3.2.10. Inspection of Auction Lot (Scrap):

a) Condition of Goods:

All items are sold on an "As is where is," "As is what is," and "As is whatever there is" basis, with a strict "no complaint" policy. Any weights or quantities displayed on the e-auction system are approximate and provided solely for guidance.

b) Buyer Responsibility (Caveat Emptor):

Sales are conducted under the principle of Caveat Emptor (Buyer Beware). It is assumed that bidders have inspected the lots and are fully aware of the condition of their purchase. No grievances or complaints will be entertained once the Lot Code is knocked down.

c) Inspection:

Prospective purchasers are encouraged to inspect the scrap and materials in advance at the locations specified in Annexure B. Inspection is permitted on scheduled working days and during official hours as declared in the auction timeline.

d) Contact Person: Mr. Gajanan Shinde (+91-9860397674) for Inspection on scheduled date and time.

3.2.11 Delay in Deliver Period and Penalty:

a) Lifting Protocol:

Successful bidders must remove scrap materials in the serial order listed. Lifting must be continuous and coordinated with the concerned Maharashtra Prison Department unit during working days to ensure zero disruption. All removals must occur in the presence of authorized unit staff.

b) Removal Timeline:

Purchased materials must be removed from the site within 15 days of making full payment in favour of "Personal Assistant to Inspector General of Prisons Maharashtra State, Pune 411 001" and receiving the Gate Pass or Delivery Memo. The purchaser and their personnel are required to comply with all security measures and gate entry/exit protocols mandated by the Prison Department during the removal process.

c) Late Delivery Charges:

Failure to remove materials within the 15-day window will attract a ground rent/late fee of ₹500 per day, per Lot Code, starting from the 16th day until delivery is complete. These charges shall be recovered by the concerned unit officer.

d) Cancellation Clause:

If the material is not removed within 90 days following the initial 15-day grace period, the Competent Authority reserves the right to cancel the auction sale.

e) Forfeiture of Deposit:

In the event of auction cancellation due to bidder default or failure to remove materials, the EMD shall be forfeited.

f) Assumption of Risk:

All auctioned materials remain at the sole risk of the purchaser from the date of the auction. The Auction Committee assumes no responsibility for the safe custody, preservation, or any loss/damage thereafter.

g) Delivery via Representative:

If the original buyer cannot attend, their representative must present a formal Letter of Authority. Delivery by proxy is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.

h) Non-Recognition of Resale:

The Auction Committee does not recognize third-party resales. All sale documents and titles will be issued exclusively in the name of the original registered purchaser.

i) Damage to Premises:

The buyer is strictly liable for any damage caused to the Department's premises or property during the removal of goods.

j) Excess Material Policy:

If a purchaser is found attempting to transport scrap exceeding the documented quantity, the Seller reserves the right to detain the vehicle and unload the material at the Purchaser's expense. Such acts may result in immediate contract termination, forfeiture of EMD, and claims for further damages. However, the Seller reserves the right to sell discovered excess material to the purchaser at the sanctioned auction rate.

k) Labour and Equipment:

Costs: All loading, unloading, and transportation costs are the responsibility of the Purchaser.

Compliance: The Purchaser must employ labour registered with the Bombay Iron & Steel Labour Board or the Mathadi Board, strictly adhering to the Maharashtra Mathadi, Hamal & Other Manual Workers Act, 1969.

Machinery: Use of Forklifts, Cranes, or JCBs is permitted at the Purchaser's expense. The non-availability of such machinery or labour shall not be accepted as a valid reason for delays in lifting. All transport operations must be in full compliance with RTO regulations and other legal mandates. The Seller shall not be held liable for any legal violations committed by the purchaser's vehicles or operators.

3.2.12. Decision and Jurisdiction in Case of Dispute:

If no valid bid is received during the final 10 minutes, the auction will close automatically at the scheduled or extended time.

