OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Sub: Contributory Health Service Scheme for Officers and staff of the DAE stationed at Bombay.

In Note (b) below Para 4.1 of the Contributory Health Service Scheme of the Department of Atomic Energy introduced vide U.M. No. 32/5/69-Adm. dated April 21, 1975, it has been laid down that parents who normally reside with the employee and whose total monthly income does not exceed the pay of the employee and is not more than Rs. 350/- p.m. are regarded as wholly dependent on the employee and are eligible for CHS benefits. It has been decided to raise the monetary limit of Rs. 350/- p.m. regarding monthly income of parents to Rs. 500/- p.m. with immediate effect for determining the eligibility of parents for CHS benefits under the Scheme.
