[Published in the Maharashtra Government Gazette (Extraordinary) of December 28, 1988.]

(ii) in respect of an Upa-Lokayukta shall be held by a person appointed by the Governor being a person who is or has been a Judge of the Supreme Court or is or has been a Judge of a High Court.

(2) The person appointed under the proviso to sub-section (1) shall submit the report of his inquiry to the Governor who shall, as soon as may be, cause it to be laid before each House of the State Legislature.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Governor shall not remove the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta unless an address by each House of the State Legislature supported by a majority of the total membership of that House and a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of that House present and voting, has been presented to the Governor in the same session for such removal.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken, by or with the general or specific approval or,--

(i) a Minister or a Secretary; or

(ii) any public servant referred to in sub-clause (iii) of clause (k) of section 2; or

(iii) any other public servant being a public servant of a class or sub-class of public servants notified by the State Government in consultation with the Lokayukta in this behalf.

Matters which may be investigated by Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta.

in any case where a complaint involving a grievance or an allegation is made in respect of such action or such action can be or could have been, in the opinion of the Lokayukta, the subject of a grievance or an allegation.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an Upa-Lokayukta may investigate any action which is taken by, or with the general or specific approval of any public servant not being a Minister, Secretary or other public servant referred to in sub-section (1) in any case where a complaint involving a grievance or an allegation is made in respect of such action or such action can be or could have been, in the opinion of the Upa-Lokayukta, the subject of a grievance or an allegation.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the Lokayukta may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, investigate any action which may be investigated by an Upa-Lokayukata under that sub-section whether or not a complaint has been made to the Lokayukta in respect of such action.

(4) Where two or more Upa-Lokayuktas are appointed under this Act, the Lokayukta may, by general or special order, assign to each of them matters which may be investigated by them under this Act :

Provided that, no investigation made by an Upa-Lokayukta under this Act and no action taken or thing done by him in respect of such investigation shall be open to question on the ground only that such investigation relates to a matter which is not assigned to him by such order.

8. (1) Except as hereinafter provided, the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta shall not conduct any investigation under this Act in the case of a complaint involving a grievance in respect of any action,--

Matters not subject to investigation.

(a) if such action relates to any matter specified in the Third Schedule; or

(b) if the complainant has or had any remedy by way of proceedings before any tribunal or court of law :

Provided that, the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta may conduct an investigation notwithstanding that the complainant had or has such a remedy if the Lokayukata or, as the case may be, the Upa-Lokayukta is satisfied that such person could not or cannot, for sufficient cause, have recourse to such remedy.

(2) The Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta shall not investigate any action, ---

(a) in respect of which a formal and public inquiry has been ordered under the public Servants (Inquiries) Act, 1850; or 37 of 1850.

(b) in respect of a matter which has been referred for inquiry under the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952. *or 60 of 1952.

(3) The Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta shall not investigate any complaint involving a grievance against a public servant referred to in sub-clause (iv) of clause (k) of section 2.

(4) The Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta shall not investigate any complaint which is excluded from his jurisdiction by virtue of a notification issued under section 18.

(5) The Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta shall not investigate,---

(a) any complaint involving a grievance, if the complaint is made after the expiry of twelve months from the date on which the action complained against becomes known to the complainant ;

(b) any complaint involving an allegation, if the complaint is made after the expiry of three years from the date on which the action complained against is alleged to have taken place :

Provided that, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may entertain a complaint referred to in clause (a), if the complainant satisfies him that he had sufficient cause for not making the complaint within the period specified in that clause.

(6) In the case of any complaint involving a grievance, nothing in this Act, shall be construed as empowering the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta to question any administrative action involving the exercise of a discretion except where he is satisfied that the elements involved in the exercise of the discretion are absent to such an extent that the discretion can prima facie be regarded as having been improperly exercised.

Provisions relating to complaints.

9. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a complaint may be made under this Act, to the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta,---

(a) in the case of a grievance, by the person aggrieved ;

(b) in the case of an allegation, by any person other than a public servant :

Provided that, where the person aggrieved is dead or is for any reason unable to act for himself, the complaint may be made by any person who in law represents his estate or, as the case may be, by any person who is authorised by him in this behalf.

