FOREWORD

The very words "I.N.A." bring vividly to our minds the saga of sacrifice made by Netaji and INA Volunteers some of whom laid down their lives for our dear nation. This compilation is an attempt to perpetuate and preserve their memory, sentiments, courage, heroism, nobility of character and lofty ideals .

The heroes of our freedom struggle, INA volunteers came from every corner of the country and from abroad also. They did not speak one language. They did not belong to one religion or caste.They rose above these narrow loyalities and considerations. An intense love for their motherland and keenness to see them free was the single thread of unity that bound them all. This will be a constant reminder to our future generations not to forget that the edifice of free India has been built on untold sacrifices .

The publication of this booklet during the Netaji's centenary year has a special significance. Netaji's dream of free India became a reality only because of the sacrifices of thousands of freedom fighters and volunteers .This is one way to express our deep and abiding gratitude to them.This effort will be amply rewarded if it succeeds in inspiring the people to rededicate themselves to the task of consolidating our hard won freedom.

INA proved a last blow to the Britishers. The glorious memory of Netaji and INA will always be a source of strength to us. The idea of overthrowing the British rule in India gripped their minds so completely that they renounced the pleasure offered by the mighty British imperialism and willingly chose the path of sacrifice and suffering,including inhuman torture in prisons and death.

I hope that this book will prove a source of information and inspiration to future generations.

Suggestions including intimation of any errors or omissions that might have crept into the booklet would be gratefully received and acknowledged by the Archives Department.

INTRODUCTION

Freedom struggle presents the spectrum of a unified united participation. Starting with sporadic and spontaneous resistance against the British the struggle gradually emerged as a national movement with the objective of obtaining independence, which at last was ultimately attained in 1947. As it evolved and grew wider and wider in scope, it professed varied ideological currents ranging from reformation to revolution, from gun barrel philosophy of terrorists to Gandhian non-violence, from aristocratic protests to present outbursts, and from fanatic religious zeal to glorious national sentiments all converging upon single eyed aim of achieving freedom of the motherland from foreign yoke.

An important development in the struggle for freedom during the second world war was the formation and activities of the Azad Hind Fauj also known as the Indian National Army or INA. The failure of the Quit India Movement and the collapse of the outbreak of 1942 practically marked the end of the heroic fight for freedom in India under the leadership of the Congress and the revolutionary leaders. But it did not end the struggle for India's freedom which now took the shape of a grim fight waged beyond the eastern frontier of India by the Indian National Army led by Subhash Bose in co-operation with the Japanese army invading India. Netaji was a conscientious objector to the Gandhian technique of satygraha and non-violence .He was a believer in militancy and planned to raise the banner of an armed revolt in India and abroad.

In 1941, Bose's dramatic escape from Calcutta to Berlin, full of thrilling details was historic one. a great stirring among the Indians in these regions.Those living in territories freed from European domination organised themselves into associations with the two fold objects of contributing their quota to the liberation of India from the British yoke and serving the interests of the overseas Indians during the critical, transitory period. Out of these associations was borne the idea of an Indian league, A definite shape was given to this idea by the great Indian revolutionary, Rash Bihari Bose. It was mainly due to his inspiration and efforts that The Tokyo conference passed a resolution to form an Indian National Army. An Indian Independence league of overseas Indians was provisionally established throughout Japanese Asia,and it was decided to hold a fully representative conference of Indians at Bangkok in June. This conference was held in Bangkok from 15 to 23 June,1942.It was attended by about 100 delegates from Burma, Malaya, Thailand, Indo-China,Philipines ,Japan, China, Borniea Jawa. Sumatra,Hongkong and Andamans,Rash Behari Bose was elected chairman. The tricolour flag was raised by Rash Behari Bose ,and the conference formally inaugurated the Indian Independence League with a definite constitution. The object of the league was defined to be the attainment of complete and immediate independence of India. The conference passed altogather thirty five resolutions, including one inviting Subhash Chandra Bose to East Asia.When Japan defeated the British armies and occupied almost all the countries of South-East Asia,the league formed the Indian National Army from among the Indian Prisoners of war with the aim of liberating India from the British Rule.

In December,1941,when Japanese invaded North Malaya and defeated the British forces there, Captain Mohan Singh and a small party with him, agreed to join hands for the independence of India.

On 15 Feb,1942 Singapore surrendered unconditionally to Japan. The British personnel,officers and men of the defeated British Army,were separated from the Indian personnel.The latter,under orders of their British masters, were handed over to Japanese. Japanese Officer Major Fujiwara handed them over to Capt. Mohan Singh, as they were in short of ration. He invited them to be a part of Indian National Army, which will fight to free India. Are you all prepared to join the Indian National Army? On this the audience lifted up their arms,threw their turbans in the air and showed great pleasure." By the end of August, 1942 forty thousand prisoners of war signed a pledge to join the Indian National Army under Mohan Singh.

Captain Mohan Singh, acting in collaboratio n with the Indian Independence league of which Ras h Behari Bose was the President and who also headed th e Administravive committee or council of action,organis ed the I.N.A. which was officially formed on 1 Septem be 1942. But differences soon arose between Captain Moha n Singh and Japanese Government, which wanted to use th e INA for promoting its own interests by using the late r as 5th columnists in India.Captain Mohan Singh refuse d to agree and apprehending the consequences ordered th e dissolution of INA just before he was arrested and possibly 'liquidated' in December,1942. Such was the end of first INA.

