the members of a bench.

(6) The appellate powers as aforesaid shall include power to grant temporary injunction or to issue a direction to stay the execution of the decision or order appealed against until the disposal of the appeal or to make such other interlocutory orders as may appear to be just and convenient and such power may be exercised by the Chairman of the Appeal Committee.

(7) Any decision given by the Appeal Committee in the exercise of the powers conferred on it by this section shall be deemed to be the decision of the district panchayat.

244. An appeal to be made to a district panchayat shall be in writing and addressed to the District Development Officer. It may be sent to the District Development Officer by registered post or presented to him in person. Every such appeal shall be accompanied by the decision or order appealed against or by a certified copy thereof. To whom appeal may be addressed, etc.

245. (1) The district panchayat shall have power—

(a) to call for any proceeding of any panchayat subordinate to it or an extract therefrom, any book or document in the possession of or under the control of any such subordinate panchayat and any return, statement, account or report which the district panchayat thinks fit to require such panchayat. to furnish, and Power to call for proceedings.

(b) to require any such subordinate panchayat to take into consideration—

(i) any objection which appears to the district panchayat to exist to the doing of anything which is about to be done or is being done by such subordinate panchayat, or

1. These words and figures were substituted for the words and figures “sections 104, 200 and 241” by Guj. 15 of 2015, s. 25 (i).

2. These words were substituted for the words “two years”, ibid., s. 25(ii).

(ii) any information which the district panchayat is able to furnish and which appears to the district panchayat to necessitate the doing of a certain thing by the subordinate panchayat, and to make a written reply to the district panchayat within a reasonable time stating its reasons for not desisting from doing or for not doing such things.

(2) An officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf by a general or special order shall, in respect of a district panchayat have the same powers as a district panchayat has under sub-section (1) in respect of a panchayat subordinate to it.

Powers of entry.

246. (1) The district panchayat may authorise its President, Vice-President or Secretary to enter on and inspect, or cause to be entered on and inspected, at all reasonable times any immovable property occupied by any subordinate panchayat or any work in progress under its direction and also to enter or cause to be entered the office of such panchayat and inspect or cause to be inspected any record, register or other document kept therein and such panchayat shall comply with the inspection notes, if any, made by the person making such inspection.

(2) The taluka panchayat, if so empowered by the State Government may authorise its President, Vice-President or Secretary to enter on and inspect, or cause to be entered on and inspected, at all reasonable times any immovable property occupied by any subordinate panchayat or any work in progress under its direction and also to enter or cause to be entered the office of any such panchayat and inspect or cause to be inspected any record, register or other document kept therein and such panchayat shall comply with the inspection notes, if any, made by the person making such inspection.

Powers of Officer of State Government regarding inspection.

247. An officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf by general or special order may enter on and inspect or cause to be entered on and inspected, at all reasonable times any immovable property occupied by any panchayat or any work in progress under its direction and also enter the office of any panchayat and inspect any record, register or other documents kept therein and the panchayat shall comply with the, inspection notes, if any, made by such officer.

Reduction of establishment.

248. (1) If in the opinion of the district panchayat the number of persons maintained by a panchayat subordinate to it as officers or servants, or the remuneration given or proposed to be given by the panchayat to such persons is excessive, the panchayat shall, on being required by the district panchayat, reduce such number or remuneration.

(2) The panchayat may appeal to the State Government or an officer authorised by it in that behalf against any requisition made under sub-section (1), and the decision of the State Government or the officer so authorised shall be final.

Suspension of execution of order.

249. (1) If in the opinion of the Taluka Development Officer the execution of any order or resolution of a panchayat subordinate to the taluka panchayat or the doing of anything which is about to be done, or is being done by or on behalf of such panchayat, is unlawful, he may by order in writing suspend the execution or prohibit the doing thereof.

(2) When the Taluka Development Officer makes an order under sub-section (1), he shall forthwith send to the panchayat affected thereby a copy of the order, with statement of the reasons therefor.

(3) The Taluka Development Officer shall forthwith submit to the District Development Officer a report, of every case occurring under this section and the District Development Officer may revise or modify any order made therein and make in respect thereof any other order which the Taluka Development Officer could have made.

(4) The District Development Officer in respect of a taluka panchayat or a village panchayat shall have the same powers as Taluka Development Officer has in respect of a village panchayat under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) Subject to the modification that he shall submit a report under sub-section (3) to the State Government. The State Government may pass such order thereon as it may deem fit.

