CHAPTER II

STAMPS DUTIES

(A) Of the Liability of Instruments to Duty.

3. Instruments chargeable with duty.— Subject to the provisions of this Act and the exemptions contained in Schedule I, the following instruments shall be chargeable with duty of the amount indicated in Schedule I as the proper duty therefor respectively, that is to say—

(a) every instrument mentioned in Schedule I, which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed in the State on or after the date of commencement of this Act;

(b) every instrument mentioned in Schedule I, which, not having been previously executed by any person, is executed out of the State on or after the said date, relates to any property situate, or to any matter or thing done or to be done in this State and is received in this State:

³[Provided that a copy or extract, whether certified to be a true copy or not and whether a facsimile image or otherwise of the original instrument on which stamp duty is chargeable under the provisions of this section, shall be chargeable with full stamp duty indicated in the Schedule I if the proper duty payable on such original instrument is not paid:]

⁴[Provided further that] no duty shall be chargeable in respect of—

(1) Any instrument executed by or on behalf of, or in favour of, the Government in cases where, but for this exemption, the Government would be liable to pay the duty

² Clause (ra) was inserted by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 2(h).

³ This proviso was inserted by Mah. 21 of 1998, s. 6(a).

⁴ These words were substituted for the words “provided that” by Mah. 21 of 1998, s. 6(b).

chargeable in respect of such instrument ¹[or where the Government has undertaken to bear the expenses towards the payment of the duty.]

(2) Any instrument for the sale, transfer or other disposition, either absolutely or by way of mortgage or otherwise, of any ship or vessel, or any part, interest, share or property of or in any ship or vessel registered under the Bombay Coasting Vessels Act, 1838 (XIX of 1838), or ²[Merchant Shipping Act, 1958 (XLIV of 1958)].

4. Several instruments used in single transaction of ³[development agreement,] sale, ⁴[lease,] mortgage or settlement.— (1) Where, in the case of any ⁵[development agreement,] sale, ⁶[lease,] mortgage or settlement, several instruments are employed for completing the transaction, the principal instrument only shall be chargeable with the duty prescribed in Schedule I for the conveyance, ⁷[development agreement,] ⁸[lease,] mortgage or settlement, and each of the other instruments shall be chargeable with a duty of ⁹[five hundred rupees] instead of the duty (if any) prescribed for it in that Schedule.

(2) The parties may determine for themselves which of the instruments so employed shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), be deemed to be the principal instrument.

¹⁰[(3) If the parties fail to determine the principal instrument between themselves, then the officer before whom the instrument is produced may, for the purposes of this section, determine the principal instrument:]

Provided that the duty chargeable on the instrument so determined shall be the highest duty which would be chargeable in respect of any of the said instruments employed.

¹¹[5. Instruments relating to several distinct matters or transactions.— Any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters or transactions shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties with which separate instruments, each comprising or relating to one of such matters or transactions, would be chargeable under this Act.]

6. Instruments coming within several descriptions in Schedule I.— Subjects to the provisions of section 5, an instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the descriptions in Schedule I shall, where the duties chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest or such duties:

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall render chargeable with duty exceeding ¹²[one hundred rupees] a counterpart or duplicate of any instrument chargeable with duty and in respect of which the proper duty has been paid.

7. Payment of higher duty in respect of certain instruments.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 4 or 6 or in any other enactment, unless it is proved that the duty chargeable under this Act has been paid,—

(a) on the principal or original instrument, as the case may be, or

(b) in accordance with the provisions of this section,

the duty chargeable on an instrument of sale, mortgage or settlement, other than a principal instrument or on a counterpart, duplicate or copy of any instrument shall, if the principal or original instrument would, when received in this State have been chargeable under this Act with a higher rate of duty, be the duty with which the principal or original instrument would have been chargeable under section 19.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment for the time being in force, no instrument, counterpart, duplicate or copy chargeable with duty under this section shall be received in evidence unless the duty chargeable under this section has been paid thereof:

Provided that any Court before which any such instrument, duplicate or copy is produced may permit the duty chargeable under this section to be paid thereon and may then receive it in evidence.

