Sir,

The BoG, KVS in its 126th meeting has amended Article 161(2) (i) of Accounts Code as under:

“161(2) (i) Payment of KVS pensions is arranged through branches of the State Bank of India as per Scheme, introduced with effect from 01.06.1979. The Pension Authorizing Authority will be required for this purpose to forward two copies of the Pension Payment Order to State Bank of India, Main Branch, New Delhi for further necessary action. One copy each of the PPO and sanction orders for commutation etc. will also be forwarded to the KVS HQ Pension Branch. KVS Headquarters and Regional Offices are also required to maintain ledgers in respect of their pensioners for the purpose of reconciliation. In addition to State Bank of India, processing and payment of pension can be made through any Nationalized Bank and the same can also be done through web-based portal of Nationalized Bank/KVS”.

Yours sincerely,
