(ix) "khoti nisbat land" means,—

(a) in the district of Ratnagiri, land which in a khoti village before the coming into force of this Act has reverted to the khot under section 10 of the Khoti Act ³[land includes also lands entered as khoti nisbat in the revenue records or the records of the khoti before the passing of the Khoti Act];

(b) in the district of Kolaba,—

(i) land in a khoti village which may have come into the possession of the khot by lapse for failure of heirs of a tenant or by forfeiture on the tenant's failure to pay rent or by the resignation of the tenant;

(ii) land which may have been entered at the original survey in the khoti nisbat padit khata and since brought into cultivation otherwise than at the knot's own expense ;

¹ These words were substituted for the words "Provincial Government" by Bom. 18 of 1950, s. 2 (ii).

² The word "khasgi" was deleted by Bom. 38 of 1953, s. 3 and Second Schedule.

³ This portion was added by Bom. 65 of 1953, s. 2. This amendment shall be deemed to have been made and came into force on the date on which Bom. 6 of 1950 came into force vide s. 3 of Bom. 65 of 1953).

(x) “ khoti village ” means a village, or a portion or share of a village to the extent to which a khot has any right or interest in such village, or portion or area thereof ;

(xi) “ permanent tenant ” means a holder of khoti land who has a permanent tenancy in such land ;

(xii) “ quasidharekari ” means a landholder of any of the denominations named in the first column of the Schedule to the Khoti Act.

(2) Any word or expression which is defined in the Code and not defined in this Act shall be deemed to have the meaning given to it by the Code.

(3) References in this Act to the provisions of the Khoti Act and the incidents of the khoti tenure shall, notwithstanding the repeal of the said Act and the abolition of the said tenure by this Act, be construed as references to the said provisions and incidents as they were in force immediately before this Act comes into force.

3. With effect from and on the date on which this Act comes into force,— Abolition of khoti tenure.

(1) the khoti tenure shall, wherever it prevails in the districts of Ratnagiri and Kolaba, be deemed to have been abolished ; and

(2) save as expressly provided by this Act, all the incidents of the said tenure shall be deemed to have been extinguished, notwithstanding any law, custom or usage or anything contained in any sanad, grant, kabulayat, lease, decree or order of any court or any other instrument.

4. (1) (a) In the case of khoti khasgi land, the khot ;

(b) in the case of a dhara land, the dharekari or quasidharekari ;

(c) in the case of land held by a permanent tenant, the permanent tenant;

(d) (i) in the case of khoti nisbat land, any tenant in possession of the land ;
and

shall be primarily liable to the ¹[State Government] for the payment of land revenue due in respect of such land held by him and shall be entitled to all the rights and shall be liable to all the obligations in respect of such land as an occupant under the Code or any other law for the time being in force :

Provided that in the district of Ratnagiri, in the case of a tenant (other than a permanent tenant) in the possession of khoti nisbat land, such tenant shall be entitled to the rights of an occupant on payment to the khot of the occupancy price equivalent to six multiples of the survey assessment fixed on the land :

Provided further that in the district of Kolaba, in the case of a tenant (other than a permanent tenant) in the possession of khoti nisbat land such tenant, and in the case of a khot in respect of khoti nisbat land in his actual possession of such khot, shall be entitled to the rights of an occupant on payment to the ¹[State Government] of the occupancy price equivalent to six multiples of the survey assessment fixed on the land.

(2) The occupancy price payable under this section shall be in addition to the amount of the commuted value payable by any person under section 5.

Khot, dharekari and tenants to be occupants.

(3) With effect from the date on which this Act comes into force, the land in respect of which any person is entitled to the rights of an occupant under sub-section (1), shall be free from the liability for the payment of khot's due in respect thereof, and all rights of a khot in his capacity as a khot in such land shall be deemed to have been extinguished.

(4) Nothing in sub-section (3) shall in any way affect the liability of any person to pay in respect of the land in his possession the amount of the khot's dues for the current year ending on the 31st day of July 1950 and the amount of the arrears of such dues for any previous year in respect of the said land.

Commutation
of khot's dues.

5. (1) A quasidharekari or a permanent tenant or a tenant of khoti nisbat land shall be liable to pay the commuted value of the khot's dues which were payable by him immediately before the coming into force of this Act in respect of the land held by him. Such commuted value shall be estimated and paid in the manner prescribed in sub-sections (2) and (3).

(2) The Mamlatdar shall give notice in the prescribed manner to the persons referred to in sub-section (1) and the khot, and after holding a formal enquiry shall determine the amount of the commuted value of the khot's dues :

Provided that the amount of commuted value shall not exceed three times the amount of the khot's dues, if payable in cash or three times the value of such dues if payable in kind, subject to the maximum of a sum equal to six times the survey assessment of the land, or if the khot's dues are payable in crop-share, three times the commuted value of such dues reckoned in the manner provided for in sub-section (3).

(3) In estimating the commuted value of the khot's dues payable in crop-share, a third crop-share shall be held as equivalent to two multiples of survey assessment fixed on the land and any other crop-share as a proportional multiple of such assessment :

Provided that the commuted value of the produce payable on any warkas land actually used for the purpose of rab manure in connection with rice cultivation shall be held as equivalent to one survey assessment of such land.