¹[(3) The provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, in so far as they relate to the recovery of duties chargeable on instruments under section 3 shall, so far as may be, apply to the recovery of duties chargeable on a counterpart, duplicate or a copy of an instrument under sub-section (1).]

8. Bonds or securities other than debentures issued on loans under Act IX of 1914 or other law.— (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, any local authority raising a loan under the provisions of the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914 (IX of 1914) or of any other law for the time being in force, by the issue of bonds or securities other than debentures shall, in respect of such loan, be chargeable with duty of ²[two per centum] on the total amount of such bonds or securities issued by it, and such bonds or securities need not be stamped, and shall not be chargeable with any further duty on renewal, consolidation, sub-division or otherwise.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) exempting certain bonds or securities from being stamped and from being chargeable with certain further duty shall apply to the bonds or securities other than debentures of all outstanding loans of the kind mentioned therein, and all such bonds or securities shall be valid, whether the same are stamped or not.

(3) In the case of wilful neglect to pay the duty required by this section the local authority shall be liable to forfeit to the State Government a sum equal to ten per centum upon the amount of duty payable, and a like penalty for every month after the first month during which such neglect continues.

9. Power to reduce, remit or compound duties.— The State Government ³[, if satisfied that it is necessary to do so in the public interest] may, by rule or order published in the Official Gazette,—

(a) reduce or remit, whether prospectively or retrospectively, in the whole or any part of the State the ⁴[duties or penalty, if any, or both] with which any instruments or any particular class of instruments or any of the instruments belonging to such class, or any instruments when executed by or in favour of any particular class of persons, or by or in favour of any members of such class, are chargeable, and

(b) provide for the composition or consolidation of duties in the case of issues by any incorporated company or other body corporate of bonds or marketable securities other than debentures.

(B) Of Stamps and the mode of using them.

10. Duties how to be paid.— (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, all duties with which any instrument are chargeable shall be paid, and such payment shall be indicated on such instruments, by means of stamps,—

(a) according to the provisions herein contained; or

(b) when no such provision is applicable thereto, as the State Government may, by rules, direct.

¹ Sub-section (3) was added by Mah. 17 of 1993, s. 29.

(2) The rules made under sub-section (1) may, among other matters, regulate,—

(a) in the case of each kind of instrument, the description of stamps which may be used;

(b) in the case of instruments stamped with impressed stamps, the number of stamps which may be used.

Provided that, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, by notification in the Official Gazette, from the specified date, do away with such requirement.]

²[(2A) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, subject to such conditions as he may deem fit to impose, authorise use of franking machine or any other machine specified under sub-clause (iv) of clause (k) of section 2, for making impressions on instruments chargeable with duties to indicate payment of duties payable on such instruments.

(2B) (a) Where the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority or the Superintendent of Stamps, Bombay when authorised by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority in this behalf, is satisfied that having regard to the extent of instruments executed and the duty chargeable thereon, it is necessary in public interest to authorise any person, body or organisation to such use of franking machine or any other machine, he may, by order in writing authorise such person, body or organisation;

(b) Every such authorisation shall be subject to such conditions, if any, as the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, by any general or special order, specify in this behalf.

(2C) The procedure to regulate the use of franking machine or any other machine as so authorised shall be such as the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, by order determine.]

³[(3) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority shall by notification in the Official Gazette, specify the instruments in Schedule I in respect of which the duties chargeable, as specified in column (2) of the said Schedule shall be paid,—

(i) by means of franking machine; or

(ii) by e-payment, in Virtual Treasury through Government Receipt Accounting System (G.R.A.S.) or in any Bank Account specified in the Official Gazette by the said Authority in this behalf through any permissible net banking mode.