(5) An officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf by a general or special order, shall in respect of a district panchayat have the same powers as the District Development Officer has in respect of a taluka panchayat under this section.

(6) If in the opinion of the Collector the execution of any order or resolution of any panchayat or the doing or anything which is about to be done or is being done by or on behalf of such panchayat, is causing or is likely to cause injury or annoyance to the public or to lead to a breach of peace, the Collector may by order in writing suspend the execution or prohibit the doing thereof and shall forthwith—

(a) send to the panchayat affected thereby a copy of the order, with a statement of the reasons therefor; and

(b) submit to the State Government a report thereof.

250. (1) In cases of emergency the Taluka Development Officer may provide for the execution of any work or the doing of any act which a panchayat subordinate to a taluka panchayat is empowered to execute or do, and the immediate execution or doing where of is, in his opinion, necessary for the health or safety of the public and may direct that the expense of executing the work or doing the act shall be forthwith paid by the panchayat.

Execution of work in case of emergency.

(2) If the expense is not so paid, the Taluka Development Officer may direct the officer in charge of the treasury in which the fund of the panchayat is kept to pay such expense or so much thereof as is possible, from the balance of such fund in his hands and the Officer in charge of the treasury shall comply with such directions.

(3) The Taluka Development Officer shall forthwith report to the District Development Officer every case in which he exercises his powers under sub-section (1).

(4) The District Development Officer in respect of a Taluka panchayat or village panchayat shall have the same powers as Taluka Development Officer has in respect of a village panchayat under sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) subject to the modification that he shall submit a report under sub-section (3) to the State Government.

(5) An Officer authorized by the State Government in this behalf by a general or special order, shall in respect of a district panchayat, have the same powers as the District Development Officer has in respect of a taluka panchayat under this section.

251. (1) If for the purpose of taking immediate steps for protecting life and property in any area affected by an outbreak of fire or epidemic disease or any other natural calamity, the District Development Officer is satisfied that it is necessary to requisition any service, equipment or staff provided or maintained by any panchayat within the area for which it is constituted, such officer may by order in writing direct the panchayat to supply to the area so affected such service equipment and staff for such purpose and for such period as may be specified in the order and the panchayat shall be bound to comply with the direction.

Extension by panchayat of its services, etc. to area outside its limits.

(2) Where any direction is issued to a panchayat under sub-section (1), the panchayat shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be entitled to the cost of supplying the service equipment and staff in pursuance of the direction.

(3)(a) The sum payable to the panchayat under sub-section (2) by way of cost shall be determined by the officer making requisition under sub-section (1).

(b) if the area to which the service, equipment and staff are so supplied is within the local limits of any municipal corporation, municipality, or any other panchayat, such corporation, municipality, or panchayat as the case may be, shall be liable to pay to the panchayat to which the order under sub-section (1) is directed. The sum determined under clause (a) and shall pay the same to the panchayat within such period as the officer determining the sum directs and in any other case, the sum determined under clause (a) shall be paid to the panchayat by the State Government.

(4) If any area not comprised within the local limits of a municipal corporation, municipality or panchayat, is affected by an outbreak of fire or epidemic disease or any other natural calamity and a panchayat is satisfied that for protecting life and property in that area, it is necessary to take immediate steps to make available any of its services, equipment and staff for that area, then notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1), (2) or (3), and whether requisition under sub-section (1) has been made or not, it shall be lawful for the panchayat to do so free of cost.

Default in performance of duty.

252. (1) If at any time it appears to the district panchayat that any panchayat subordinate to it has made default in the performance of any duty imposed on it by or under this Act, it may order the duty to be performed within a specified period, and if the duty is not performed within the period specified, the district panchayat may appoint a person to perform it, and direct that the expense of performance shall be paid by the defaulting panchayat within such period as the district panchayat may fix.

(2) If the expense is not so paid, the district panchayat may direct the person in custody of the fund of the panchayat to pay such expenses, or so much thereof as is possible from the balance of such fund in his hands, and such person shall pay such expense and part thereof accordingly.

(3) If at any time it appears to the State Government or any officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf, that a panchayat has made default in the performance of any duty and that the district panchayat has failed or neglected take action under sub-section (1), the State Government or the officer authorised, as the case may be, may take such action as could have been taken by the district panchayat under sub-sections (1) and (2).

