Repeal and savings	2	(1) On the commencement of this Act, the provisions of the Sarai Act, 1867 shall be deemed repealed to its application in the State of Uttarakhand and on such repeal, the provisions of that Act shall apply as if the provisions so repealed are the provisions of an Act. (2) Notwithstanding such repeal, any appointment, notification, rule, order, registration, licence, certificate, notice, decision, approval, authorisation or consent made, issued or given under such law shall, if in force at the commencement of this Act, continue to be in force and have effect as if it were made, issued or given under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

By Order,

ALOK KUMAR VERMA,
Principal Secretary.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES & REASONS

Sarai Act. 1867 (Act no. 22 of 1867) provides for regulation of public sarai and padavs. At first the above Act extended to the state areas which were for the governance of Lieutenant Governors of North Western provinces and for the government of Presidency of fort William in Bengal and it was extended for India Government by Law adaptation order, 1948.

The Government of Uttarakhand has enacted the Uttarakhand Tourism Development Board, 2001 and has promulgated the rules under it. As a result, the purpose of above Sarai Act 1867 has been defeated in perspective of Uttarakhand State. Besides, this the Government of India has also mentioned the above Act in the list of obsolete laws.

The contents of said Sarai Act, 1867 are under the law making jurisdiction of State. The Central Government has also directed to the State repeal the same.

2. The Proposed Bill is only a repeal Bill to fulfill the above objective.
