Sec to Com

29.01.2013 Appellant - files herein.

Heard the learned counsel for the appellant on the point of limitation. The learned counsel failed to convince the court as to why such a delay has been caused in filing the appeal and the delay is much more than the time limit prescribed in the Bihar Land Dispute Resolution Act- 2009. According to the law, appeal can be filed within one month in normal circumstances and this can be extended by another one month under special circumstances but there is no provision to extend the period beyond this.

As such I am not inclined to admit this appeal. Hence, the same is dismissed at admission stage itself.
