Appellant - Absent
O.P. - present.

The learned counsel for the appellant is absent today despite being given last chance on 24.08.17 vide order dt. 29.06.17.

The learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent strongly states that the appellant is deliberately keeping himself absent from the Court proceeding as such this case may be dismissed.

In view of the aforementioned position, I do not find any justification to prolong this case further in absence of any genuine interest of the appellant. It is also on record that despite being given last chance to the appellant by this Court on 29.06.17, he remained absent and even failed to file any time petition for such absence. As such this appeal is dismissed in default.