Section V: Resolution of disputes

5. Resolution of disputes

5.1 Disputes and Excepted Matters

All disputes and differences between the parties hereto, as to the construction or operation of this contract, or the respective rights and liabilities of the parties on any matter in question; or any other account whatsoever, but excluding the Excepted Matters (detailed below); arising out of or in connection with the contract, within thirty (30) days from aggrieved Party notifying the other Party of such matters; whether before or after the completion/ termination of the contract, that cannot be resolved amicably between the Auction Officer and the contractor within thirty (30) days from aggrieved Party notifying the other Party of such matters, shall be hereinafter called the “Dispute”. The aggrieved party shall give a ‘Notice of Dispute’ indicating the Dispute and claims citing relevant Contractual clause to the designated authority and requesting for invoking the following dispute resolution mechanisms. The Dispute shall be resolved without recourse to courts through dispute resolution mechanisms detailed subsequently, in the sequence as mentioned below, and the next mechanism shall not be invoked unless the earlier mechanism has been invoked or has failed to resolve it within the deadline mentioned therein.

- 1) Adjudication
- 2) Conciliation
- 3) Arbitration

5.2 Excepted Matters

Matters for which provision has been made in any Clause of the contract shall be deemed as ‘excepted matters’ (matters not disputable/arbitral), and decisions of the Auction Entity, thereon shall be final and binding on the contractor. The ‘excepted matters’ shall stand expressly excluded from the purview of the sub-clauses below, including Arbitration. However, where the Auction Entity has raised the dispute, this sub-clause shall not apply. Unless otherwise stipulated in the contract, excepted matters shall include but not limited to:

- 1) any controversies or claims brought by a third party for bodily injury, death, property damage or any indirect or consequential loss arising out of or in any way related to the performance of this Contract (“Third Party Claim”), including, but not limited to, a Party’s right to seek contribution or indemnity from the other Party in respect of a Third-Party Claim.
- 2) Issues related to the pre-award auction process or conditions
- 3) Issues related to ambiguity in contract terms shall not be taken up after a contract has been signed. All such issues should be highlighted before the signing of the contract by the contractor.

5.3 Adjudication

After exhausting efforts to resolve the Dispute with the Auctioning Officer executing the contract on behalf of the Auction Entity, the contractor shall give a ‘Notice of Adjudication’ specifying the matters which are in question, or subject of the dispute or difference indicating the relevant contractual clause, as also the amount of claim item-wise to ADG and IG Prisons and Correctional Services or any other authority mentioned in the contract(hereinafter called the “Adjudicator”) for invoking resolution of the dispute through Adjudication. During his adjudication, the Adjudicator shall give adequate opportunity to the contractor to present his case. Within 30 days after receiving the representation, the Adjudicator shall make and notify decisions in writing on all matters referred to him. The parties shall not initiate, during the adjudication proceedings, any conciliation or arbitral or judicial proceedings in respect of a dispute that is the subject matter of the adjudication proceedings. If not satisfied by the decision in adjudication, or if the adjudicator fails to notify his decision within the above mentioned time-frame, the contractor may proceed to invoke the process of Conciliation as follows.

5.4 Conciliation of disputes

- 1) Any party may invoke Conciliation by submitting “Notice of Conciliation” to the ADG and IG Prisons and Correctional Services. Since conciliation is a voluntary process, within 30 days of receipt of “Notice of Conciliation”, the ADG and IG Prisons and Correctional Services shall notify a sole Conciliator if the other party is agreeable to enter Conciliation. If the other party is not agreeable to Conciliation, the aggrieved party may invoke Arbitration.
- 2) The Conciliator shall proactively assist the parties to reach an amicable settlement independently and impartially within the terms of the contract, within 30 days from the date of appointment of the Conciliator.
- 3) If the parties reach an agreement on a dispute settlement, they shall draw up a written settlement agreement duly signed by the parties and conciliator. When the parties sign the settlement agreement, it shall be final and binding on the parties. The dispute shall be treated as resolved on the date of such agreement.
- 4) The parties shall not initiate, during the conciliation proceedings, any arbitral or judicial proceedings in respect of a dispute that is the subject matter of the conciliation proceedings.
- 5) Termination of Conciliation: Disputes shall remain alive if the conciliation is terminated as follows:
 - (a) By written declaration of the conciliator, after consultation with the parties, to the effect that further efforts at conciliation are no longer justified, on the date of such declaration; or
 - (b) By a written declaration of any party to the conciliator to the effect that the conciliation proceedings are terminated, on the date of such declaration; or
 - (c) If the parties fail to reach an agreement on a settlement of the dispute, within 60 days of the appointment of Conciliator
- 6) On termination of Conciliation, if the dispute is still alive, the aggrieved party shall be free to invoke Arbitration.

