⁸ This sub-section was substituted for the original by Mah. 16 of 1988, s. 9(a).

(2) Any such vacancy in the office of a member of the ¹[Council] nominated by the State Government shall be filled by nomination.

²[(3) Any such vacancy in the office of the member of the Council elected by the registered practitioners, or the Principals or Heads, or the teachers, of the recognised institutions, shall be filled by the State Government by nomination of a person from a panel of three registered practitioners, or the Principals or Heads, or the teachers, as the case may be, by a resolution of the Council recommended by a resolution passed by a majority of all the then members of the Council:

Provided that, if the Council fails to pass such a resolution within a period of thirty days from the date of occurrence of the vacancy, the State Government may appoint any registered practitioner, or Principal or Heads, or teacher, as the case may be, to fill the vacancy and the practitioner, or the Principal or Head or the teacher so appointed shall, for purposes of this sub-section be deemed to have been duly nominated.]

(4) Any person nominated or elected to fill a casual vacancy under this section shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 5, hold office only so long as the person in whose place he is nominated or elected would have held office, if the vacancy had not occurred.

³[8. Resignation.— (1) A nominated member may at any time resign his office by a notice in writing to the State Government. An elected member may at any time resign his office by a notice in writing to the President. Such resignation shall take effect from the date on which the resignation is accepted by the State Government, or the President, as the case may be.

(2) The President or the Vice-President may at any time resign his office by a notice in writing to the State Government. The resignation shall take effect from the date on which such resignation is accepted by the State Government.]

9. Disqualification and disability.— (1) No person,—

- (a) who is an undischarged insolvent;
- (b) who has been adjudged to be of unsound mind by a competent Court;
- (c) whose name has been removed from the register; or
- (d) who is a full time officer or servant of ⁴[the Council]; ⁵[* *]

shall be eligible to be elected or nominated or to continue to be a member.

(2) If any member,—

(a) absents himself from three consecutive ordinary meetings of the ⁶[Council] without such reasons as may, in the opinion of the State Government in the case of the President, ⁷[and the Vice-President] and in the opinion of the ⁸[Council] in the case of any other member, be sufficient; or

(b) becomes or is found to be subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (1), the State Government shall declare his office vacant.

(3) The State Government may, on the recommendation of the ⁹[Council] supported by at least two-thirds of the whole number of members, remove any member elected or nominated under this Act, if such member has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties as a member or of any disgraceful conduct or has become incapable of performing his duties as a member:

⁹ This word was substituted for the word "Board" by Mah. 16 of 1988, s. 11(c).

Provided that, no resolution recommending the removal of any members shall be passed by the ¹[Council] unless the member to whom it relates has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why such recommendation should not be made.

10. Meetings of the ²[Council].— (1) The meetings of the ³[Council] shall be convened, held and conducted in such manner as may be prescribed by rules.

(3) All questions at a meeting of the ⁵[Council] shall be decided by the votes of the majority of the members present and voting at the meeting.

⁶[(4) The presiding authority at a meeting shall have and exercise a second or a casting vote in case of an equality of votes.]

(5) ⁷[Six members of the Council including the President and Vice-President] shall form a quorum. When a quorum is required but not present, the presiding authority shall adjourn the meeting to such hour on the following or some other future day as it may notify and the business which would have been brought before the original meeting had there been a quorum threat, shall be brought before the adjourned meeting and may be disposed of at such meeting or any subsequent adjournment thereof, whether there be a quorum present or not.

11. Proceedings of meetings and validity of acts.— (1) The proceedings of every meeting of the ⁸[Council] shall be treated as confidential and no person shall, without the previous permission of the ⁹[Council] disclose any portion thereof:

Provided that, nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any person from disclosing or publishing the text of any resolution passed or considered by the ¹⁰[Council] unless the ¹¹[Council] directs such resolution to be treated as confidential.

(2) No disqualification of or defect in the election, nomination or appointment of any person as a member or as the President ¹²[or as the Vice-President] or as a presiding authority of a meeting shall of itself be deemed to vitiate any act or proceedings of the ¹³[Council] in which such person has taken part, whenever the majority of persons, parties to such act or proceedings, were entitled to vote.

(3) During any vacancy in the ¹⁴[Council], the continuing members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.