But the Administrative Committee with Rash Behari Bose as its president continued to enjoy the confidence of many men and officers ,of whom the more prominent were captain Abur Rashid Khan,Lt.Col.Bhonsle captain Shah Nawaj Khan, Captain P.K.Sehgal and Lt.Gurbaksh Dhillon,and they continue to work for reorganising the INA.They had ,however,only limited success until the arrival on 2 July,1943 of Subhash Chandra Bose at Singapore,Rash Behari Bose surrendered his powers and position to him. Then events moved quickly Subhash Chander immediately assumed the supereme commend of INA, admission and recruitment to which ,he declared was to be absolutely voluntary.
On 21 October,1943 he proclaimed the establishment at Singapore of a provisional Government of free India and soon organised the INA as a disciplined national army of India with a regular cadre of officers,whose aim was to recover the Independence of India .Netaji went to the Andamans which had been occupied by the Japanese and hoisted their the flag of India.In early 1944,three units of Azad Hind Fauj (INA) took part in the attack on the north eastern parts of India to oust the Britishers from India.The main brigades of INA were Gandhi Brigade ,Azad Brigade,Nehru Brigade,Subhash Brigade and Rani Jhansi Regiment.This women's regiment of Azad Hind Fauj was under the command of Captain Lakshmi Swaminathan. He gave the INA the slogan " Delhi Chalo" (onward to Delhi) so that the Indian National Flag be planted on the top of the Red Fort making the Liberation of India from the British rule.The Head Headquarters of the INA were soon transferred from Singapore to Rangoon.About the beginning of 1944 the INA,allied as equals with the Japanese ,marched through Burma and surmounting all sorts of difficulties imposed by the shortage of arms ,equipment,food,transport and , above all,the lack of aeroplanes ,did make its way to Kohima in Manipur .There its progress was not only halted by the Indo-British Army,well provided with everything that a modern army requires,but it was also repulsed .

The Indian battalion,reinforced by Japanese troops,advanced towards Indian frontier.The British Indian Post Mowdok was captured by a suprise attack during night(May,1944) and the enemy fled in panic leaving large quantities of arms,ammunition and rations.The entry of INA on Indian Territory was a most touching scene. According to Shah Nawaj Khan, one of the most prominent officers of the Azad Hind Fauj ,the soldiers who had entered India laid themselves flat on the ground and passionately kissed the sacred soil of their motherland which they had set out to liberate.A regular flag hoisting ceremony was held amidst great the rejoicing and singing of the Azad Hind Fauj National Anthem.

On account of the difficulty of supply as well as impending counter attack by the British forces,the Japanese forces decided to withdraw from Mowdok and advised the INA commander to do the same INA officers refused to do so, they said, "No Sir, the Japanese can retreat because Tokyo lies that way, our goal - the Red Fort, Delhi lies ahead of us. We have orders to go to Delhi. There is no going for us." The Japanese admiring the spirit almost a suicidal role of INA left one platoon of their own troops to share the fate of Indians .. These Japanese troops put under direct command of Captain Suraj Mal .The Japanese commander-in-Chief bowed before Netaji and said, "Your Excellency, we were wrong .We misjudged the soldiers of INA, we know now that they are no mercenaries ,but real patriots".No less than about 3000 soldiers and officers in INA were from Haryana.The most prominent among them were Major Suraj Mal, Col.Dil Sukh Mann of village Mundse,Rohtak Col.Ram Sarup Yadav of Kosli,Lt.Col.Ram Singh Ahlawat of village Dhandlan,Rohtak, Major Amir Singh,Major Mehar Chand,Major Chander Bhan,Major Mohd.Hussain,Major Tirkha Ram and Captain Kanwal Singh of village Mandothy,Rohtak.Captain Preet Singh of village Rewara played an important role in Intelligence Group .Captain Kanahaya Singh ,Captain Ganeshi Lal,Captain Jeet Ram and Major Balwant were bestowed with the honour of Sher-i-Hind.

From Haryana 346 officers and soldiers laid down their lives while fighting for the INA.Inspite of failure,the I.N.A.occupies an important place in the history of India's struggle for freedom. The formation of this force and its heroic exploits proved beyond doubt that the British could no longer rely upon the Indian sepoys to maintain their hold on India.

The universal sympathy expressed all over India for the I.N.A.officers,when they were tried for treason in Red Fort at Delhi,gave a rude shock to the British,because as it clearly demonstrated that Indians of all shades of opinion put a premium on the disloyality of the Indian troops to their foreign masters and looked upon it as a true and welcome and welcome sign of nationalism. The honour and esteem with which every Indian regarded the members of the I.N.A.offered a striking contrast to the ill concealed disgust and contempt for those sepoys who refused to join the I.N.A.Even the stories of oppressions and torturess suffered by the British sepoys for their loyality evoked no sympathy forthem in the heartsof Indians. All these opened the eyes of the British to their perilous situation in India. They realised that they were sitting on the brink of a volcano which might erupt at any moment.This consideration played an important role in their final decision to quit India. Thus, I.N.A. proved a last nail in the coffin of the British and a last and deciding blow on their head. So the members of the INA did not die or suffer in vain, and their leader, Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, has secured a place of honour in the history of India's struggle for freedom.
