To create awareness among rural people specially among the poorer sections(e.g. the targetted beneficiaries), and to undertake concerned campaign aimed at generating awareness among the poorest sections in the rural areas in an integrated manner, the State Government has already organized Jagriti Shivers at Karnal,Hisar,Jind and Bhiwani districts during the year 2003-04 and 2005-06.

8.6 Corpus fund as Consumer Welfare Fund

In order to strengthen the consumer awareness activities in all the State/UTs further, the G.O.I has decided that States/UTs which are willing to establish a corpus of Rs.10 crores will be supported by the Central Government by contributing 75% of that amount as Central share from the Central Consumer Welfare Fund. The received amount of Corpus Fund from G.O.I. and the State Share (2.64+2.50 crore=5.14 crore) has been credited in separate account (Fixed Deposit) that can generate interest which could be utilized for financing State/local level programmes including the running of State Consumer Helpline. The remaining central share is yet to be received from G.O.I.

The revised terms & conditions/ Guidelines for the State Consumer Welfare Fund are also given below:-

1. State/UT Govt. will first deposit 25% as their share in a separate, non-lapsable, interest bearing account.
2. The corpus has been set up so as to generate interest for meeting the expenditure on local programmes and activities. The State will utilize the interest generated from the corpus fund on State/Local level activities relating to welfare and protection of consumer.
3. Corpus as such may not be spent on any activities.
4. The State/UT will notify the guidelines for sanctioning funds from the State CWF on the same pattern as the revised Central CWF guidelines and post the same in their State website.
5. VCOs and Institutions in the State may be advised to apply to state CWF for grant for carrying out State/Local level consumer welfare activities.
6. Quarterly Report on the activities supported from the Fund and the expenditure incurred to be submitted to the Department also indicating the impact and outcome carrying out the consumer welfare activities.
