

HARYANA PREVENTION OF HOARDING AND MAINTENANCE OF QUALITY ORDER, 1977

PART-III HARYANA GOVERNMENT FOOD AND SUPPLIES DEPARTMENT ORDER THE 27TH OCTOBER, 1977

NO. G.S.R. 183/C.A. 10/55/S.3/77.- Whereas it appears to the Government that it is necessary so to do for securing equitable distribution and availability of essential articles at fair prices:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (Act 10 of 1955) read with the Government of India, Ministry of Agriculture and Irrigation (Department of Food) order No. G.S.R. 316(E), dated the 20th June, 1972, G.S.R. No. 452(E), dated 25th October, 1972, and G.S.R. No. 168(E), dated the 13th March, 1973, and Ministry of Industry and Civil supplies, Government of India order Nos. S.O. 681(E) and No. 682(E), dated the 30th November, 1974, and all other powers enabling him in this behalf and with the prior concurrence of the Central Government, the Governor of Haryana hereby makes the following order, namely:-

1. This Order may be called the Haryana Prevention of Hoarding and Maintenance of Quality Order, 1977.
2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise required:-
 - (a) "article" means an article specified in the Schedule to this order and it shall be deemed to be in the possession of a person, when it is held on behalf of that person by another person notwithstanding that it is mortgaged to another person;
 - (b) "Dealer" means a person engaged in the business of sale or storage for sale of any article, whether such business is carried on in retail or in wholesale, and includes the distributing agent or the selling agent or such person;
 - (c) "District Magistrate" means the District Magistrate of the District and includes a Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Deputy Director, Food and Supplies, District Food and Supplies Controllers, and District Food and Supplies Officer, within the area of their respective jurisdiction;
 - (d) "Director" means the Director, Food and Supplies, Haryana and includes the Joint Director, Food and supplies and the Deputy Director, Food and supplies or any other person appointed as such by the Government.

 - (f) "Inspector" means Assistant Food and Supplies Officers and Inspector Food and Supplies or any other officer appointed by the Government for carrying out the purposes of this order;

(g) "Producer" includes a manufacturer.

3. The Government may, by notification, in the official Gazette, fix in respect of any article;

(a) the maximum quantity which may, at any one time, be possessed by a dealer or a producer;

(b) the maximum quantity which may, at any one time, be possessed by any consumer;

(c) the maximum quantity which may, in any one transaction be sold to any person by a dealer or a producer;

(d) the quantities fixed in respect of any article under this clause may be different in different localities:

Provided that no stock limit shall be fixed in respect of producers regarding sugar, khandsari, gur and shakkar.

Any dealer or a producer or a consumer having in his possession a quantity of any article exceeding that permitted by a notification issued under clause 3 shall forthwith report the fact to the Director or the District Magistrate and shall take, such action as to the storage, distribution or disposal of the excess quantity as the Government may direct.

4. (1) No dealer or producer shall unless previously authorised to do so by the Government:-

(i) without sufficient cause, refuse to sell to any person any article within the limits as to quantity imposed by or under this order; or

(ii) require the purchaser of any article to purchase at the same time any other article as a condition for the purchase of that article.

(2) No wholesale or retail dealer shall, without sufficient cause, refuse to sell to retail dealer or consumer as the case may be, any article which is in stock with him, even if the maximum quantitative limits have not been fixed for the said dealer or consumer.

(3) No producer shall, unless otherwise provided in any other law for the time being in force, and without sufficient cause refuse to sell his products to any person, who is entitled to purchase the same.

Explanation.- The possibility of expectation of obtaining a higher price for any article at a later date shall not be deemed to a sufficient cause for the purposes of this clause.

5. (1) The Government may, by notification, published in the officer Gazette, prohibit the sale of such article as may be specified in the notification except on the production of a distribution card issued by the Director or the District Magistrate or any other person authorised in writing by any these officers. Such notification may provide for the maximum quantity of any article that may be sold to any consumer or group of consumers.

(2) After a notification is issued under sub-clause (1), no consumer shall secure a distribution card for more than the actual number of members of his family or obtain or attempt to obtain any manner what so ever supplies of any article in excess of the maximum quantity to which he is entitled under the said notification.

(3) After a notification is issued under sub-clause(1), no dealer shall:-

- (a) issue any article on a distribution card which does not entitle the holder thereof to draw the same;
- (b) make entries regarding drawls of articles either in the sales register or on distribution card without actually issuing the same;
or
- (c) show on the distribution card more quantity than that actually delivered to the consumer.

6. No dealer or producer shall deliver any article which is less in weight.

7. No owner or person in-charge of a roller mill licensed under the wheat Roller Flour Mills (Licensing and Control) Order, 1957 and no person who is engaged in the business of transformation or production of hydrogenated Vegetable ghee, shall produce, manufacture, supply or sell wheat products or hydrogenated vegetable ghee as the case may be below the standards and specifications provided under the prevention of Food Adulteration Rules, 1955.

8. (1) The physical stock balances of various articles in a fair price shop, authorised and approved by the Government or by any officer authorised by it in this behalf, shall conform to the book balances as per accounts books maintained by him.

(2) All purchases, sales and Production made will be correctly accounted for in the account books maintained and shall conform to the actual transactions made.

9. The Director or the District magistrate or any person authorised in writing in this behalf by the Director/District Magistrate may, with a view to securing compliance with the provisions of this order or of any notification issued there under or to satisfy himself that any such provision has been complied with;

(a) require by any order in writing any producer or dealer to furnish within such period and at such intervals as may be specified in such order, such information, returns or reports and in such forms as may be required, and

(b) prescribe the manner in which true accounts of stocks, purchases, sales or other transactions of articles should be kept.

10. (1) The Director, the district Magistrate or the Inspector or any police officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector of Police may:-

(a) require the owner, occupier or any other person in-charge of any place, premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or the conditions of any license issued there under has been, is being or is about to be committed, to produce any book accounts or other documents showing transactions relating to such contravention;

(b) enter, inspect or break open and search any place or premises, vehicle or vessel in which he has reason to believe that any contravention of the provisions of this order or of the conditions of any license issued there under has been, or is being or is about to be committed;

(c) search, seize and remove stocks of articles and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances used in carrying the said articles in contravention of the provisions of this order, or of the conditions of the license issued there under and thereafter take or authorise the taking of all measures necessary for securing the production of stocks of articles and the animals, vehicles, vessels or other conveyances so seized, in a court and for their safe custody pending such production;

(d) seize any books of accounts and documents which in the opinion of such person, may be useful for or relevant to any proceedings under this order and the person from whose custody such books or accounts or documents are seized shall be entitled to take copies thereof or to take extracts therefrom in the presence of an officer having the custody of such books of accounts or documents.

(2) The provisions of section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) relating to search and seizure shall so far as may be, apply to searches and seizures under this clause: Provided that in exercising the power of entry and search under this clause, due regard shall be paid by the authorized officer to the social and religious customs of the occupants of premises so entered and searched.
