D.O. No. 2(13)/E.Coord/2020

28th October, 2021

Respected Madam/Sir,

I am enclosing Lok Sabha Secretariat's UO dt. 15.09.2020 regarding Matter raised under Rule 377 by Shri Lavu Sri Krishna Devarayalu, MP, relating to payment of dues to PSU's.

2. In this connection, I would like to inform that the Hon'ble MP had stated that the Central Government must take note of unpaid dues to PSUs which are estimated to add up to more than 7.5 lakh crores and releasing these amounts will itself act like a mini stimulus to the economy. He further requested that the details of these receivables be uploaded immediately on the GSTN portal, after authentication from different departments. Banks can be advised to use the greater liquidity provided to them by the RBI and provide loans upto 90% of receivables. The Government can also bear the interest on these at the same rates as bank charge until the bills are cleared. This will give PSUs much needed cash flow and further ramp up expenditure, thus kick starting the growth engine.

3. In view of the above, it is requested that appropriate action in the matter may be kindly taken including release of dues (if any) to the PSU's under the administrative control of your Ministry/Department.

With regards

Yours sincerely,

(Thanglemlian)

Re: Payment of dues to PSUs

LAVU SR KR SHNA DEVARAYALU (NARASAROPET) Today, the industry and economy is awaiting a stimulus package from the government to boost growth. Even before stimulus, the Central Government must take note of unpaid dues to PSUs like power gencos, toll concessionaires, and sugar mills. These dues are estimated to add up to more than 7.5 lakh crores and releasing these amounts will itself act like a mini-stimulus to the economy.

I request that the details of these receivables be uploaded immediately on the GSTN portal, after authentication from different departments. Banks can be advised to use the greater liquidity provided to them by the RBI and provide loans upto 90% of receivables. The Government can also bear the interest on these at the same rates as bank charges until the bills are cleared. This will give PSUs much needed cash flow and further ramp up expenditure, thus kickstarting the growth engine.

(end)

Yours faithfully,
Lavusri Krishna Devarayalu
Secretary, PSUs, Narasaraopet
