It transpires from the records that against column No. 10 of the MSC application, the petitioner has furnished the information that out of total 620 students, 26 students are from the Christian Minority Community but in application for NOC application filed before the State Competent Authority, the petitioner has furnished the information that there are total 543 students out of which 454 are Hindu, 22 are Christian and 05 are Muslims. So, instead of 543, the total strength is 481.

Learned counsel for the petitioner prayed for time to file clarification regarding the above mentioned discrepancy.

Despite registered notice and e-mail to the respondent, we have not received any response/reply from the State Competent Authority of Uttar Pradesh.