(b) Any duties paid by e-payment shall be indicated,—

(i) by an endorsement to that effect made on the instrument by the proper officer duly notified by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority for this purpose; or

(ii) in case of consolidated payment for electronic record pertaining to such instruments by the certificate issued by such proper officer; or

(iii) by e-stamp certificate issued through electronic means and mode as may be prescribed by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

(c) If the proper officer has not endorsed the instrument or has not issued the certificate or the e-stamp certificate has not been issued through the prescribed electronic means and mode, as the case may be, under clause (b), then the mere e-payment under clause (a) shall not be treated as duty paid for any of the purposes of the Act.

¹⁰ These figures were substituted for the figures, brackets and letter “41(a)” by Mah. 7 of 1985, s. 8.

(b) Whoever executes any instrument on any paper bearing an adhesive stamp shall, at the time of execution, unless such stamp has been already cancelled in the manner aforesaid, cancel the same so that it cannot be used again.

(2) Any instrument bearing an adhesive stamp which has not been cancelled so that it cannot be used again, shall, so far as such stamp is concerned, be deemed to be unstamped.

(3) The person required by sub-section (1) to cancel an adhesive stamp may cancel it by writing on or across the stamp his name or initials or the name or initials of his firm with the true date of his so writing, or in any other effectual manner.

¹[13. Instruments stamped with impressed stamps how to be written.— Every instrument for which sheet of paper stamped with impressed stamp is used shall be written in such manner that the writing may appear on the face and, if required, on the reverse of such sheet so that it cannot be used for or applied to any other instrument.

Explanation I.— Where two or more sheets of papers stamped with impressed stamps are used to make up the amount of duty chargeable in respect of any instrument, either a portion of such instrument shall be written on each sheet so used, or the sheet on which no such portion is written shall be signed by the executant or one of the executants, with an endorsement indicating that the additional sheet is attached to the sheet on which the instrument is written.

Explanation II.— Where the sheet or sheets bearing impressed stamps is or are insufficient to admit of the entire instrument being written thereon, so much plain paper may be subjoined thereto as may be necessary for completing the writing of such instrument, provided a substantial part of the instrument is written on the sheet which bears the stamp before any part is written on the plain paper so subjoined; and such plain paper may or may not be signed by the executant but where it is not so signed it shall not render the instrument not duly stamped.].

14. Only one instrument to be on same stamp.— No second instrument chargeable with duty shall be written upon a piece of stamped paper upon which an instrument chargeable with duty has already been written:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any endorsement which is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty being made upon any instrument for the purpose of transferring any right created or evidenced thereby, or of acknowledging the receipt of any money or goods the payment or delivery of which is secured thereby.

²[14A. Alterations in instruments how to be charged.— Where due to material alterations made in an instrument by a party, with or without the consent of other parties, the character of the instrument is materially or substantially altered, then such instrument shall require a fresh stamp paper according to its altered character.]

15. Instrument written contrary to sections 13 ³[, 14 or 14A deemed not duly stamped].— Every instrument written in contravention of section 13, ⁴[14 or 14A] shall be deemed to be ⁵[not duly stamped].

16. Denoting duty.— Where the duty with which an instrument is chargeable, or its exemption from duty, depends in any manner upon the duty actually paid in respect of another instrument, the payment of such last mentioned duty shall, if application is made in writing to the Collector for that purpose, and on production of both the instruments, be denoted upon such first mentioned instrument, by endorsement under the hand of the Collector in such other manner (if any) as the State Government may, by rules, prescribe.

17. Instruments executed in State.— All instruments chargeable with duty and executed by any person in this State shall be stamped before or at the time of execution ¹[or immediately thereafter] ²[on the next working day following the day of execution]:

³[Provided that the clearance list described in Article 19, 20, 21, 22 or 23 of Schedule I may be stamped by an officer authorised by the State Government by rules made under this Act, if such clearance list is submitted for stamping by the clearing house of an Association in accordance with its rules and bye-laws with the requisite amount of stamp duty, within two months from the date of its execution.]

