Important instructions for appearing in Common Entrance Exam (PGCET-2024) for the admission to M.Pharm. courses, Year 2024-25.

Due to the non-availability of category-wise qualifying cut-off marks/score of GPAT 2024 from the competent authorities, all the registered candidates, including those who appeared in GPAT 2024, are hereby advised to appear in PGCET 2024 scheduled to be held on 27th July, 2024.

However, it is important to note that candidates who appeared in GPAT 2024 will be categorized as GPAT qualified or Non-GPAT qualified based on the category-wise cut-off marks/score of GPAT 2024 as and when announced by the competent authorities. As per prevailing rules for admission to M. Pharm. courses duly notified by the Education Department, Government of Gujarat, a GPAT qualified candidate shall be given priority in the merit and admission allocation process.

Furthermore, as per prevailing rules, for GPAT qualified candidates, the merit shall be based on valid qualified marks/score in the GPAT examination. For Non-GPAT qualified candidates, the merit shall be based on the marks secured in the PGCET 2024 examination.

If a GPAT candidate is becoming eligible based on reserved category score/marks as reserved category candidate on announcement of qualifying cut off from the competent authorities; such candidates shall have to upload/produce the concerned valid category certificate issued by authorities empowered by Government of Gujarat as prescribed in admission rules to be considered as GPAT qualified candidate.