¹⁵12. Fees and allowances for meetings.— There shall be paid to the President, the Vice-President and other members of the Council and to the members of the committees, such fees and allowances for attendance at meeting, and such travelling allowances as may from time to time be prescribed by rules.]

¹⁶13. Income and expenditure of Council.— (1) The income of the Council shall consist of,—

(a) fees received from the practitioners;

CHAPTER IV

³[REGISTRATION OF PRACTITIONERS]

20. Preparation of Register.— (1) As soon as may be after the appointed day, the Registrar shall prepare and maintain thereafter a register of Homoeopathic ⁴[* *] practitioners for the ⁵[State of Maharashtra] in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

⁶[(1-A) The register shall contain the names of practitioners, whose names are,—

(i) continued on the register under sub-section (4); and

(ii) entered in the register under sub-section (3) or (5) on or after the date of commencement of the Bombay Homoeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners' (Amendment) Act, 1985 (Mah. XVI of 1988)].

(2) The register shall include the following particulars, namely :—

(a) the full name, nationality and residential address of the registered practitioner;

(b) the date of his admission to the register;

(c) the qualification for registration and the date on which he obtained his degree, diploma or any other like award in Homoeopathy ⁷[* *] if any, and the authority which conferred or granted it;

(d) his professional address; and

(e) such further particulars as may be prescribed by rules.

(3) Every person who possesses any of the ⁸[recognised medical qualifications] shall, at any time on an application made in the form prescribed by rules to the Registrar and on payment of ⁹[such fee as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify] be entitled to have his name entered in the register.

¹⁰[(3A) (a) If the courses of study to be undergone for obtaining any of the recognised medical qualifications include a period of training after a person has passed the qualifying examination, and before such qualification is conferred on him, any such person shall, on an application made to the Registrar, in the form prescribed by the Rules and on payment of such fee, as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify, be granted a provisional registration in order to enable him to practice Homoeopathic system of medicine in the Recognised Institution for the purpose of such training and for no other purpose, for the period aforesaid;

(d) the strength of the staff, their salaries, qualifications and the research work carried out by them;

(e) fees levied or proposed to be levied and the financial provision made for capital expenditure on buildings and equipment and for continued maintenance and efficient working of the institution:

Provided that, no application shall be entertained by the Registrar unless the institution agrees in writing to give all facilities to any inspectors, members, visitors or any other persons authorised by the ¹[Council] to make an inspection or enquiry or to attend any examination under sub-sections (3) to (9).

(3) The Registrar shall place the application before the ²[Council] and the ³[Council] may direct the Registrar to call for any further information which it may deem necessary. The ⁴[Council] may also direct a local inquiry to be made by a competent person or persons authorised by it in this behalf.

(4) After recording the report of such local inquiry and after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, the ⁵[Council] shall forward the application together with its report to the State Government with its opinion whether the recognition asked for should or should not be granted. The State Government may thereupon grant or refuse the recognition or may grant it subject to such condition as it deems fit. The decision of the State Government shall be final.

(5) It shall be the duty of the ⁶[Council] to secure the maintenance of an adequate standard of proficiency for the practice of the Homoeopathic ⁷[* *] system of medicine ⁸[as prescribed by the Central Council]. For the purpose of securing such standard, the ⁹[Council] shall have authority to call on the governing body or authorities of any recognised institution to permit inspectors or any members or visitors appointed by the ¹⁰[Council] in this behalf to inspect the recognised institutions and the hospitals attached to them and to attend and be present at all or any of the examinations held by the institutions. Every recognised institution shall comply with any reasonable direction issued by the ¹¹[Council] from time to time.

(6) The inspectors, members or visitors shall not interfere with the conduct of any examination but it shall be their duty to report to the ¹²[Council], their opinion as to the sufficiency or insufficiency of every examination which they attend and any other matters in regard to such institutions on which the ¹³[Council] may require them to report.

(7) Every recognised institution and every examination held by such institution shall be inspected by the ¹⁴[Council] through its inspectors or members or visitors at least once in five years and more frequently if the ¹⁵[Council] so desires.

(8) The ¹⁶[Council] shall forward a copy of every such report to the authorities of the institution in respect of which the said report was made and shall also forward a copy of such report, together with any observations thereon made by the said body, to the State Government ¹⁷[and the Central Council].