(2) Every complaint shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by such affidavits as may be prescribed.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment, any letter written to the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta by a person in police custody or in a gaol or in any asylum or other place for insane persons, shall be forwarded to the addressee unopened and without delay by the police officer or other person in charge of such gaol, asylum or other place and the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, may if satisfied that it is necessary so to do, treat such letter as a complaint made in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

[Published in the Maharashtra Government Gazette (Extraordinary) of April 24, 1989.]

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10 or any other provision of this Act, every person who wilfully or maliciously makes any false complaint under this Act, shall on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term, which this Act, shall on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term. which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine. No Court shall take cognizance of such offence except with the previous sanction of the Lokayukta.

10. (1) Where the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta proposes (after making such preliminary inquiry as he deems fit) to conduct any investigation under this Act, Procedure in respect of investigations.

(a) shall forward a copy of the complaint or the case of any investigation which he proposes to conduct on his own motion, a statement setting out the grounds therefore, to the public servant concerned and the competent authority concerned ;

(b) shall afford to the public servant concerned an opportunity to offer his comments on such complaint or statement ; and

(c) may make such orders as to the safe custody of documents relevant to the investigation, as he deems fit.

(2) Every such investigation shall be conducted in private and in particular, the identity of the complainant and of the public servant affected by the investigation shall not be disclosed to the public or the press whether before, during or after the investigation :

Provided that, the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta may conduct any investigation relating to a matter of definite public importance in public, if he, for reasons to be recorded in writing, thinks fit to do so.

(3) Save as aforesaid the procedure for conducting any such investigation shall be such as the Lokayukta or, as the case may be, the Upa-Lokayukta considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) The Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta may, in his discretion, refuse to investigate or cases to investigate any complaint involving a grievance or an allegation if in his opinion,---

(a) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, or is not made in good faith ;

(b) there are no sufficient grounds for investigation or, as the case may be, for continuing the investigation ;or

(c) other remedies are available to the complainant and in the circumstances of the case it would be more proper for the complainant to avail of such remedies.

(5) In any case where the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta decides not to entertain a complaint or to discontinue any investigation in respect of a complaint, he shall record his reasons therefore and communicate the same to the complainant and the public servant concerned.

(6) The conduct of an investigation under this Act in respect of any action shall not affect such action, or any power or duty of any public servant to take further action with respect to any matter subject to the investigation.

11. (1) subject to the provisions of this section, for the purpose of any investigation (including the preliminary inquiry if any, before such investigation) under this Act the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta may require any public servant or any other person who in his opinion is able to furnish information or produce documents relevant to the investigation to furnish any such information or produce any such document. ### CHAPTER IV

INVESTIGATION AND PROCEDURE

(See section 10 )

15. Manner of service of notice .--A notice under rule 4 of the Maharashtra Lokayukta Upa-Lokayuktas (Competent Authorities) Rules, 1973, shall be served upon the public servant concerned by registered post acknowledgement due or by personal delivery after obtaining a receipt from him or through the Officer to whom the public servant is subordinate in service.

16. Manner of reply.--Such public servant shall send his reply and his comments within the time specified or granted. The reply shall be accompanied by an affidavit and also by a copy or copies of the document or documents, if any, on which the public servant desires to reply for his defence.

17. Failure to reply.--- If such public servant fails to appear personally to file his reply and to offer his comments or fails to file his reply and to offer his comments within time specified or granted, the complaint may be heard and decided in his absence.

18. Power to condone delay.--The Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, may for sufficient cause shown allow the public servant concerned to file his reply and to offer his comments after the time specified or granted.

19. Safe custody of documents etc.--If any party to the investigation files a document or documents in his support or if any file is called for from a public record and if the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, considers it necessary in the interests of safety or security he may specially direct any officer subordinate to him to take the document or file in his charge and safe custody, subject to further orders in that behalf.

