CHAPTER IV.

DUTIES OF TREE AUTHORITY.

Duties of Tree Authority. 7. Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant Act or in any other law for the time being in force, and subject to any special or general directions given by the State Government, the Tree Authority shall be responsible for—

- (a) ¹[protection and preservation] of all trees in all lands within its jurisdiction ;
- (b) ²[carrying out a census of the existing trees in all lands within its jurisdiction, ³[once before December 1996 and thereafter once in every five years] ;
- (c) prescribing standards specifying the number and types of trees which each plot of land shall have and which shall be planted therein ;
- (d) development and maintenance of nurseries for the supply of seeds, sapplings and trees to persons who desire to plant new trees or to replace trees which have been felled with the previous permission of the Tree Officer ⁴[or involuntarily uprooted] ;
- (e) transplanting of trees necessitated by construction of new roads or widening or existing roads or for safeguarding danger to life or property ;
- ⁵(f) organisation of flower, fruit, vegetable, tree or plant shows ⁶[at least once a year] and assisting private and public institutions in organising such shows, and creation of consciousness of importance of trees and vegetation to the human welfare ;
- (g) grant of advice and technical assistance to any person seeking such advice or assistance in any matter connected with ⁷[planting, protection and preservation] of trees ;
- (h) planting and maintaining such number of trees as it considers necessary, according to the prescribed standards, ⁸[along the roads,] in public parks and gardens and on banks of rivers or takes or ⁹[sea shores, on hills, open spaces or public places];
- (i) undertaking any other schemes or measures for achieving the objects of this Act.

CHAPTER V.

RESTRICTIONS ON FELLING OF TREES AND LIABILITY FOR PLANTING AND PRESERVATION OF TREES.

Restrictions on felling of trees. 8. (1) On and after the date on which this Act is brought into force in any urban area, notwithstanding any custom, usage, contract or law for the time being in force, no person shall fell any tree or cause any tree to be felled in any land, whether of his ownership or otherwise, situated within that urban area, except with the previous permission of the Tree Officer.

1 These words were substituted for the words "preservation" by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 8(a).
2 Clause (b) was substituted for the original by Mah. 3 of 1977, s. 3(a).
3 These words and figures were substituted for the words "from time to time, as may be directed by the State Government" by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 8(b).
4 These words were added, ibid., s. 8(c).
5 Clause (f) was substituted for the original by Mah. 3 of 1977, s. 3(b).
6 These words were inserted by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 8(d).
7 These words were substituted for the words "planting and preservation", ibid., s. 8(e).
8 These words were substituted for the words "on roads", ibid., s. 8(f).
9 These words were substituted for the words "sea shores" by Mah. 3 of 1977, s. 3(c).

(2) If ¹[any person, including an officer of the urban local authority or an officer of the State Government or the Central Government, proposes] to fell a tree, he shall apply in writing to the ²[Tree Authority] for permission in that behalf. The application shall be accompanied by ³[the description of the tree and] a site plan, indicating the position of the tree required to be felled and the reasons therefor.

⁴[(3) (a) On receipt of such application, the Tree Authority shall cause the Tree Officer to personally inspect the tree and hold enquiry and submit a report to the Tree Authority within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of such application. Adequate public notice shall be given by the Tree Officer by advertising in local newspapers as well as by affixing a notice on a conspicuous part of the tree that is required to be felled. Thereafter, the Tree Authority may give permission with or without conditions or refuse it, within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of the application. However, no tree shall be felled until fifteen days after such permission is given :

Provided that, no such permission shall be refused if, in the opinion of the Tree Authority, the tree is dead, or diseased or wind-fallen, or it constitutes a danger to life or property, or obstructs traffic; and if any objection is received against such permission, the matter shall be placed before the Tree Authority for reconsideration, and a decision shall be taken within two weeks after giving a hearing to the person who has raised the objection.

(b) A report of permissions granted by the Tree Authority for felling trees shall be submitted at least once in six months to the concerned urban local authority in whose jurisdiction the Tree Authority is functioning.]