18. Instruments executed out of State.— (1) Every instrument chargeable with duty executed only out of this State may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in this State.

(2) Where any such instrument cannot, with reference to the description of stamp prescribed therefor, be duly stamped by a private person, it may be taken within the said period of three months to the Collector, who shall stamp the same, in such manner as the State Government may by rule prescribe, with a stamp of such value as the person so taking such instrument may require and pay for.

19. Payment of duty on certain instruments ⁴[or copies thereof] liable to increased duty in ⁵[Maharashtra State].— Where any instrument of the nature described in any article in Schedule I and relating to any property situate or to any matter or thing done or to be done in this State in executed out of the State and subsequently ⁶[such instrument or a copy of the instrument is] received in the State,—

(a) the amount of duty chargeable on such instrument ⁷[or a copy of the instrument] shall be the amount of duty chargeable under Schedule I on a document of the like description executed in this State less the amount of duty, if any already paid under any law in force in India excluding the State of Jammu and Kashmir on such instrument when it was executed;

(b) and in addition to the stamps, if any, already affixed thereto such instrument ⁸[or a copy of the instrument] shall be stamped with the stamps necessary for the payment of the duty chargeable on it under clause (a) of this section in the same manner and at the same time and by the same persons as though such instrument ⁹[or a copy of the instrument] were an instrument received in this State for the first time at the time when it became chargeable with the higher duty, and

(c) the provisions contained in clause (b) of the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 32 shall apply to such instrument ¹⁰[or a copy of such instrument] as if such were an instrument executed or first executed out of this State and first received in this State when it became chargeable to the higher duty aforesaid, but the provisions contained in clause (a) of the said proviso shall not apply thereto.

20. Conversion of amount expressed in foreign currencies.— (1) Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any money expressed in any currency other than that of India, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such money in the currency of India according to the current date of exchange on the day of the date of the instrument.

(2) The rate of exchange for the conversion of British or any foreign currency into the currency of India prescribed under sub-section (2) of section 20 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), shall be deemed to be current rate for the purpose of sub-section (1).

21. Stock and marketable securities how to be valued.— Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

22. Effect of Statement of rate of exchange or average price.— Where an instrument contains a statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, as the case may require, and is stamped in accordance with such statement, it shall, so far as regards the subject matter of such statement, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be duly stamped.

23. Instruments reserving interest.— Where interest is expressly made payable by the terms of an instrument, such instrument shall not be chargeable with duty higher than that which it would have been chargeable had no mention of interest been made therein.

24. Certain instruments connected with mortgages of marketable securities to be chargeable as agreements.— (1) Where an instrument—

(a) is given upon the occasion of the deposit of any marketable security by way of security for money advanced or to be advanced by way of loan, or for an existing or future debt, or

(b) Makes redeemable or qualifies a duly stamped transfer intended as a security of any marketable security, it shall be chargeable with duty as if it were an agreement or memorandum of an agreement chargeable with duty under Article No. 5 (h) of Schedule I.

(2) A release or discharge of any such instrument shall only be chargeable with the like duty.

¹[25. How transfer in consideration of debt or subject to future payments etc., to be charged.— Where any property is transferred to any person—

(a) in consideration, wholly or in part, of any debt due to him; or

(b) subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer (to him or any other person) of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or incumbrance upon the property or not, such debt, money or stock, shall be deemed to be the whole or part, as the case may be, of the consideration in respect where of the transfer is chargeable with ad valorem duty:

Provided that, nothing in this section shall apply to any such certificate of sale as is mentioned in Article 16 of Schedule I.