20. Appearance of Advocates, Pleaders etc.--Ordinarily, no Advocate Pleader Muktyar or other legal representative will be allowed to appear before the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta in the investigations under this Act :

Provided that Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may in specific cases allow the parties to appear through any such person.

21. Notice of hearing.---(1) During course of conducting an investigation the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may serve both parties with notice in the form prescribed in Schedule D to appear before him for a hearing, with or without witnesses, or for any other purpose.

(2) Such notice may be sent through the Police Station of the area in which the complainant or public servant complained against resides or through the Head of the Department in which the public servant is serving or by registered post acknowledgement due or in any other manner which the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, thinks fit.

22. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses.---During the course of hearing, each party shall have a right to examine himself and his witnesses and to cross-examine the opposite party and the witnesses examined by that party :

Provided that, if any cross-examination is irrelevant or is unduly lengthy or is otherwise improper, the Lokayukta or an Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, may disallow it or any part of it.

23. Administering oath and recording of evidence.---(1) The Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, or an officer duly empowered by the Lokayukta may administer oath to every person examined during any investigation under the Act.

(2) The Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be may record in English the substance of the evidence given by each person examined by him.

24. Interpreters.---(1) The Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta may in special case appoint an interpreter or interpreters, who shall be paid remuneration at such rate as may be fixed by the Lokayukta.

(2) The interpreter shall take oath in the following form :--

do swear in the name of God

I -----that I will well and truly interpret and explain

Solemnly affirm

all questions put and evidence given by witnesses and translate correctly and accurately all documents given to me for translation.

25. Witness summons and process.--If either party wants his witnesses to be summoned he shall pay in the form of Court fee stamps process fee at the rate of 30 paise per witness and he shall deposit in the office subsistence allowance at the rate prescribed in the Criminal Manual and obtain a receipt as prescribed by rule 27 :

Provided that, the person named in paragraph 3 of Chapter II of the Criminal Manual shall be exempted from payment of process fee.

26. Witness summons and manner of service.---Save as otherwise provided or in the absence of any other specific order in that behalf, summons to witnesses may be issued in the form [prescribed in Schedule 'E' and may be served through the Police Station within whose jurisdiction the witness resides.

CHAPTER V
ACCOUNTS

27. Issue of receipt.--A party depositing subsistence allowance shall be given a receipt in form 'A' as shown in the Civil Manual.

28. 'G' Register.-- Such amount shall be entered in 'G' Register as prescribed in the Civil Manual.

29. 'H' Register.-- All amount paid to a witness or witnesses or repaid to the party concerned, shall be entered in a register described as 'H' Register in the Civil Manual.

30. Cash Book.-- The daily total of 'G' and 'H' Register shall be carried to the daily cash book.

31. Balance over one year.-- Balance unclaimed within one year from the close of the case shall after the close of March next year be credited to Government.

CHAPTER VI
CLOSURE OF A CASE
(See section 10)

32. Procedure after closure of case under section 10.--If the Lokayukta or Upa-lokayukta refuse to investigate or ceases to investigate any complaint for reasons stated Sub-section (4) of Section 10, the finding shall be communicated to the complainant and, if necessary to the public servant concerned, in the form prescribed in Schedule 'F'

CHAPTER VII
FURNISHING OF INFORMATION AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, ETC.
(See section 11)

33. Furnishing of information and production of documents.--(1) Where the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta require any public servant or any other person to furnish information or to produce documents under section 11 (1) the Registrar shall issue a notice in the form prescribed in Schedule 'G' to the office or authority in whose custody that document or file would ordinarily be.

(2) If the file is not produced or sent within one month from the date of receipt of the notice by the officer or authority concerned, the Registrar shall write to the Head of the Department concerned and wait for 15 days thereafter.

(3) If the file is not received within 15 days after the Registrar's letter referred to in sub-rule (2), the complaint shall be put up before the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta as the case may be, for disposal.

34. Consequences of refusal of party to produce documents.--Where any party to an investigation before the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, without lawful excuse, refuses to produce a document or documents in his custody or power, the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta as the case may be, proceed to decide the matter against him in the absence of those documents and may also strike off the complaint or defence as the case may be; or may make such other orders as he thinks fit.

