CODE OF CONDUCT FOR TEACHERS

CHAPTER-VI Article 59(KVS Education Code)

The provisions of the CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964 shall apply mutatis mutandis to all the employees of the Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan. In addition to this, the following code of conduct shall also be applicable to teachers. Violation of these shall make an employee liable for action under the CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965.

1. Every teacher shall, by precept and example, instill in the minds of the pupil, entrusted to his care, love for the motherland.
2. Every teacher shall, by precept and example, inculcate in the minds of his pupils' respect for law and order.
3. Every teacher shall, organize and promote all school activities which foster a feeling of universal brotherhood amongst the pupils.
4. Every teacher shall, by precept and example, promote tolerance for all religions amongst his pupils.
5. No teacher shall be a member of any political party or carry on activities either openly or in camera in support of any such party. He shall also not have any association with either any political party or any organization which has been declared by the Sangathan to carrying out its activities against the aims, objects and functions of Kendriya Vidyalayas.
6. The teacher shall always be on the alert to see that his pupils do not take active part in politics.
7. No teacher shall be a member of the State or Central Legislature. He shall resign his job before contesting for elections as a candidate.
8. Every teacher shall take a stand against unhealthy and bad customs and practices in modern society and must strive his best to instill in the minds of his pupils the principles of co-operation and social service.
9. Every teacher shall co-operate with and secure the co-operation of other persons in all activities which aim at the improvement of moral, mental and physical well-being of pupils.
10. Every teacher shall be strictly impartial in his relations with all his pupils. He shall be sympathetic and helpful particularly to the slow learners.
11. Every teacher shall be a learner throughout his life not only to enrich his own knowledge, but also of those who are placed in his care. He shall plan out his work on approved lines and do it methodically and vigilantly, eschewing all extraneous considerations.
12. Every teacher shall regard each individual pupil as capable of unique development and of taking his due place in the society, and help him to be creative as well as co-operative.
13. Every teacher shall be temperate and sober in his habits. He shall scrupulously avoid smoking, chewing of betel leaves and such other undesirable habits in the presence of students and within the precincts of the Vidyalaya.
14. Every teacher shall have an exemplary moral character. His dealing with the members of the opposite sex in the Vidyalaya or outside, shall not be such as would cause reflection on his character or bring discredit to the Vidyalaya.
15. Every teacher shall take pride in his calling and try to promote the dignity and solidarity of his profession.
16. Every teacher shall be an advocate of freedom of thought and expression and the development of scientific temper in himself and his students.
17. No teacher shall indulge in or encourage any form of malpractice connected with examinations or other school activities.
18. Confidential matters relating to the institution and the department shall not be divulged by any teacher.
19. No teacher shall undertake private tuition or private employment or otherwise engage himself in any business.
20. Every teacher shall be clean and trim. He shall not be casual and informal, while on duty. His dress shall be neat and dignified. He shall on no account be dressed so as to become an object of excitement or ridicule or pity at the hands of students and his colleagues.
21. Every teacher shall be punctual in attendance in respect of his class work as also for any other work connected with the duties assigned to him by the Principal. He shall realize that he is a member of the team and shall help in developing a corporate life in the school.
22. Every teacher shall abide by the rules and regulations of the Vidyalaya and show due respect to the constituted authority, diligently carrying out instructions issued to him by the superior authority.

23. Every teacher shall avoid monetary transaction with the pupils and parents and refrain from exploiting his Vidyalaya influence for personal ends. He shall generally conduct his personal matters in such a manner that he does not incur a debt beyond his means to repay.
24. No teacher shall prepare or publish any text book or keys or assist directly or indirectly in their preparation, or use such publications without obtaining prior approval of the Sangathan.
25. No teacher shall engage himself as a selling agent or canvasser for any publishing firm/trader.
26. No teacher shall apply for an assignment or job outside the Sangathan directly. He shall invariably forward his application through proper channel.
27. No teacher shall present his grievances, if any; except through proper channel, nor will be canvass for any non-official or outside influence or support in respect of any matter pertaining to his service in the Vidyalaya.
28. Every teacher shall consider Vidyalaya property and funds as if placed in trust with him and shall exercise the same with prudence and care as he would do in respect of his own property or funds.
29. No teacher shall accept or permit any member of his family or any other person acting on his behalf to accept any gift from any pupil, parent or any person with whom he has come into contact by virtue of his position in the Vidyalaya except as provided under Rule 13 of the CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.
30. No teacher shall, except with the previous sanction of the Sangathan, give any talk on the radio, publish any statement or document either in his own name or anonymously, pseudonymously or in the name of any other person, which has the effect of an adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or action of the Central or a State Government, or which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Central Government and a State Government or between the Central Government and the Government of any foreign state.
31. No teacher shall, except with the previous sanction of the competent authority, ask for or accept contributions or other collections in cash or in kind in pursuance of any object whatsoever.
32. It shall be the duty of every teacher:
- (i) To respect the National Flag and the National Anthem.
 - (ii) To promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood amongst all the people of India transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities and to renounce practice derogatory to the dignity of women.
 - (iii) To develop scientific temper, humanism and spirit of enquiry and reform.
 - (iv) To safeguard public property and to abjure violence.
 - (v) To strive towards excellence in all subjects in all spheres on individual and collective activity so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of endeavour and achievement.
33. If a teacher is convicted by a Court of Law or arrested, it shall be his duty to inform immediate superior the fact of his conviction or arrest and the circumstances connected therewith as soon as it is possible for him to do so.
