Village : Sisi Tengani
District : Dhemaji
State: Assam.

Shri. Nibash Pegu, a specially abled boy of Dhemaji visited the Legal Services Camp organized by Assam State Legal Services Authority in association with DLSA, Dhemaji on 11.02.2018 and was enquiring about beneficial schemes of the govt. for persons suffering from physical disabilities.

Shri. Nibash Pegu was born on 3rd September, 2011. He was a student of Dibrugarh Mishing Higher Secondary School. In the year 2017, while preparing for HSLC examination, he had to engage himself as an unskilled labour in a Thermal Company situated at Tinsukia to mitigate his financial crisis.

While he was working, unfortunately due to his young age and lack of technical knowhow, the burning iron rod fell on his body and due to severe burn injuries, both his legs had to be amputated. He had also sustained severe injury on his right side of body and hand.

Legal aid was provided to him under Legal Services Camp held at Dhemaji on.

1. This year ( i.e., 2018) he appeared for HSLC exam and he was provided sick room and other facilities .
2. He was presented with a tri-cycle, by Sarva Shiksha Abhijan.
3. Process was initiated by the concern department to give him cash money under Deendayal Bidhyang Sahajya Asoni.

4. Initiative has been taken to enrol the father of victim Mr. Promut Pegu, as construction labour, so that the incumbent receive cash amount as scholarship.
