RASHTRIYA KARMAYOGI LARGE SCALE JAN SEVA PROGRAMME AT NIC, ODISHA

The sessions concentrated on the fundamental tenets of Mission Karmayogi, highlighting the importance of a service-oriented mindset, intrinsic motivation, ethical standards in public service delivery, and the alignment of individual responsibilities with overarching national objectives. Each Batch was organized into teams of four to six participants to promote peer learning, collaboration, and active participation. Over the course of the day, participants took part in a range of activities such as group challenges and exercises, reflective discussions, experience sharing, and interactive classroom sessions designed to enhance personal effectiveness and reinforce professional dedication.

Each batch of the programme has four sessions focused on :

- Mission Karmayogi and Rashtriya Karmayogi Jan Seva goals
- The Karmayogi concept, key behaviours, and service-first approach
- Motivation, inner purpose, and Seva-Bhav in public service
- Applying citizen-centric thinking to NIC operations and ICT projects
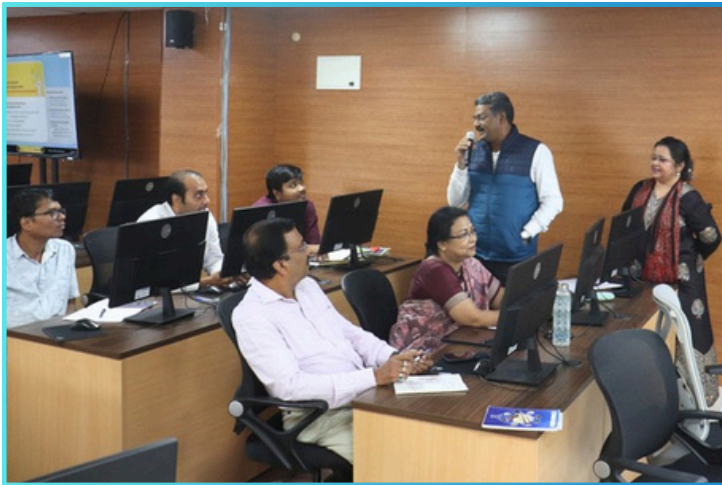

The four-phase training programme was completed successfully on 15th December, 2025 with active participation from all the 127 employees of NIC, Odisha including the two master trainers.

This Programme at NIC Odisha underscores NIC's dedication to seva-bhav, ongoing enhancement in skills, technological advancement, and effective digital governance for Nation building. This initiative is anticipated to enhance the capabilities of NIC officials in providing transparent, efficient, and citizen-oriented digital services to the residents of India.
