

English

Class 12th

Section B

Report Writing

1. You witnessed the football final match between Uttarakhand and Kerala at the 38th National Games in Haldwani. Write a report in 120-150 words for a local newspaper.
2. Using the information given below, write a report of about 100 words on the NSS Camp you attended recently. 5

NSS Camp at Hatal Village (Tiuni)-100 volunteers- Planting tree-cleaning of drains
Adult Literacy Classes

3. You are Sandeep/Sanya, your school organized a Career Guidance Seminar for senior students to help them explore various career options. The seminar included sessions by industry experts, interactive workshops, and Q&A segments. As the Head of the Student Council, write a report in 120-150 words, for the school magazine, analysing the purpose, key highlights, and overall impact of the seminar. You may use the following cues. 5

Introduction:

- What: Career Guidance Seminar.
- When: Date and time of the seminar.
- Where: Venue (e.g., school auditorium).
- Who: Organized by (e.g., school administration, Student Council).
- Why: Purpose of the seminar (e.g., to provide clarity on career choices).

Main Highlights:

- Speakers: Names and designations of guest speakers or industry experts.
- Topics Covered: Examples:
 - Emerging careers in technology.
 - Opportunities in creative industries.
 - Building entrepreneurial skills.
- Interactive Activities:
 - Workshops or hands-on sessions.
 - Q&A sessions and student queries addressed.
- Attendance: Number of students who participated, their classes/grades

4. Mana, a village in Chamoli district, was recently devastated by a glacier-triggered landslide. Nearly 10 people lost their lives, 22 remain missing, and there has been massive damage to property and livestock. As Priya Negi, the editor of a local news paper, draft a report in 120–150 words on the incident. You may add relevant details as needed, in addition to the points mentioned. 5
5. Your school organized a fair to support children with special needs from a nearby Special Child Society. As Poonam Mathur, School Head Girl, draft a report in not more than 120-125 words, detailing the event, its activities, and the response from students and visitors.