

ANNEXURE P-4

GOVT. OF HARYANA (DEPARTMENT OF JAILS)
LETTER NO. 7843/2JJ/77/30099 DATED 28.11.1977

"The Haryana Government vide letter No. 7843/2JJ/77/30099 dated 28.11.1977 had directed that cases of life convicts of the following two categories be put up to the State level committee for review of their premature release and final decision of the State Government thereon. The categories are :

1. Adult male life After completion of 8 1/2 years of substantive sentence and 14 years sentence including remissions.
2. Female and Juvenile After completion of 5 years of substantive sentence and 10 years sentence including remissions.

The said instructions were amended in the following terms:

- a) Convicts whose death sentence has been reviewed after completion of 14 years actual imprisonment by the sentence including president of India or by undertrial/detention period. In case of very long sentence of more than 14 years, their cases will be considered after 12 years of actual imprisonment including under trial/detention period.

b) Juvenile life convicts Their cases may be below the age of 18 years considered after 6 years at the time of commission actual sentence including of offence and female undertrial/detention life convicts.

period, provided the total of period of such detention including remission is not less than 10 years.

c) Adult life convicts Their case may be (above 18 years) not considered after convicted for heinous completion of 8 1/2 years crimes as defined in (d) of substantive detention below including undertrial/detention period of such detention including remission is not less than 14 years.

d) Adult life convicts After undergoing 14 years involved in heinous actual detention crimes such as dowry including deaths, bride burning, undertrial/detention husband killing and cases period.

disclosing great depravity of character and greed and those involving extreme brutality, murder with rape, murder while undergoing life sentence, organized and professional crimes of heinous nature like dacoity with murder and life convicts, who are dangerous and hardened criminals as evidenced for example form

punitive sentences,
persistent bad conduct,
in the prison and those who could not for some definite reasons be prematurely released
without danger to public safety.

e) Persons sentenced to life imprisonment may be inclusive of those considered for release convicted of crimes under detention undergone on (d) above and in whose report of medical Board case death sentence has designated by the been commuted to life Government. Medical re-imprisonment but who are examination of the suffering from terminal convict should be done 3 illness like cancer or months after such release tuberculosis likely to for the confirmation of resulting death in the the disease. Conditions near future. of release should contain the provision regarding medical re-examination and re-admission to the prison if patient is not found to be suffering from such a disease or is on the road to recovery."

TRUE COPY

H. P. S. AULAKH
ADVOCATE