Occupancy
price or commutation
value recoverable as arrears of land
revenue.

6. The amount of the occupancy price payable under section 4 and the amount of the commutation value payable under section 5, if not deposited with the Mamlatdar or paid to the khot, in accordance with the directions within the period specified in the direction, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue. The amount deposited or recovered shall be paid to the khot or credited to ¹[Government] as the case may be.

Khot to hand over accounts
etc. to authorised Officer.

7. (1) Whenever an officer authorised by the ²[State Government] in this behalf so directs, a khot shall produce before him or such other officer as may be specified in the direction accounts and other records relating to the khoti village kept by him in the Ratnagiri district under the provisions of the Khoti Act and in the Kolaba district under the terms of the kabulyat.

(2) If a khot fails without reasonable cause to deliver any such accounts or records, he shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to Rs. 200. In the case of a continuing failure to deliver any such accounts or records, the khot shall be punished with an additional fine which may extend to Rs. 25 for every day during which such failure continues after conviction for the first such failure.

¹ These words were substituted for the words "the Crown" by Bom. 18 of 1950) s. 2 (ii).

² These words were substituted for the words "Provincial Government", ibid, s. 2 (iii).

8. For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that all uncultivated and waste lands in a khoti village not appropriated by any khot and not entered into the revenue or survey records as khoti khasgi before the date on which this Act comes into force and all other kinds of property referred to in section 37 of the Code, situate in a khoti village, which are not the property of the individuals or of any aggregate of persons legally capable of holding property and except in so far as any rights of such persons may be established in or over the same and except as may be otherwise provided in any law for the time being in force, are together with all rights in or over the same or appertaining thereto, the property of ¹[Government] and it shall be lawful to dispose of or set apart the same for the authority in the manner and for the purpose provided in section 37 or 38 of the Code, as the case may be.

Uncultivated and waste lands and all property of the nature specified in section 37 of the Code vests in ¹[Government].

9. From the date on which this Act comes into force a khot shall not be entitled to acquire any right in any khoti land by right of reversion.

Extinction of khot's right of reversion.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section, the right of reversion shall mean a right by which a khot was entitled to acquire lands held by a privileged occupant under section 10 of the Khoti Act or dhara or khoti nisbat land in the district of Kolaba according to the custom of the tenure.

XVI of 1927. 10. The rights to trees specially reserved under the Indian Forest Act, 1927, or any other law for the time being in force except those the ownership of which has been transferred by ¹[Government] under any contract, grant or law for the time being in force shall vest in ¹[Government].

Right to trees.

11. Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code shall apply to lands in a khoti village.

Application of the Code to lands in khoti village.

12. (1) If a khot or any other person is aggrieved by any of the provisions of this Act as extinguishing or modifying any of his rights in land and if such person proves that such extinguishment or modification amounts to transference to public ownership of any land or any right in or over such land, such person may apply to the Collector for compensation.

Method of compensation for the extinguishment or modification of any rights in land.

(2) Such application shall be made in the form prescribed by rules made under this Act ²[on or before the 31st day of March 1952] ³[and in the case of compensation for extinguishment of any right to a share in the revenue of a forest, on or before the 31st day of March 1964].

(3) The Collector shall after holding a formal inquiry in the manner provided by the Code award such compensation as he deems reasonable and adequate :

Provided that—

(a) the amount of compensation for the extinguishment of the right of reversion in land in a khoti village in the district of Ratnagiri shall not exceed the amount calculated at the rate of Rs. 2 per 100 acres of such land ;

(b) the amount of compensation for the extinguishment of any right to appropriate any uncultivated and waste lands not appropriated by any khot and not entered in the revenue or survey records as khoti khasgi immediately before the 1st day of August 1949, shall not exceed the amount calculated at the rate of Rs. 5 per 100 acres of such land :

¹ These words were substituted for the words “the Crown” by Bom. 18 of 1950, s. 2 (ii).

² These words, figures and letters were substituted for the words “within six months from the date on which this Act comes into force” by Bom. 3 of 1952, s. 2, Schedule.

³ These words, letters and figures were inserted by Mah. 43 of 1963, s. 2.

Provided further that in the case of the extinguishment or modification of any other right of a khot or any right of any other person the Collector shall be guided by the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 23 and section 24 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 : 1 of 1894.

Provided also that if any question arises whether any land is dhara, khoti khasgi or khoti nisbat or is held by a permanent tenant or other tenant, the Collector shall after holding a formal inquiry in the manner provided by the Code decide the question.

¹[(3A) (i) Where the officer making an award under sub-section (3) is a Collector under this Act but not a Collector appointed under section 8 of the Code and the amount of such award exceeds five thousand rupees, then the award shall not be made without the previous approval of—

(a) the Collector appointed under section 8 of the Code, if the amount of the award does not exceed twenty-five thousand rupees, or

(b) the Commissioner, if the amount of the award exceeds twenty-five thousand rupees but does not exceed one lakh of rupees, or
