Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar met Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday and discussed several issues relating to the state.

After meeting Modi, Khattar told reporters that the PM enquired about the farmers' protest and was concerned about them. "He was desirous of farmers returning to their homes," he added.

Khattar said Modi also enquired about pollution and farm fires and ameliorative measures taken. Khattar informed Modi of the state's impetus to "swachhta". To which, the PM suggested that the focus of "swachhta" should also be laid in villages.
