ORDER

1.6.16.

The instant appeal petition is directed against the impugned order passed in Demarcation case No. 23/2011-12 on 24.03.23012 by D.C.L.R. Chapra Sadar.

Heard the learned counsel for the appellant and learned G.P. and on perusal of the impugned order, it is seen that the instant appeal petition has been preferred before this Court against the interim order of learned DCLR which only relates to appointment of a survey knowing Commissioner for demarcating the disputed land. Obviously, as no report has been submitted by the survey knowing Commissioner so that the learned DCLR could take decision to the effect that either to confirm or reject the said report after hearing the contesting parties. As such this Court is of the view that the impugned order being an interim order so no order can be passed at this stage in the matter.

In that view of the matter, the instant appeal petition is dismissed.