5.5 Arbitration Agreement

5.5.1 This Agreement

- 1) This Arbitration Agreement (hereinafter referred to as this “Agreement”) relating to this Contract (hereinafter called the “Main Agreement” for this agreement) is made under the provisions of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 as amended from time to time and the rules thereunder (hereinafter called The Arbitration Act). This Agreement shall continue to survive termination, completion, or closure of the Main Agreement for 120 days after that.
- 2) Subject to aforesaid provisions, relevant clauses of the contract shall apply to the appointment of arbitrators and arbitration proceedings under this Agreement.
- 3) The Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development (MSMED) Act, 2006 provides parties to a dispute (where one of the parties is a Micro or Small Enterprise) to be referred to Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council if the dispute is regarding any amount due under Section 17 of the MSMED Act, 2006. If a Micro or Small Enterprise, being a party to dispute, refers to the provisions in MSMED Act 2006, these provisions shall prevail over this Agreement.

5.5.2 Notice for Arbitration

- 1) Authority to Appoint Arbitrator(s): For this Arbitration Agreement 'The Appointing Authority', to appoint the arbitrator shall be ADG and IG Prisons and Correctional Services named in the contract and includes if there be no such authority, the officer who is for the time being discharging the functions of that authority, whether in addition to other functions or otherwise.
- 2) In the event of any dispute as per GCC-clause 5.1 above, if the Adjudicator fails to decide within 30 days (as referred in 5.3 above), or the Conciliation is terminated (as referred in sub-clause 5.4 above) then, parties to the contract, after 60 days but within 90 days of 'Notice of Dispute' (clause 5.1 above) shall request the Appointing Authority through a "Notice for Arbitration" in writing requesting that the dispute or difference be referred to arbitration.
- 3) The "Notice for arbitration" shall specify the matters in question or subject of the dispute or difference indicating the relevant contractual clause, as well as the amount of claim item-wise.

5.5.3 Reference to Arbitration

After appointing Arbitrator(s), the Appointing Authority shall refer the Dispute to them. Only such dispute or difference shall be referred to arbitration regarding which the demand has been made, together with counter-claims or set off. Other matters shall be beyond the jurisdiction of Arbitrator(s).

5.5.4 Appointment of Arbitrator

- 1) Qualification of Arbitrators:

In the case of retired officers of The Procuring organisation, he shall have retired in the rank of Gazetted Officer (or equivalent) and shall have retired at least 1 years prior and must not be over 70 years of age on the date of Notice for arbitration.

An Arbitrator may be appointed notwithstanding the total no. of arbitration cases in which he has been appointed in the past. Not be other than the person appointed by The Appointing Authority and that if for any reason that is not possible, the matter shall not be referred to arbitration at all.

- 2) Replacement of Arbitrators

If one or more of the arbitrators appointed as above refuses to act as arbitrator, withdraws from his office as arbitrator, or in the event of the arbitrator dying, neglecting/ unable or unwilling or refusing to act for any reason, or his award being set aside by the court for any reason, or in the opinion of The Appointing Authority fails to act without undue delay, the Appointing Authority shall appoint new arbitrator/ arbitrators to act in his/ their place in the same manner in which the earlier arbitrator/ arbitrators had been appointed. Such a re-constituted Tribunal may, at its discretion, proceed with the reference from the stage at which it was left by the previous arbitrator (s).

- 3) Appointment of Arbitrator:

The appointment of the arbitrator shall be jointly decided by the Seller and the Purchaser. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the applicable laws and rules governing arbitration.

