"A STATE LEVEL
INTER-CCI FESTIVAL FOR CHILDREN RESIDING IN CHILD CARE
INSTITUTIONS (CCIS) FUNDED UNDER INTEGRATED CHILD PROTECTION SCHEME ICPS."

On the occasion of Children's Day celebrations on 14th November and International Child Rights Day on 20th November, the Ministry of Women and Child Development has decided to celebrate the intervening week as the Children's Week from 14th to 20th November, 2017 by organizing inter-CCI festival "Hausla 2017" for children residing in Child Care Institutions (CCIs) funded under Integrated Child Protection Scheme ICPS.

In this regard, several activities were hosted for the Children residing in CCIs in the various districts of Haryana to provide space to the children to express their creative, academic and physical abilities. Commencing from 3rd November 2017 at district level, the central idea behind this initiative is to bring the children living in CCIs to the mainstream of the society. Among the various categories (separate for boys and girls above the age of 14 years), the prominent activities that were conducted included athletics events (100 meter races, long jump, high jump), painting competition, speech competition (Hindi, English or Regional) and discussions.

In this regard, a state level inter-CCI competition was hosted by Haryana State Child Protection Society, under Women and Child Development Department Haryana in the office of Haryana State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (SCPCR) and Tau Devi Lal Stadium (for Athletics Events) on 10th November between the district-level winners of CCIs.
