

Name of the Office :    DAULATRAO JADHAV Jail OFFICERS' TRAINING College, YERWADA, PUNE – 6

HISTORICAL VALUE:

To bring evolutionary changes and improvement in imprisonment and the liberated look at the crime has been changing and related to this the different ways of handling these situations , reason behind the crime and many reasons, complications and solutions of the crime to be handled. In earlier day, the commitment of a crime was called a disease by the law makers. The law has decided that we need to work on this and provide them with counseling instead of punishment. In short, we have to focus on the crime committed and find the correct solution and ways of handling and resolving the crime. There has been very less development related to these issues in our country. The main reason is that we have a lack of educated and experienced trainers. Many departments provides training the class III and class IV employees. The training provided by these departments helps the officers to work diligently in providing obligatory security.

Correction and rehabilitation focuses on modern training instead of traditional one.

It is more important to provide scientific solutions rather than providing security or training system.

Impletion of these training has been unfruitful. The Bombay Jail Committee 1948 has suggested that the officers appointed in prison department should be provided 1-year mandatory scientific training related to law. The same committee has also suggested that the constables appointed by prison should also be provided training . related to this, on 5th june 1955, Jail Officer Training School was commenced and this it is a crucial part of the prison administration.

The main motto of this training school is to provide the officers with the handling of the crime, criminals and corrections facilities within the prisons which includes behavior and socio-modern development training .