CHAPTER VII

REPEAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

38. Repeal and saving.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, on the appointed day,—

(a) the Bombay Homoeopathic Act, 1951 (Bom. XLVIII of 1951), in its application to the pre-Reorganisation State of Bombay, excluding the transferred territories; and

(b) the Madhya Pradesh Homoeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners' Act, 1951 (M. P. XXVI of 1951) in its application to the Vidarbha Region of the State of Bombay shall be repealed.

(2) With effect from the appointed day, the Medical Act in its application to the Hyderabad area of the State of Bombay, shall cease to apply to the Homoeopathic practitioners (Hyd. I of 1312F).

(3) ⁸[* *] the regulations made under clauses (c) to (e) of sub-section (1) of section 38 of the Bombay Homoeopathic Act, 1951 (Bom. XLVIII of 1951) and clauses (d) to (h) of sub-section (1) of section 29 of the Madhya Pradesh Homoeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners' Act, 1951 (M. P. XXVI of 1951), and such other regulations and such of the rules made under the said Acts as the State Government may by order specify on the appointed day, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made under and for the purposes of the relevant provisions of this Act and be in force accordingly unless and until superseded by any rules, regulations or by-laws made under this Act. All other regulations and rules made under the said Act shall cease to be in force.

(5) Any appointment, notification, notice, order or form made, issued or given under the Bombay Homoeopathic Act, 1951 (Bom. XLVIII of 1951) and in force in the pre-Reorganisation State of Bombay, excluding the transferred territories, immediately before the appointed day shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be deemed to have been made, issued or given under the relevant provisions of this Act and be in force throughout the State of Bombay accordingly, unless and until superseded by any appointment, notification, notice, order or form made, issued or given under this Act.

²[39. Vesting of rights, duties, etc., in Council and saving.— On and with effect from the date of establishment of the Maharashtra Council of Homoeopathy ³[* * *] under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 3 (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the said date”), the following consequences shall ensue, that is to say,—

(a) the Board of Homoeopathic and Biochemic Systems of Medicines, Bombay, and the Court of Examiners of Homoeopathic and Biochemic Systems of Medicines, Bombay, which stood dissolved (hereinafter in this section referred to as “the dissolved Board and Court”) and all the powers and duties of which were being exercised or performed by a person appointed under section 36 (hereinafter referred to as “the said person”) on the day immediately preceding the date of the commencement of the Bombay Homoeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners’ (Amendment) Act, 1985 (Mah. XVI of 1988), shall stand permanently dissolved on the said date and all the rights of the dissolved Board and Court shall, on the said date, vest in the Council;

(b) all the property movable or immovable which on the day immediately preceding the said date vested in the dissolved Board and Court shall, subject to all limitations and conditions as were in force on that day, vest in the Council;

(c) all sums due to the dissolved Board and Court on any account shall be recoverable by the Council, which shall be competent to take any measure or institute any proceedings which it would have been open to the dissolved Board and Court or the said person to take or institute before the said date;

(d) all debts, liabilities and obligations incurred by or on behalf of the dissolved Board and Court or the said person, immediately before the said date and subsisting on the said date, shall be deemed to have been incurred by the Council in exercise of the powers conferred on it by or under this Act and shall continue in operation accordingly;

(e) all proceedings and matters pending before any authority or officer immediately before the said date shall be deemed to be transferred to and continued before the corresponding authority or officer under this Act as amended by the Bombay Homoeopathic and Biochemic Practitioners’ (Amendment) Act, 1985 (Mah. XVI of 1988), competent to entertain such proceedings and matters;

(f) all prosecutions instituted by or on behalf of or against the dissolved Board and Court or the said person and all the suits and other legal proceedings instituted by or against the dissolved Board and Court or the said person or any officer of any such dissolved Board and Court on behalf of the dissolved Board and Court or of the said person pending on the said date, shall be continued by or against the Council;

(g) the Registrar and all officers and servants in the employment of the dissolved Board and Court immediately before the said date, shall be the Registrar, officers and servants employed by the Council and shall receive salaries and allowances and be subject to the conditions of service or retirement benefits which they were entitled to or subject to on the said date:

Provided that,—

(i) the service rendered by such Registrar, officers and servants before the said date shall be deemed to be service rendered under the Council;
