

IN THE COURT OF COMMISSIONER, SARAN DIVISION, CHHAPRA

Stamp Appeal No. 49/2012

Dina Nath Singh Petitioner
Vrs
The State of Bihar & others Respondents

ORDER

30.03.2013

The instant appeal petition is directed against the impugned order passed by the Inspector, Offices of Registration, Saran Division, Chapra on 29.05.08 whereby and whereunder the appellant was directed to deposit a deficit stamp fee of Rs. 14272/- and registration fee thereto.

2. Aggrieved by the aforesaid order, the appellant preferred an appeal before this Court challenging the said order. This case was admitted by this Court on 19.05.2009 and accordingly LCR was called for. When the case was taken up for final hearing on 05.03.2013, the learned counsel for the appellant offered his willingness to deposit 50 percent of the outstanding dues against the appellant within 10 days. This Court was pleased to grant such liberty to the appellant.

3. When the case was again taken up on 19.03.2013, the learned counsel for the appellant expressed his inability to tell the Court as to whether the earlier order dt.05.03.2013 has been complied with or not by the appellant and prayed for disposing off of the matter.

4. The learned Govt. Pleader informed the court that as deposit of 50% of the outstanding due is mandatory according to the amended law, failure to do so make the appeal liable to dismissal.

5. In view of the aforesaid position, I do not find any substantial reason to decide the case on merit in view of the fact that the appellant blatantly failed to comply with the provision of law and the earlier order dt.05.03.2013 of this Court which he undertook to comply with and he has not filed any piece of paper stating something otherwise. Thus this appeal is dismissed.