(4) The district panchayat or the officer authorised, as the case may be, shall forthwith report to the State Government every case occurring under this section and the State Government may revise or modify any order made therein, and make in respect thereof, any other order which the district panchayat could have made.

(5) An officer authorised in this behalf by the State Government by a general or special order shall, in respect of district panchayat, have the same powers as the district panchayat has in respect of the panchayat subordinate to it under this section.

Dissolution or supersession of panchayats for default.

253. (1) If, in the opinion of the State Government, a panchayat exceeds or abuses its powers or is incompetent to perform or makes persistent default in the performance of the duties imposed on it or functions entrusted to it under any provision of this Act or by or under any other law for the time being in force, or fails to obey an order made under this Act by the panchayat superior thereto or by the State Government or any officer authorised by it, under this Act or persistently disobeys any of such orders, the State Government may, after consultation with the district panchayat in the case of a panchayat subordinate to it and after giving the panchayat an opportunity of rendering an explanation, by order in the Official Gazette-

(i) dissolve such panchayat, or

(ii) supersede such panchayat for the period specified in the order:

Provided that such period shall not be longer than six months or the residual period of duration of such panchayat whichever is less:

Provided further that the State Government may subject to, the preceding proviso from time to time after making such inquiry as it may consider necessary by an order published in the Official Gazette, extend the period of supersession of such panchayat until such date as may be specified in the order or by like order curtail the period of supersession.

(2) When a panchayat is dissolved or superseded, all members of the panchayat shall from the date specified in the order, vacate their office as such members.

(3) When the panchayat is dissolved or superseded, it shall be reconstituted, in the manner provided in this Act.

(4) If a panchayat is dissolved or superseded—

(a) all the powers and duties of the panchayat shall during the period of dissolution or supersession, as the case may be, exercised and performed by such person or persons as the State Government may from time to time appoint in that behalf, and

(b) all property vested in the panchayat shall during the period of dissolution or supersession, as the case may be, vest in the State Government; and

(c) on the dissolution, or, as the case may be, on the expiry of the period of supersession, the panchayat shall be reconstituted in the manner provided in this Act, and the persons vacating office shall be eligible for re-election.

254. (1) When by a notification under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution, the limits of a village is altered so as to—

(a) Include any area therein, or

(b) exclude any area there from, the State Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, by order published in the Official Gazette, provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(i) in a case falling under clause (a), the increase in the number of the members of the village panchayat by election of additional members,

(ii) in a case falling under clause (b), the removal of the members of the village panchayat, who in the opinion of the State Government represent the area excluded from the village:

Provided that where the area so excluded had been included in any other village, the members so removed shall be additional members of the panchayat of such village,

(iii) the term of additional members and the manner of filling casual vacancies;

(iv) allocation of any officer or servant of the panchayat affected by the alteration of the limits.

(2) The panchayat, if any, constituted for the village and functioning immediately before the alteration of the limits shall, subject to the addition or exclusion of members under sub-section (1), continue to function until the expiry of its duration under this Act and on such expiry it shall be reconstituted in the manner provided in this Act.

(3) If in altering the limit of any village, the area excluded there from is included in any other village, then-

(a) such portion of the village fund, debts obligations and other property of the village from which the area is so excluded shall be transferred to and shall vest in, the panchayat of the village in which the area is the excluded as the State Government may by order in writing direct;

(b) the rights and liabilities of the panchayat in respect of any contracts, agreements and other matters and things, arising in or relating to the area so excluded shall vest in the panchayat of the village in which the area is so included;

Consequences of alteration of limits of village.

(c) any notice, Tax fee, cess, order, licence, permission, rule or bye-law issued, imposed, granted or made in respect of the area so excluded shall be deemed to have been issued, imposed, granted or made in respect of the panchayat in which the area is so included and shall continue in force until it is superseded under the provisions of the law applicable thereto;

(d) all proceedings relating to the area excluded from the village and pending before the panchayat on the date of such exclusion shall be transferred to and disposed off by the panchayat of the village in which the area is included.

Effect of area being excluded from village.

255. Where by a notification under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution, any local area forming part of village is excluded from such village and such area is not included in or declared to be village so much of the village fund and other property vesting in the panchayat of the village of which such area formed part, as the State Government by order in writing direct, shall vest in the State Government to be utilized for the benefit of the area as the State Government may think fit.

