Dated: 07 October, 2026

Addendum

This is in continuation to the Circular dated 22nd July, 2026 and addendum thereafter regarding merit based NBER ONLINE ADMISSION 2026. The admissions as per choice 1 & 2 and counselling of left out candidates has been completed successfully. It is observed that there are left out candidates desirous for admission those have registered with payment for admission 2026. Also, there are requests from candidates those were unable to complete registration with payment after logging in on NBER portal for admission 2026. Further, there are requests received from the candidates regarding change of course or to change the TTI and for cancellation of admissions. All such requests have been examined.

In the interest of the candidates those are yet to be admitted and consequent upon their requests, it has been decided to extend the timelines of admissions for the last and final time. The admission process for this final round will be only for left-out candidates registered with payment for admission 2026, logged in but were unable to complete registration with payment for admission 2026 and those who have requested to change of admissions. The candidates those have submitted their request for cancellation due to not interested will be excluded from the process.

The terms and conditions for this final admission process are as mentioned below:

Particulars	Timeline
Cancellation of admissions by the candidates already admitted	08-09 October -26
