VIRTUAL TRAINING ON ePROSECUTION

eProsecution is a web-based platform of the Ministry of Home Affairs developed under the Inter-operable Criminal Justice System (ICJS) framework to streamline prosecution processes for the Government. It integrates with CCTNS and eCourts for real-time case data sharing, enabling prosecutors to provide legal opinions, scrutinize charge sheets, track cases, and monitor disposals. The system promotes transparency, accountability, and speedy justice delivery. In the State of Odisha, Directorate of Public Prosecution (DPP) is implementing the eProsecution App under the ease guidance of Director with 31 Deputy Directors at 30 district location and DPP office(HQ). As proposed, a training-cum-sensitisation programme has been organised at VC Hall (ground floor), NIC, Odisha on 14 August 2025 at 11.00AM.

The training session commenced under the esteemed leadership of Shri Ajit Kumar Pattnaik, OSPS, Director (In-Charge), Directorate of Prosecution (DPP), and was graced by the presence of Shri Malay Kumar Das, Sr. Director (IT) & ASIO, NIC Odisha, and Shri S. P. Dash, Sr. Director (IT) & State Coordinator for ICJS, NIC Odisha.

The session was conducted virtually by Shri Piyush Srivastav, a key member of the eProsecution Project Management Unit (PMU) at NIC Headquarters. Through an interactive video conference, participants were provided with a comprehensive walkthrough of the end-to-end workflow of the eProsecution system, covering its core functionalities, user roles, and operational procedures. The UserId and password for the demo site was shared with the Master Trainers for their practice and subsequently imparting training to Dy. Directors, Public Prosecutors & Asst. Public Prosecutors.

Last but not the least, it is both appropriate and essential to acknowledge the invaluable contributions of Shri Ranjan Kumar, Joint Director (IT); Shri Deepak Kumar, Senior Director (IT) & HoD eProsecution; Shri Shashikant Sharma, DDG & HoG (ICJS) and Dr. A. K. Hota, DDG & State Informatics Officer. Their unwavering support, strategic guidance, and active involvement played a pivotal role in the successful execution of this training programme. Without their commitment and encouragement, the realization of this initiative would not have been possible.
