

Amendments in Provisions under IT & ESDM Policy

#	Sector	Provision	Existing Provision	Amendment in Provisions/ Stakeholders
1.	IT / ITeS	Development of integrated IT Townships (4.3.a.II)	In order to provide adequate support infrastructure in the Townships, there shall be reservation of 25% of land in each of the IT Townships for common social infrastructure such as housing facilities, medical and sports facilities, schools, recreation facilities, etc.	To revise the existing 25 % land reservation in each IT Townships / EMC to 10 % land reservation (consolidated) for common social infrastructure inclusive of all the townships - ITES & ESDM.
2.	ESDM	Development of Electronic Manufacturing Clusters (5.3.a.II)	Further, the State intends to create infrastructure highly suited to electronics units by providing reservation of 25% of land earmarked for Electronics industry for common social infrastructure such as housing facilities, medical and sports facilities, schools etc.
3.	ESDM	Intellectual Property (IP) value Cell (5.2.d)	IP Facilitation Centre under Haryana State Council for Science and Technology shall be strengthened with an objective to raise awareness of IPR among startups and assist them in protection and commercialization of innovative and emerging technologies. This cell will help startups in understanding different types of IPRs, filing and disposal of IP applications related to patents, trademarks, etc.	IP Facilitation Cell /Centre shall be setup by Hartron itself (in place of Science & Technology Department) in Innovation and Startup Hub of HARTRON at Gurugram in order to truly benefit the startups in facilitating the IPRs.
4.	IT /ITeS	Faculty Training (4.4.c)	The State Government aims to train and certify at-least 500 trainers annually for the next	This provision (initially under ambit of Skill Development & Industrial

#	Sector	Provision	Existing Provision	Amendment in Provisions/ Stakeholders
			5 years for IT/ITeS industry through certified courses. The courses at Training institute shall be aligned to the skill gap assessment report of NSDC and the new courses pertaining to training of trainers shall be introduced as per the industry need.	Training and Technical Education Department) shall now be implemented by Hartron-Skill Division(s) using the funds available in the Society for IT Initiative Funds for e-Governance.
5.	ESDM	Faculty Training (5.4.d)	The State Government aims to train and certify at-least 500 trainers annually for the next 5 years for ESDM industry through certified courses. The courses at Training institute shall be aligned to the skill gap assessment report of NSDC and the new courses pertaining to training of trainers shall be introduced as per the industry need.
6.	IT / ITeS	Relaxation in Inspection from various Departments for IT/ITeS units (4.2.h.1)	Department of Boilers: There shall be no inspection from Boilers inspector. Self-Certification / 3rd party inspection to be allowed.	Both the provisions pertaining to Relaxation in Inspection from Boiler Inspectorate stands withdrawn from IT & ESDM Policy-2017.
7.	ESDM	Relaxation in Inspection from various Departments for ESDM units (5.2.i)	Department of Boilers: There shall be no inspection from Boilers inspector. Self-Certification / 3rd party inspection to be allowed.
8.	IT / ITeS	Uninterrupted Power Supply (4.3.e)	IT/ITeS units shall be exempted from the purview of statutory power cuts. Further, for IT Parks and Townships, dedicated industrial feeders shall be provisioned.	The provisions of Power Department pertaining to Uninterrupted Power Supply stands withdrawn from IT & ESDM policy.
9.	ESDM	Uninterrupted Power Supply (5.3.b)	ESDM units shall be exempted from the purview of statutory power cuts. Further, for providing 24x7 quality power on earmarked land parcels for Electronics Industry, two dedicated industrial feeders

#	Sector	Provision	Existing Provision	Amendment in Provisions/ Stakeholders
			shall be provisioned.	