Effect of area ceasing to be village

256. On any area ceasing to be a village by virtue of any notification under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution,

(a) the panchayat shall be dissolved and all members of the panchayat shall vacate office as from the date of the notifications;

(b) the unexpended balance of the fund of the panchayat and the property (including arrears of rates, taxes and fees) vesting in the panchayat shall vest in the State Government to be utilised for the benefit of the inhabitants of the areas as the State Government thinks fit.

Power of State Government to appoint officer when elections not held for reconstitutions panchayat.

257. (1) Where in respect of a panchayat which is to be reconstituted on account of the expiry of its duration, the State Government is satisfied that, it is not possible to hold elections before the expiry of duration for reconstituting the panchayat, on account of any natural calamity, then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or rules made there under, the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, make a declaration to that effect.

[ * * * * ]

(3) On the issue of the notification under sub-section (1), all the powers and duties of the panchayat shall be exercised and performed for the period, during which the notification remains in force by such officer as the State Government may by order in writing specify.

Inquiry by officers of panchayat.

258. (1) The State Government may from time to time cause inquiry to be made by way of its officers in regard to any panchayat or matters concerning it or to any matters with respect to which the sanction, approval, consent or order of the State Government is required by this Act.

(2) The Officer holding such inquiry shall have the powers of a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to take evidence and to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents for the purposes of the inquiry. V of 1908.

(3) The State Government may make orders as to the cost of inquiries under sub-section (1) and as to the parties by whom and the funds out of which they shall be paid and any such order may, on the direction of the State Government or the application of any person named therein, be executed as if it were a decree of a civil court.

State Government may call for proceedings.

259. The State Government may call for and examine the record of proceeding of any panchayat or of any committee thereof or of any officer for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any order passed and may revise or modify the order as it shall deem just.

PROVISIONS FOR CONVERSION OF A NAGAR
PANCHAYAT INTO A VILLAGE PANCHAYAT AND FOR AMALGA-
MATION AND DIVISION OF PANCHAYATS.

260. For the purpose of this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires—

Guj. 34 of 1964.

(a) “municipal borough” means a municipal borough within the meaning of the Gujarat Municipalities Act, 1963; Interpretation.

1964.

(b) “nagar panchayat” means a nagar panchayat constituted for a municipal borough and includes a person or persons authorised to exercise the powers and perform the functions of a municipality under section 263 of the Gujarat Municipalities Act, 1963 (hereinafter referred to as “The Municipal Act”);

(c) “panchayat” includes a person or persons appointed to exercise the powers and to perform the functions of a panchayat under section 253.

261. (1) Where any local area is declared to be a village under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution and, immediately before such declaration, the local area was co-extensive with the limits of a municipal borough or included an area comprising a municipal borough as well as any other area, then with effect from the date on which such local area is so declared to be a village (in this section referred to as “the said date”), the following consequences shall, notwithstanding anything in the Municipal Act, ensue, that is to say—

conversion of nagar
panchayat
into village
panchayat.

(a) the nagar panchayat functioning in such local area or part thereof shall cease to exist;

(b) there shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force be constituted for the village an interim village panchayat consisting of persons vacating office as members of the nagar panchayat or members of the committee thereof and the President and Vice-President of the nagar panchayat shall respectively, be deemed to be the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch of the interim village panchayat:

Provided that if immediately before the nagar panchayat so ceasing to exist, there be a person or persons appointed under section 263 of the Municipal Act to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the nagar panchayat, there shall be an interim village panchayat for the local area and the person or persons so appointed shall be deemed to be a person or persons appointed under clause (a) of sub-section (4) of section 253 to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of such interim village panchayat;

(c) the unexpended balance of the nagar fund and property including arrears of rates, taxes and fees belonging to the nagar panchayat, and all rights and powers, which prior to such notification, vested in the nagar panchayat shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same vest in the interim village panchayat as the village fund until the new panchayat is constituted under the provisions of this Act;

(d) any appointment, notification, notice, tax, fee, cess, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, bye-law, or form made, issued, imposed or granted under the Municipal Act immediately before the said date in respect of such local area shall continue to be in force and be deemed to have been made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of the village until it is superseded or modified by any other appointment, notification, notice, tax, fee, cess, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, bye-law or form made, issued, imposed or granted under this Act;