5.5.5 The Arbitral Procedure

- 1) Effective Date of Entering Reference: The arbitral tribunal shall be deemed to have entered the reference on the date on which the arbitrator(s) have received notice of their appointment. All subsequent time limits shall be counted from such date.
- 2) Seat and Venue of Arbitration: The seat of arbitration shall be the place from which the Letter of Award or the contract is issued. The venue of arbitration shall be the same as the seat of arbitration. However, in terms of section 20 of The Arbitration Act, the arbitrator, at his discretion, may determine a venue other than the seat of the arbitration without in anyway affecting the legal jurisdictional issues linked to the seat of the arbitration.
- 3) If the Adjudication and/ or Conciliation mechanisms had not been exhausted before such reference to Arbitration, the Arbitrator should ask the aggrieved party to approach designated authority for such mechanisms before the Arbitration proceedings are started.
- 4) The claimant shall submit to the Arbitrator(s) with copies to the respondent his claims stating the facts supporting the claims along with all the relevant documents and the relief or remedy sought against each claim within 30 days from the date of appointment of the Arbitral Tribunal unless otherwise extension has been granted by Arbitral Tribunal.
- 5) On receipt of such claims, the respondent shall submit its defence statement and counter claim(s), if any, within 60 days of receipt of the copy of claims, unless otherwise extension has been granted by Arbitral Tribunal.
- 6) No new claim shall be added during proceedings by either party. However, a party may amend or supplement the original claim or defence thereof during arbitration proceedings subject to acceptance by the Tribunal having due regard to the delay in making it.
- 7) Statement of claims, counterclaims and defence shall be completed within six months from the effective reference date.
- 8) Oral arguments to be held on a day-to-day basis: Oral arguments as far as possible shall be heard by the arbitral tribunal on a day-to-day basis, and no adjournments shall be granted without sufficient cause. The arbitrator (s) may impose an exemplary cost on the party seeking adjournment without sufficient cause.
- 9) Award within 12 (twelve) months: The arbitral tribunal is statutorily bound to deliver an award within 12 (twelve) months from the date when the arbitral tribunal enters reference. The award can be delayed by a maximum of six months only under exceptional circumstances where all parties consent to such extension of time. The court's approval shall be required for further extension if the award is not made out within such an extended period. During the period of an application for extension of time is awaiting before the court, the arbitrator's proceedings shall continue until the disposal of the application.
- 10) Fast Track Procedure: The parties to arbitration may choose to opt for a fast-track procedure either before or after the commencement of the arbitration. The award in fast-track arbitration is to be made out within six months, and the arbitral tribunal shall be entitled to additional fees. The salient features of the fast-track arbitration are:
 - a) The dispute is to be decided based on written pleadings only.
 - b) Arbitral Tribunal shall have the power to call for clarifications in addition to the written pleadings where it deems necessary.

- c) An oral hearing maybe held only if all the parties request or the arbitral tribunal considers it necessary.
 - d) The parties are free to decide the fees of the arbitrator(s) for fast-track procedure.
- 11) Powers of Arbitral Tribunal to grant Interim Relief: The parties to arbitration may approach the arbitral tribunal for seeking interim relief on the grounds available under section 9 of the act. The tribunal has the powers of a court while making interim awards in the proceedings before it.
 - 12) Confidentiality: As provided in Section 42A of The Arbitration Act, all the details and particulars of the arbitration proceedings shall be kept confidential, except in certain situations like if the disclosure is necessary for the implementation or execution of the arbitral award.
 - 13) Obligation During Pendency of Arbitration: Performance of the contract shall, unless otherwise directed by the Procuring Entity, continue during the arbitration proceedings, and no payment due or payable by the Procuring Entity shall be withheld on account of such proceedings, provided; however, it shall be open for Arbitral Tribunal to consider and decide whether or not the performance of the contract or payment therein should continue during arbitration proceedings.

5.5.6 The Arbitral Award

- 1) In the case of the Tribunal, comprising of three members, any ruling on award shall be made by a majority of members of the Tribunal. In the absence of such a majority, the views of the Presiding Arbitrator shall prevail.
- 2) The arbitral award shall state item-wise the sum and reasons upon which it is based. The analysis and reasons shall be detailed enough so that the award can be inferred from it.
- 3) It is further a term of this arbitration agreement that where the arbitral award is for the payment of money, no interest shall be payable on whole or any part of the money for any period till the date on which the award is made in terms of Section 31 (7) (a) of The Arbitration Act.
- 4) The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties to this contract.
- 5) A party may apply for corrections of any computational errors, typographical or clerical errors, or any other error of similar nature occurring in the award or interpretation of a specific point of the award to the Tribunal within 60 days of receipt of the award.
- 6) A party may apply to the Tribunal within 60 days of receiving the award to make an additional award as to claims presented in the arbitral proceedings but omitted from the arbitral award.