⁵[(4) If the Tree Authority fails to inform the applicant of its decision within sixty days, from the date of the receipt of the application by it, or if the receipt of the application has been acknowledged by it within this period, from the date of acknowledgement of the receipt of the application, the permission applied for shall be deemed to have been granted.]

(5) Where permission to fell a tree is granted ⁶[Tree Authority] may grant it subject to the condition that the applicant shall plant another tree of the same or other ⁷[suitable local species] on the same site or other suitable place within thirty days from the date the tree is felled, or such extended time as the Tree Officer may allow in this behalf.

9. (1) If, in the opinion of the Tree Officer, the number of trees in any land is not adequate according to the standards prescribed under paragraph (c) of section 7, the Tree Officer may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the owner or occupier of the land of being heard, by order require him to plant such trees or additional trees and at such places in the land as may be specified in the order.

Power to require planting of adequate number of trees.

(2) When an order is made under sub-section (1), the owner or occupier of the land shall comply with the order within ninety days from the receipt thereof.

10. (1) Where any tree is fallen or destroyed by wind, fire, lightening or torrential rain, the Tree Officer may, suo motu or on information given to him, after holding such inquiry as he deems fit and giving a reasonable opportunity to the owner or occupier of the land where the tree existed, by order, require such owner or occupier ⁸[to plant one or more trees of the local species] in place of the tree so fallen or destroyed of the same or ⁹[other local species] at the same or other suitable place as may be specified in the order.

Power to require planting of a tree in place of fallen or destroyed tree.

1 These words were substituted for the words "any person wishes" by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 9(a)(i).

2 These words were substituted for the words "Tree Officer", ibid., s. 9(a) (ii).

3 These words were inserted, ibid., s. 9(a) (iii).

4 Sub-section (3) was substituted for the original, ibid., s. 9(b).

5 Sub-section (4) was substituted for the original, ibid., s. 9(c).

6 These words were substituted for the words "Tree Officer", ibid., s. 9(d)(i).

7 These words were substituted for the words "suitable species", ibid., s. 9(d)(ii).

8 These words were substituted for the words "to plant a tree", ibid., s. 10(a).

9 These words were substituted for the words "other species", ibid., s. 10(b).

(2) Where an order is made under sub-section (1), the owner or occupier of the land shall comply with the order within ninety days from the receipt thereof.

Responsibility for preservation of trees⁶ [and power to take deposit for proper compliance]. 11. ¹[(1)] Where an order is made ²* * * under sections 8, 9 or 10 subject to the provisions of section 12, it shall be the duty of the owner or occupier of the land who is directed to plant a tree to see that the tree grows properly ³[and is well preserved and shall give a report to the Tree Officer once in six months about the conditions of such tree or trees for a period of three years]. It shall also be the duty of such owner or occupier to preserve all other trees existing on the land on the date of coming into force of this Act in the urban area in which the land is situated.

⁴[(2) Where an order is made under sections 8, 9 or 10, the Tree Officer may require the owner or, as the case may be, the occupier, of the land to deposit with him such sum as he may specify in this behalf, as security for ensuring proper compliance with the order made ⁵[under sections 8, 9 or 10]. The sum to be deposited shall not exceed such amount as may be prescribed.]

Adoption of trees. 12. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, the Tree Authority may, subject to such terms and conditions as it may specify in that behalf, allow by a written permission any individual, body corporate or institution to adopt any tree for such period as may be specified in the permission, and during such period the said individual, body corporate or institution shall be responsible for the maintenance and preservation of the said tree.

(2) Where any order is made ⁷* * * under sections 8, 9 and 10, in lieu of planting a new tree, the Tree Authority may by written permission allow the person concerned to adopt a tree specified by it and then the person shall be responsible for the maintenance and preservation of that tree for such period as may be specified ⁸[by the Tree Authority] :

⁹[Provided that, the trees to be adopted shall be less than one year old and their number shall not be less than the number of trees, which the person concerned could have been required to plant under sub-section (5) of section 8, sub-section (1) of section 9 or sub-section (1) of section 10, as the case may be.]