(e) all budget estimates, assessments, assessment lists, valuations of measurements made or authenticated under the Municipal Act immediately before the said date in respect of such local area shall be deemed to have been made or authenticated under this Act;

(f) all debts and obligations incurred and all contracts made by or on behalf of the nagar panchayat immediately before the said date and subsisting on the said date shall be deemed to have been incurred and made by the interim village panchayat in exercise of the powers conferred on it by or under this Act;

(g) all officers and servants in the employ of the nagar panchayat immediately before the said date shall be officers and servants of the interim village panchayat under this Act and shall, until other provision is made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, receive salaries and allowances and be subject to the conditions of service to which they were entitled or subject on such date:

Provided that it shall be competent to the interim village panchayat subject however to the previous sanction of the State Government, to discontinue the services of any officer or servant who, in its opinion, is not necessary or suitable to the requirements of the service of the interim village panchayat, after giving such officer or servant such notice as is required to be given by the terms of his employment and every officer or servant whose services are discontinued shall be entitled to such leave, pension, provident fund and gratuity as he would have been entitled to take or receive on being invalided out of service as if the nagar panchayat in the employ of which he was, had not ceased to exist;

(h) all proceedings pending at the said date before the nagar panchayat shall be deemed to be transferred to, and continued by, the interim village panchayat;

(i) all appeals pending at the said date before the nagar panchayat shall, so far as may be practicable, be disposed of as if such local area had been included in the village when they were filed;

(j) all prosecutions instituted by or on behalf of the nagar panchayat and all suits or other legal proceedings instituted by or against such nagar panchayat or any officer of such nagar panchayat pending at the said date shall be continued by or against the interim village panchayat as if such local area had been included in the village when such prosecutions, suits or proceedings were instituted;

(k) any law (other than the Municipal Act) of any rule, bye-law, notification or order issued under such law, which was applicable to and in force in the local area immediately before it was declared as a village under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution, shall continue to apply to and to be in force in the local area until it is superseded.

(2) The duration of the interim village panchayat shall be the same as that of the nagar panchayat had it continued to exist or till elections are held for reconstituting the interim village panchayat alongwith other village panchayats whichever is earlier.

(3) All arrears of rates, taxes and fees vesting in the interim village panchayat shall be recoverable under the provisions of this Act as if the rates, taxes and fees were imposed and recoverable under this Act.

(4) In other respects the provisions of this Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the interim village panchayat and its members.

(5) If any difficulty arises,-

(i) in the constitution of the interim village panchayat which succeeds it, or (ii) in giving effect to the provisions of this section, the State Government may by order, as occasion may require, do notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the Municipal Act, anything which appears to it to be necessary to remove the difficulty.

262. (1) When two or more villages cease to be villages and the local areas constituting such villages are amalgamated and declared to be one village (hereinafter in this section referred to as “as amalgamated village”) by virtue of a notification under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution, with effect from the date on which such notification is issued (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the said date”) the following consequences shall ensue, that is to say-

Effect of amalgamation of villages.

(a) the panchayats of such local areas shall cease to exist and all the members of such panchayats shall vacate office;

(b) all powers and duties of such panchayats shall be exercised and performed by such person or persons (hereinafter referred to as the administrator or administrators”) as the State Government appoints in this behalf;

(c) the unexpended balance of the village funds and all the properties including areas of rates, taxes and fees belonging to such panchayats and all rights and powers which prior to the said date, vested in such panchayats shall, Subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest as the village fund—

(i) in the administrator or administrators until the panchayat for the amalgamated village is constituted and holds its first meeting under sub-section (1) of section 51, and

(ii) thereafter, the amalgamated panchayat;

(d) the unexpended balance of the village funds and all the properties (included areas of rates, taxes and fees) shall until amalgamated panchayat is constituted and holds its first meeting, be utilised for the benefit of the inhabitants of such local areas in such manner as the administrator or administrators may think fit;

(e) any appointment, notification, notice, tax, fee, cess, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, bye-law or form made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of such local areas and in force on the said date shall continue in force and be deemed to have been made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of the amalgamated village until it is superseded or, modified by any appointment, notification, notice, tax, fee, cess, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, bye-law or form made, imposed or granted under this Act;

(f) all budget estimates, assessments, assessment lists, valuations or measurements made or authenticated by such panchayats immediately before the said date shall be deemed to have been made or authenticated in respect of the amalgamated village under this Act;

