3. All the Deputy Commissioners and Sub Divisional Officers (Civil) in Haryana.

Dated Chandigarh, the 21st February, 2006.

Subject:- Prohibition of giving or taking of dowry amongst the Government employees- Seeking declaration from the Government employees.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject noted above and to invite your attention to Rule 13-A of the 'The Government Employees (Conduct) Rules, 1966, which interalia provides that Government employees are prohibited from giving or taking of dowry. In order to enforce the implementation of this rule, the State Government has decided to take a declaration from the unmarried candidates at the time of their entry into Government service as per specimen appended herewith at Annexure 'A'.

2. Further, attention is also invited to rule 8(4)(1) of the Haryana Dowry Prohibition Rules, 2003, according to which every Government servant after his marriage is required to furnish a declaration to his Head of the Department that he has not taken any dowry. This declaration is to be signed by his wife, father and father-in-law. On consideration of the matter, the State Government has incorporated the aforesaid rule as rule 13-B in the 'The Government Employees (Conduct) Rules, 1966 as well vide notification bearing No.G.S.R.2/Const./Art.187, 309 and 318/2006, dated 3rd February, 2006 (copy enclosed).

In the wake of notification dated 3rd February, 2006, the State Government has decided that the Government employee, after his marriage, shall furnish a declaration regarding non-acceptance of the dowry by him to his Head of the Department as per declaration at Annexure 'B'.