¹⁵[Forfeiture of deposit and recovery] of expenditure on failure to comply with orders for planting trees. 13. Where the owner or occupier of any land fails to comply with any order made ¹⁰[under sections 8, 9 or 10, the Tree Authority or the Tree Officers, as the case may be, may,] after giving a reasonable opportunity to such owner or occupier of being heard ¹¹[forfeit the deposit, in full or in part to the Tree Authority] and without prejudice to any other action which may be taken against the defaulter under this Act, take the necessary action ¹²* * * and recover the expenditure incurred therefor from the owner or the occupier, as the case may be. ¹³[For the purpose of recovery of the amount of such expenditure, the Tree Authority ¹⁴[or the Tree Officer] shall have the same powers as are available to the urban local authority for the purpose of recovery of arrears of a property tax or where such tax is not levied, for the purpose of recovery of arrears of betterment charges or other dues levied by the urban local authority under the relevant Act.]

14 These words were inserted by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 13(d).

15 These words were substituted for the words "Recovery", ibid., s. 13(e).

14. (1) Where any decision is given or order is made under section ¹* * * 9 or Appeals. 10 by the Tree Officer, an appeal shall lie to the Tree Authority.

(2) The appeal shall be made within fifteen days from the date the decision is communicated to, or the order is received by, the owner or occupier of the land and shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 50.

(3) The Tree Authority shall, as far as possible, decide the appeal within sixty days from the date of its receipt, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant of being heard. The decision of the Tree Authority shall be final, and shall not be questioned in any Court of Law :

Provided that, where an appeal is made in time, the period for compliance, specified in the order of the Tree Officer appealed against, shall be reckoned from the date on which the appeal is decided against the appellant and where the appeal is allowed, the fee of Rs. 50 paid with the appeal shall be refunded to the appellant.

CHAPTER VI.

FINANCE, BUDGET AND ACCOUNTS.

15. Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law or any other law for the time being in force, the urban local authority shall create a separate fund to be called the Tree Authority Fund, to which shall be credited all moneys received by the Tree Authority including—

²[(a) a contribution by the urban local authority from its income from such taxes as may be prescribed or when such taxes are not levied by the Authority, from its income from the betterment charges, if any, levied by it under the relevant Act or from the income derived by it from the sale of plots made by it under the relevant Act. The rates of the contribution shall be such as may be specified by the State Government, from time to time, by a general or special order;]

(b) all moneys raised by levy of a cess under Chapter VII ;

(c) any grants made by the State Government to the Tree Authority ;

(d) any moneys received by the Tree Authority as donations from any individuals, or corporate bodies or institutions ;

³[(e) any other money received under the Act :

Provided that, if the total receipts of the Tree Authority from all the sources specified above are less than one half per cent. of the total receipts of the urban local authority, then, the urban local authority shall credit the deficit to the Tree Authority Fund at the end of each financial year.]

16. Every Tree Authority shall, on or before the 31st day of October every year, Budget. prepare in such form as the urban local authority may prescribe, an annual budget estimate in respect of the ensuing financial year of the estimated income and expenditure of the Tree Authority and shall, notwithstanding anything contained, in the relevant law, submit it to the urban local authority for approval and inclusion in the budget estimate of that authority.

17. The procedure applicable under the relevant law for maintenance and audit of Accounts and audit. accounts of the urban local authority shall mutatis mutandis apply to the maintenance and audit of the accounts of every Tree Authority.

1 The figure "8" was deleted by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 14.

2 Clause (a) was substituted for the original by Mah. 3 of 1977, s. 8.

3 Clause (e) was added by Mah. 7 of 1996, s. 15.

CHAPTER VII.

TREE CESS.

Levy and collection of
Tree cess.

18. (1) Where under the relevant law an urban local authority is levying a property tax on buildings and lands, it shall be lawful for such authority, notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law, upon a request by the Tree Authority, to levy, for the purposes of this Act, an additional tax to be called “the Tree Cess” on the buildings and lands, at such rate not exceeding one per cent. of the rateable value of the property as the said authority may determine.