(g) all debts and obligations incurred and all contracts made by or on behalf of such panchayats immediately before the said date and subsisting on the said date shall be deemed to have been incurred and made by the amalgamated panchayat in exercise of the powers conferred on it by this Act;

(h) all officers and servants in the employ of such panchayats immediately before the said date shall be officers and servants of the amalgamated panchayat and shall until other provision is made in accordance with this Act, receive salaries and allowances and be subject to the conditions of service to which they were entitled or subject on such date:

Provided that it shall be competent to the administrator or administrators or the amalgamated panchayat, subject however, to the previous sanction of the State Government, to discontinue the services of any officer or servant who, in his, their or its opinion, is not necessary or suitable to the requirements of the service of the amalgamated panchayat, after giving such officer or servant such notice as is required to be given by the terms of his employment and every officer or servant whose services are discontinued, shall be entitled to such leave, pension, provident fund and gratuity, as he would have been entitled to take or receive on being invalided out of service, as if the panchayat in the employ of which he was, had not ceased to exist;

(i) all proceedings pending at the said date before such panchayats shall be deemed to be transferred to, and continued by, the administrator or administrators or the amalgamated panchayat, as the case may be;

(j) all appeals pending before such panchayats at the said date shall so far as may be practicable, be disposed of by the administrator or administrators of the amalgamated panchayat, as the case may be;

(k) all prosecutions instituted by or on behalf of such panchayats and all suits or other legal proceedings instituted by or against such panchayats, or any officer of such panchayats pending at the said date shall be continued by or against the amalgamated panchayat.

<sup>1</sup>[(2) Within four months of the said date, a panchayat for amalgamated village shall be constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act and such constituted panchayat, unless sooner dissolved under this Act, shall continue for five years from the date appointed for its first meeting and no longer.]

village.

263. (1) Where by virtue of a notification issued under clause (g) of article 243 of Constitution any village ceases to be a village is split up into two or more villages with effect from the date on which the village is so split up (hereinafter referred to as “the said date”), the following consequences shall ensue, that is to say—

(a) the panchayat constituted in respect of such local area shall stand dissolved and all the members of the panchayat shall vacate office;

(d) all proceedings relating to the area excluded from the district or taluka and pending before the panchayat on the date of such exclusion shall be transferred to and disposed of by the district or taluka panchayat of the district or taluka in which the area is included.

CHAPTER XVI

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISION

Joint Committees of two or more local bodies.

265. (1) A panchayat may, from time to time, concur with any other panchayat or with any local body or with more than one such local body-

(a) in appointing out of their respective bodies a joint committee for any purpose in which they are jointly interested and in appointing a chairman of such committee;

(b) in delegating to any such committee power to frame terms binding on each such body as to the construction and future maintenance of any joint work and any power which might be exercised by either or any of such bodies; and

(c) in framing and modifying rules for regulating the proceedings of any such committee and the conduct of correspondence, relating to the purpose for which the committee is appointed.

(2) A panchayat may subject to the sanction of the State Government, from time to time, enter into an agreement with any other panchayat, local body or with a combination of any such bodies, for the levy of octroi duty whereby the octroi duties respectively leviable by the bodies so contracting may be levied together instead of separately within the limits of the area subject to the control of the said bodies.

(3) Where a panchayat has requested the concurrence of any other local body under the provisions of sub-section (1) or (2) in respect of any matter and such other local body has refused to concur, the State Government may pass such orders as it may deem fit requiring the concurrence of such other local body (not being a cantonment authority) in the matter aforesaid, and such other local body shall comply with such orders.

(4) If any difference of opinion arises between local bodies acting under this section, the decision thereon of the State Government, or of such officer as it appoints in this behalf, shall be final:

Provided that where one of the local bodies is a cantonment authority, the decision of the State Government, or of the officer, shall be subject to the concurrence of the Central Government.

266. (1) There shall be a State Council for panchayats consisting of the following members, namely:-

Constitution of State Council for panchayats,
its functions,
etc.