CHAPTER VIII

GENERAL POWERS

[See section 11(2) (f) and 20 (2)]

35. Interim stay etc.--If during the course of an inquiry or investigation under this Act, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta is prima facie satisfied that the case is likely to result in an action being taken under section 12(1) or 12(3), he may direct that the further implementation or enforcement of the order or action-complained against be stayed and may direct the status quo as on the date of the application to be maintained on such terms and conditions, if any, as he thinks fit.

CHAPTER IX

MISCELLANEOUS

Time limit for certificate under section 11.—(1) The Certificate as required by sub-section (5) of section 11 shall be issued by the Chief Secretary, within a period of sixty days from the date on which the information is required to be furnished, the question is required to be answered or the documents is required to be produced :

provided that, this period may be extended by the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, for such period as he thinks fit.

(2) If the certificate is not issued during this period, it shall be deemed that for the purposes of the investigation on such objection exists.

37. Information under section 12 (5) when case is closed.—When a case is closed, the information to be given to the complainant, to the public servant concerned and to the competent authority concerned according to sub-section (5) of section 12, shall subject to the specific written order of the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, be given in the form prescribed in Schedule 'H'.

38. Information under section 12 (5) when a report is made to the Governor.—When a special report is made to the Governor under sub-section (5) of section 12, the information to be given to the complainant regarding such report shall, subject to the specific written order of the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta be given in the form prescribed in Schedule 'I'.

39. Rehearing of complaint.—If the case is closed for default of complainant or if it is ordered to be filed or if it is decided ex parte against the public servant, the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta as the case may be if sufficient cause is shown to him, may restore the complaint to file and may re-open the case and re-hear it on merits.

40. General Powers during inquiry.—(1) while conducting a preliminary inquiry or an investigation under this Act, the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta as the case may be, shall have all the powers of a Civil Court as contained in Order XI, rules 12, 13, 14 and 21, Order XII, rule 3-A, Order XIII, rule 10, Order XVI, rules 1 to 7, 10, 11, 12 regarding imposition of fine only, 14, 15 and 16, in the First Schedule to the code, with such variations as circumstances may require.

(2) Any amount of the fine imposed as per Order XVI rule 12, aforesaid, shall be recovered from the party as an arrear of land revenue.

41. Certified copy.—No person shall be entitled to a certified copy of any record of the proceeding before the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta as the case may be :

Provided that, subject to the provisions of sections 10 (2) and 14 (1), the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta, may permit a certified copy to be granted of the final order passed in a case or of such part thereof as he may deem fit.

42. Destruction of record.—Subject to the general or special order issued by the Lokayukta in this behalf the record of a case may be destroyed after a period of three years from the date of close of the case. For example if a case is closed on the 20th February 1973, the record should be destroyed after 1976 :

Provided that, the original complaint and the final order passed or the finding given shall be preserved permanently.

43. Attendance of Witnesses.—(1) If while making any preliminary inquiry or while conducting any investigation under the Act, or at any time, the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, on his own motion examines any person as a witness, whether as witness to give evidence, or to produce any document in his possession, and if such person is in any private service, such person shall obtain from the office of the Lokayukta a certificate that he has attended the office of Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta for the purpose of giving evidence. The certificate shall state the date of his appearance and the period for which he had been detained;

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, “Private service” means any employment other than that of a public servant.

(2) If the person produces such a certificate before his employer, he shall be deemed to have been on duty on such date or dates and he shall not be marked absent from duty on such date or dates or be penalised in any manner.

(3) If such person is a public servant to whom Civil Services Rules or Regulations apply, he shall obtain a similar certificate that he was so summoned and has attended the office of Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta. Upon production of such a certificate, he shall be treated as on duty on the day or dates on which he attended the office of the Lokayukta or Upa-Lokayukta.

(4) If such person is not employed in any service and, if the Lokayukta or the Upa-Lokayukta, as the case may be, thinks fit, such person may be paid travelling allowance, if any, and subsistence allowance at the rates mentioned in the Civil Manual.
