Minutes of Sixteenth Meeting of Project Sanctioning Committee (PSC) of the "Scheme for Action Research and Studies on Judicial Reforms" held on 22nd November 2021 in Department of Justice, Jaisalmer House, New Delhi via video conferencing

1. The 16th meeting of Project Sanctioning Committee (PSC) of the "Scheme for Action Research and Studies on Judicial Reforms" to consider fresh Research/Project Proposals held on 22nd November 2021 in Department of Justice, Jaisalmer House, New Delhi under the chairmanship of Secretary (Justice). The list of members and participants who attended the meeting is at Annexure.
2. The following actionable points emerged in the meeting:
  - All project proposals sanctioned under the Scheme for Action Research and Studies on Judicial Reforms must strictly adhere to the stipulated timelines. A new penalty clause has been included in all Action Research agreement(s) between the Agency and Department of Justice which would impose penalty in case of late submission.
  - All Implementing Agency and proposals selected under the Scheme for Action Research and Studies on Judicial Reforms are required to furnish regular /monthly interim progress reports which shall be examined and monitored by members of the PSC. During such progress presentations to be held quarterly every year, officers/subject experts from other Divisions may also be invited to solicit their inputs on the progress of the research activities. On the basis of the interim reports/ presentations, course additional suggestions may be made by the committee to make the study more effective.
  - Action Research studies that recommend legislative changes or modifications in the current framework in their respective final report would be expected to further handhold /extend their cooperation to, the concerned authority and Department of Justice for the implementation modalities of the suggested policy/legal amendments.
  - The following new proposals were presented before the PSC by the respective agencies, comments of PSC regarding the same are recorded as follows:

#	Agency	Proposal	Decision of 16 th PSC
1	University School of Law and Legal Studies, Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, New Delhi	Access to Justice through Plea Bargaining as an alternative model to traditional Criminal Trial in India: A case study of select Indian States	The Committee after deliberations approved the proposal in-principle, subject to condition(s), as follows:

			i. Budget amount shall be revised to not exceed more than Rs. 17 lakhs. The Committee observed that the proposed Agency also cover States with high number of plea bargaining cases, depict the data in such a manner so as to clearly identify various provisions of Indian Penal Code in which plea bargaining is being sought/used. South Asian countries may also be covered in the comparative study of common law countries to examine how plea bargaining is working in such jurisdictions.
2	Himachal Pradesh National Law University, Shimla	Role of Pro-bono Lawyering in Ensuring Access to Justice: A Study with Special Reference to State of Himachal Pradesh, Haryana, Punjab, Union Territory of Chandigarh and Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir	The Committee after deliberations approved the proposal in-principle, subject to condition(s), as follows: i. Budget amount shall be revised to not exceed more than Rs.14 lakhs. ii. The sample size of the empirical study must be large enough to arrive at conclusions and include representation from all stakeholders. iii. Identify the ways to rope in good lawyers and improve quality of the pro bono services provided. iv. Inclusion of law school students as respondents in the field study to identify issues and methods through which pro bono lawyering may be encouraged at the ground level and/or introduce relevant changes at the curriculum level in law schools. v. The Agency may engage with law firms and lawyers known for pro bono work to suggest ways for providing quality legal advice for the needy.

			vi. Concrete suggestions and a structure be suggested, which may act as a catalyst in improving Pro Bono lawyering.
3	Damodaram Sanjivayya National Law University, Visakhapatnam, Andhra Pradesh	A Study on Functioning of Commercial Courts in the Southern Region of India for Improving Ease of Doing Business	The Committee after deliberations approved the proposal in-principle, subject to condition(s), as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i.