5.5.7 Savings

The Arbitral Tribunal shall decide any matter related to Arbitration not covered under this Arbitration Agreement as per the provisions of The Arbitration Act.

5.5.8 Cost of Arbitration and fees of the Arbitrator(s)

- 1) The concerned parties shall bear the cost of arbitration in terms of section 31 (A) of The Arbitration Act. The cost shall inter-alia include fees of the Arbitrator. Further, the fees payable to the Arbitrator shall be governed by instructions issued on the subject by the Government from time to time, in line with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, irrespective of the fact whether the Arbitrator is appointed by the Procuring Entity or the Government under this clause or by any court of law unless directed explicitly by Hon'ble court otherwise on the matter. A sole arbitrator shall be entitled to a 25% extra fee over such a prescribed fee.

- 2) The arbitrator shall be entitled to a 50 percent extra fee if the award is made within 6 months in terms of provisions contained in section 29(A) (2) of The Arbitration Act.
- 3) Besides the above, Arbitrator shall also be entitled to this extra fee in cases where Fast Track Procedure in terms of section 29 (B) of The Arbitration Act is followed.

6 Defaults, Breaches, Termination, and closure of Contract

6.1 Termination due to Breach, Default, and Insolvency

6.1.1 Defaults and Breach of Contract

In case the contractor undergoes insolvency or receivership; neglects or defaults, or expresses inability or disinclination to honour his obligations relating to the performance of the contract or ethical standards or any other obligation that substantively affects the Procuring Entity's rights and benefits under the contract, it shall be treated as a breach of Contract. Such defaults could include inter-alia:

- 1) Default in Performance and Obligations: if the contractor fails to take delivery any or all of the Goods or fails to perform any other contractual obligations within the period stipulated in the contract or within any extension thereof granted by the Procuring Entity.
- 2) Insolvency: If the contractor being an individual or if a firm, any partner thereof, shall at any time, be adjudged insolvent or shall have a receiving order or order for the administration of his estate made against him or shall take any proceeding for composition under any Insolvency Act for the time being in force or make any conveyance or assignment of his effects or enter into any assignment or composition with his creditors or suspend payment or if the firm be dissolved under the Partnership Act, or
- 3) Liquidation: if the contractor is a company being wound up voluntarily or by order of a Court or a Receiver, Liquidator or Manager on behalf of the Debenture-holders is appointed, or circumstances shall have arisen which entitle the Court or Debenture-holders to appoint a Receiver, Liquidator or Manager.

6.1.2 Notice for Default:

As soon as a breach of contract is noticed, a show-cause 'Notice of Default' shall be issued to the contractor, giving two weeks' notice, reserving the right to invoke contractual remedies. After such a show-cause notice, all delivery to the contractor would be temporarily withheld to safeguard needed recoveries that may become due on invoking contractual remedies.

6.1.3 Terminations for Default

- 1) Notice for Termination for Default: In the event of unsatisfactory resolution of 'Notice of Default' within two weeks of its issue as per sub-clause above, the Procuring Entity, if so decided, shall by written Notice of Termination for Default sent to the contractor, terminate the contract in whole or in part, without compensation to the contractor.
- 2) Such termination shall not prejudice or affect the rights and remedies, including under sub-clause below, which have accrued and/ or shall accrue to the Procuring Entity after that.
- 3) Unless otherwise instructed by the Procuring Entity, the contractor shall continue to perform the contract to the extent not terminated.
- 4) All warranty obligations, if any, shall continue to survive despite the termination.

6.1.4 Contractual Remedies for Breaches/Defaults or Termination for Default

If there is an unsatisfactory resolution within this period, the Auction Entity shall take one; or more of the following contractual remedies.

- 1) Temporary withhold delivery to the contractor till recoveries due to invocation of other contractual remedies are complete.
- 2) Encash and/ or Forfeit performance or other contractual securities.
- 3) Terminate contract for default, fully or partially including its right for Risk-and-Cost Procurement as per following sub-clause.