(A) Chairman :-

(i) Minister in charge of the Department dealing with Panchayats Organization of the State;

(B) Vice-Chairman :-

(ii) The Minister of State dealing with the Panchayats Organization of the State or if there is no such Minister of State, the Deputy Minister dealing with such Organization, or in the absence of both such Ministers, the Parliamentary Secretary dealing with such Organization:

Provided that where there is no person holding any of such offices, the Vice-Chairman shall be elected by the Council from amongst its members;

(C) Members:-

(iii) Presidents of the district panchayats;

(iv) Seven members to be nominated by the State Government from amongst persons taking interest in the development of panchayats. Out of these one shall be a woman and one shall be a person from Scheduled Castes and one shall be a person from amongst the Scheduled Tribes if none of the members falling under clause (iii) is a person belonging to a Scheduled Tribe;

(v) three Officers to be nominated by the State Government;

(vi) three members to be elected by the members of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly from amongst themselves.

(2) Such officer as the State Government may appoint in this behalf shall act as a Secretary to the Council.

(3) The functions of the Council so constituted shall be as under:-

(a) to advise the State Government on all general questions pertaining to panchayats;

(b) to advise the State Government in respect of a scheme for the training of Secretaries and other servants of panchayats;

(c) to review the administration of panchayats and to suggest ways of co-ordinating the activities of panchayats in the State;

(d) to suggest ways and means to remove the difficulties experienced by the panchayats in the State in their administration;

(e) to make sue moto recommendations to the State Government in regard to any matter relating to the administration of the panchayats;

(f) to report to the State Government on such matters as may be referred to it by the State Government for its opinion.

(4) The State Government may by general or special order provide for-

(a) the calling of the meetings of the council and the procedure of meeting;

(b) duties of the Secretary for the Council;

(c) sub-committees of the Council;

(d) the term of office of nominated members of the Council, travelling allowance and daily allowance to the members of the Council and the rate thereof.

(5) The term of office of the member elected by the Members of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly shall expire on the expiry of his term as the member of the Gujarat Legislative Assembly or if he otherwise ceases to be such member.

(6) Any elected or nominated member of the Council may resign from the membership by tendering his resignation in writing to the Chairman and the resignation shall take effect from the date on which it is accepted by the Chairman who shall give intimation of the vacancy—

(a) to the State Government in the case of the resignation of a nominated member, and

(b) to the Secretary to the Gujarat Legislative Assembly in the case of the resignation of a member elected by that Assembly.

Liabilities of members for loss, waste or misapplication.

267. (1) Every member of a panchayat or its Committee shall be personally liable for the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or other property of panchayat to which he has been party, or which has been caused or facilitated by his misconduct or gross neglect of his duty as a member.

(2) If after giving the member concerned a reasonable opportunity for showing cause to the contrary, an officer authorised by the State Government is satisfied that the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or other property of the panchayat is a direct consequence of misconduct or gross negligence on his parts the officer so authorised shall by an order in writing, direct such member to pay to the panchayat before a fixed date, the amount required to be reimbursed to it for such loss, waste or misapplication.

(3) If the amount is not so paid, it shall be recovered as an arrear land reveue and credited to the fund of the relevant panchayat.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the decision or action of the officer so authorised may apply to the District Court as provided in sub-section (6) of section 121, within the like time for redress of his grievance and that court may pass any order thereon which it can pass under that sub-section.

Power of authorised officer to recover record and money.

268. (1) Where, the officer authorised in this behalf by the State Government is of the opinion that any person, who in his capacity as a member, officer, servant, or secretary of a panchayat had, in his custody any record, money or other property belonging to the panchayat is after his retirement, removal or suspension from office, as the case may be, not likely to deliver such record or property or pay such money, the officer so authorised may, by a written order, require that the record, property or money so detained be delivered or paid to the panchayat forthwith.

(2) If any such person as aforesaid shall not deliver the record or property or pay the money as directed, the officer so authorised may cause him to be apprehended may send him with a warrant in such form as may be prescribed to be confined in a civil jail till he delivers the record or property or pays the money:

Provided that no such person shall be so detained in confinement for a period longer than one calender month.

(3) It shall be lawful for the officer so authorised-

(a) for recovering any such money to direct that such money be recovered as an arrear of land revenue and on such direction being given, such money shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue from such person;

(b) for recovering any such record or property to issue a search warrant and to exercise all such powers with respect thereto as may lawfully be exercised by a Magistrate under the provisions of Chapter 7 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

2 of 1974.

(4) No action under sub-section (1), (2) or (3) shall be taken unless reasonable opportunity has been given to the person concerned to show cause why such action should not be taken against him.

Explanation :- In the section the word “member” includes a Sarpanch, Upa-Sarpanch, President and Vice-President of a panchayat.
