Besides, the same candidate will not be allowed to participate in the admission process for next three academic years.*

E. PROCEDURE OF ONLINE COUNSELLING

1. The candidate, who has completed the registration process and has been placed in the State Merit List, has to submit his/her choice of the Course (MBBS / BDS) and College in order of preference as per schedule, in the online site and lock the choice. If the choice is not locked due to some reason, it will be locked automatically when the time schedule is over.
2. College and course will be allotted on merit basis and the candidate can download the Allotment Letter.
3. Then, the candidate has to personally report at the office of Odisha Joint Entrance Examination (OJEE), at Gandamunda, Bhubaneswar on the notified date and time with all certificates, mark sheets, other required documents, in original and the bond duly prepared, for provisional admission. The candidate must pay the Admission Fees (depending upon the type of allotted College) either online or by demand draft. He/She will also exercise the option of Freeze / Float as per his/her choice. The candidate has to deposit the original College Leaving Certificate / School Leaving Certificate, as the case may be, and will be issued a Provisional Admission Letter.
4. The same process shall be repeated for the 2nd round of counselling.
5. At the end of 2nd round of counselling, the candidate must report before the authority of the institution allotted, within the stipulated date as notified and submit a copy of the provisional admission letter for completion of admission process at institutional level.
6. In case the candidate resigns after admission on or before the designated date for withdrawal / resignation, he/she shall get back 90% of admission fees deposited and 10% shall be retained as processing fees. If the candidate resigns after such date is over, for which a seat lapses, no fees will be refunded and the candidate shall be liable for a financial penalty as per the decision of the State Government.

7. If at the end of 2nd round of counselling, vacancy still exists due to any reason, upgradation / sliding among existing candidates, who have given willingness as to be in float option, will be processed.
8. If there is still some vacancy, the Chairman may notify a spot counselling. Physical presence of the candidate is a must for participating in the spot counselling and no authorization will be entertained. The candidates who have taken admission at the end of 2nd round counselling (All India / State) are not eligible to participate in spot counselling. Details about the schedule and guidelines of the spot round will be published in due time.
9. Any seat of private institutions, that remains unfilled after the spot round counselling, shall be surrendered to the respective institutions for counselling and admission from the NEET UG 2022 merit list.
10. Any change / additional information about the procedure and schedules of different rounds of counselling, choice locking, schedule of provisional admission & reporting etc. will be notified by the Chairman as and when required. Candidates are requested to be in constant touch with the website www.ojee.nic.in.

F. ALLOTMENT OF SEATS

1. Allotment will be made strictly on the basis of State Merit List prepared by OJEE and as per the choice of subject & college locked by the candidate.
2. If a candidate is allotted a seat in any round of counselling as per his / her 1st choice and takes admission for that seat, then he/she cannot participate in subsequent rounds of counselling. If allotment is not as per 1st choice, then he/she can decide whether or not to participate in subsequent round for improvement only. (Candidates can opt for Freeze or Float).

3. In the 2nd round, all the newly registered candidates who successfully get their documents verified, unallotted candidates of 1st round and candidates who were allotted seats in first round but not reported for admission, have to fill and lock fresh sets of choices within due date and time.
4. Candidates, who after taking admission in the first round, have exercised the option of freeze or float, are not required to do any additional choice filling for the second round and thus shall not be given a fresh option for filling choices. Candidates who have given 'freeze' as option, will retain their first-round allotments, while the allotments of the candidates who have given 'float' as their option may be upgraded or retained depending on their rank and the availability of seat as per choice.
5. If a candidate opts for 'float' after 1st round and is upgraded, then he/she has to accept the newly allotted seat and the seat allotted in the 1st round to him/her will be cancelled and will be allotted to other candidates as per merit and choice.
6. If a candidate, after being allotted a seat in a round, does not take provisional admission, then his/her allotment will stand cancelled and the seat will be treated as vacant for subsequent round. However, he/ she can participate in subsequent rounds.
7. Candidates, who have already taken admission in a particular reserved category, are not allowed to change to another category in the same college.

G. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

1. Candidates who have taken admission in All India Counselling and retained the seat after 2nd round All India counselling, are not allowed to surrender the seat and cannot take any admission in state counselling. Legal action shall be initiated against any candidate doing so.
2. After final counselling is over, OJEE will send the list of students admitted along with the admission fees and original documents to the concerned Institutes.

3. If any amount is to be refunded to the candidates as per rule, it will be done after final admission is over. Candidates have to apply to the Chairman, OJEE in plain paper along with the copy of provisional admission letter for such refund.
4. Institute level activity: After receiving the list of provisionally admitted candidates, the documents and fees, the authority of the institutions shall complete the final admission process. The admission is subject to medical fitness of candidate, who is to produce a Medical Fitness Certificate at the time of joining his / her allotted Institute.
5. If a candidate after taking final admission in the allotted seat, resigns due to any reason after the last date scheduled for withdrawal (resignation) and before the completion of the course, he/she has to pay a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees ten lakh) as a financial penalty. The original documents / CLC will not be returned to the candidate until the penalty is realized. In such case, the entire admission fees deposited will also not be refunded. For private institutions, the rules and regulations prevailing in the institutions in this regard at the time of admission shall be applicable.

H. FEE STRUCTURE

Candidates are to follow the fee structure available for respective colleges as approved by Government from time to time. The details will be available from respective institutions.
