Miscellaneous Revision No. 366/2007

ORDER

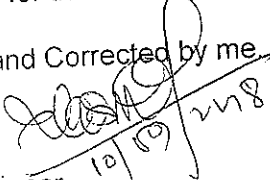

The instant Misc. Revision case is directed against the impugned order dt.14.06.2007 passed by Collector, Gopalganj in Misc. case No. 15/2007, whereby and whereunder the petitioner's restoration petition has been dismissed.

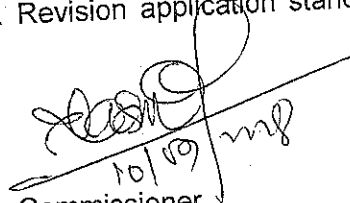

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned G.P.

The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner at the very outset, made a fervent appeal for disposing of this case in terms of conditions mentioned in the compromise petition filed on 18.01.18. Meanwhile, learned G.P. intervened in the arguments and strongly opposed the prayer made for by the petitioner counsel. He further said that since the petitioner's original case has been dismissed in default and subsequently the restoration petition has also been dismissed by Collector, Gopalganj, this Court has no reason to make any interference in the said order of Collector, Gopalganj which is a just order. I find some merit in the argument of learned G.P.

For the aforementioned reasons, the instant Misc. Revision application stands dismissed for the want of maintainability.