¹[(1A) Where under the relevant Act, an urban local authority is levying a property tax on buildings and lands on the Capital value thereof, the Trees Cess leviable under sub-section (1) shall be levied at such rate, not exceeding 0.5 per cent. of the capital value of such building and lands, as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify :

Provided that, the Tree Cess so levied under this section shall not exceed,—

- (i) in respect of buildings used for residential premises, two times, and
- (ii) in respect of buildings used for non-residential premises, three times, the amount of Tree Cess leviable in respect thereof in the year immediately preceding such date of adoption of capital value as the basis for assessment of property tax :

Provided further that, for the period of five years commencing from the levy of capital value as the basis for assessment of property tax, the Tree Cess leviable in respect of residential building or tenements having carpet area of 46.45 sq. metres (500 sq. feet) or less, shall not exceed the amount of Tree Cess levied and payable in the year immediately preceding the year of such adoption of capital value as the basis.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, after the Urban local authority adopts the capital value as the basis for levy of property tax, the Tree Cess, in respect of any taxable building shall be revised after every five years and on each such revision, such amount of Tree Cess, shall not in any case exceed the forty per cent. of the amount of the Tree Cess levied and payable in the year immediately preceding the year of the revision.

²[(1B) No Tree Cess under sub-section (1) or (1A) shall be leviable in respect of the buildings and lands or parts thereof vesting in, or in the occupation of, any consul de carriers, whether called as a consul general, consul, vice-consul, consular agent, pro-consul or by any other name of a foreign State recognised as such by the Government of India, or of any members (not being citizens of India) of staff of such officials, and such buildings and lands or parts thereof which are used or intended to be used for any purpose other than for the purpose of profit.

(1C) In respect of the buildings and lands which are liable to be assessed for the first time on or after the 1st April 2010, it shall be lawful for the urban local authority to issue a provisional bill for the payment of Tree Cess, until the final capital value of such buildings and lands is determined under the relevant law, as if such buildings and lands are assessed as per the rateable value worked out on the basis of the prescribed letting rates by the urban local authority, in respect of the official year 2009-2010. On the determination of capital value thereof, the amount of such cess shall be determined under sub-section (1A) and accordingly it shall be lawful for the authority to issue the final bill in respect of the years for which the capital value is determined.]

(2) The procedure for levy and collection of the property tax prescribed under the relevant Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to the levy and collection of the cess imposed under ³[sub-sections (1), (1A) or (1C), as the case may be.]

1 Sub-section (1A) was inserted by Mah. 10 of 2010, s. 114.

2 Sub-sections (1B) and (1C) were inserted by Mah. 6 of 2012, s. 11(a)

3 These words, brackets, figures and letters were substituted for the words, brackets, figures and letter “sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, under sub-section (1A),” ibid., s. 11(b).

CHAPTER VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

19. Notwithstanding anything contained in the relevant law or any other law for the time being in force,—

(a) any authority or officer of the urban local authority, who is empowered to give any permission for development of land, shall not give such permission, except with the approval of and subject to the conditions, if any, imposed by the Tree Officer in regard to the preservation or plantation of trees on such land ;

(b) no completion or occupation certificate in respect of any building shall be issued under the relevant law unless the authority competent to issue such certificate is satisfied that the conditions subject to which permission for development of the land as aforesaid was given have been complied with.

20. The Tree Authority may, from time to time, give to the Tree Officer and other Officers and servants subordinate to him such general or special directions as it thinks fit as to the policy to be followed by them in the discharge of their functions and for carrying out effectively the purposes of this Act, and such officers and servants shall comply with such directions.

20B. (1) ²[It] shall be lawful for the Tree Officer or any officer authorised by him or by the Tree Authority in this behalf, to enter, with such assistants as he may deem necessary, upon any public premises for the purposes of proper enforcement of this Act and for that purpose carry out such inspection and take such steps and use such force as may be expedient.
