Respected SIO addressing the participants

While welcoming the chief guest and present officials again, in his speech, SIO Sir Dr. Ashok Kumar Hota said that human life is sometimes happy and sometimes sad, even in the office we sometimes get stressed due to work and in this pace of life- Bhagavad Gita alone does the work of showing the path to all of us. Therefore, we should take out some time from our daily routine and read any chapter of Bhagavad Gita, and implement the teachings given in it in our life.

Hindi-English edition of NICs' Monthly Megazine "The Ascender" November 2023 also released by Chief Guest & SIO

Address by Chief Guest

Chief guest Shri Narayan Prasad Sir explained many teachings of Geeta with examples in very simple and subtle language. He went on saying that the reason for all our suffering is that we are more attached to the results of our actions, whereas in our hands only and only we need to work , results are not in our hands, hence we have to focus on our work with full devotion, sense of duty and commitment. Full attention should be given to work and not at its result. At the end, Chief Guest Shri Narayan Prasad Sir also answered many questions of the participants very simply.

Felicitation to Chief Guest with Memento by ASIO