Explanation.— Where property is sold and sale is subject to a mortgage or other incumbrance, any unpaid mortgage-money or money charged, together with the interest (if any) due on the same, shall be deemed to be part of the consideration for the sale, whether or not the purchaser expressly undertakes with the seller to pay the same or indemnify the seller if the seller has to pay the same:

Provided that, where any property subject to mortgage is transferred to the mortgagee, he shall be entitled to deduct from the duty payable on the transfer the amount of any duty already paid in respect of the mortgage.

CHAPTER III

ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS

31. Adjudication as to proper stamps.— ¹[(1) When an instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, ²[by one of the parties to the instrument and such person] applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any) with which ³[or the Article of Schedule I under which] it is chargeable and pays ⁴[a fee of one thousand rupees] in case not involving stamp duty on ad valorem basis, and one rupee for every Rs. 1,000 or part thereof, subject to a minimum of five rupees and maximum of twenty-five rupees in cases involving stamp duty on ad valorem basis, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, ⁵[or the Article of Schedule I under which] in his judgement, the instrument is chargeable.]:

⁶[Provided that, after commencement of the Maharashtra Stamp (Amendment) Act, 2025 (Mah. XX of 2025), in respect of executed instruments, no application shall be accepted for adjudication, unless the person has deposited with the Collector,—

(i) where the stamp duty is chargeable on the market value of the property, which is the subject matter of such instrument, the amount of difference between the stamp duty chargeable as per the value of consideration stated in the instrument or the market value of such property according to the person, whichever is higher and the stamp duty already paid on the instruments ; and

(ii) in other cases, the amount of difference between the stamp duty chargeable according to the person and the stamp duty already paid on the instruments:

Provided further that, the Collector shall adjust such deposited amount against the stamp duty finally determined and refund the excess amount deposited, if any, to the person depositing it within a period of forty-five days, without any interest.]

(2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with ⁷[a true copy or] an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon such application until ⁸[such true copy or abstract] and evidence have been furnished accordingly:

Provided that—

(a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and

(b) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

¹[(3) Where the Collector acting under sub-sections (1) and (2) is not the Collector of the District and if he has reason to believe that the market value of the property, which is the subject matter of the instrument, received by him for adjudication, has not been truly set forth therein, ²[he shall, for the purpose of assessing the stamp duty, determine the true market value of such property, as laid down in the Bombay Stamp (Determination of True Market Value of Property) Rules, 1995]].

³[(4) When an instrument is brought to the Collector for adjudication,—

(i) within one month of execution or first execution of such instrument in the State; or

(ii) if, such instrument is executed or first executed, out of the State, within three months from the date of first receipt of such instrument in this State, the person liable to pay the stamp duty under section 30 shall pay the same within sixty days from the date of service of the notice of demand in respect of the stamp duty adjudicated by the Collector. If such person fails to pay the stamp duty so demanded within the said period, he shall be liable to pay a penalty at the rate of two per cent., of the deficient portion of the stamp duty, for every month or part thereof, from the date of execution of such instrument, or as the case may be, date of the first receipt of such instrument in the State]:

⁴[Provided that, in no case, the amount of the penalty shall exceed ⁵[four times] the deficient portion of the stamp duty.]

32. Certificate by Collector.— (1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 31, is in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and—

(a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

(b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 31, or such sum as with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty, so determined has been paid, the collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty ⁶[(stating the relevant Article of Schedule I and the amount)] with which it is chargeable has been paid.

(2) When such instrument, is in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.

(3) ⁷[subject to the provisions of section 53-A, any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made] under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise the Collector to endorse,—

(a) any instrument executed or first executed in the State and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, as the case may be;

(b) any instrument executed or first executed out of the State and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in this State; or

(c) any instrument chargeable with the duty of twenty naye paise or less when brought to him, after the drawing or execution thereof, on paper not duly stamped.

Provided that, in case of such instruments executed on or after the 4th July 1980, to the date of commencement of the Bombay Stamp (Amendment) Act, 1985 (Mah. XXVII of 1985), an extract of the instrument to be taken from the registration record shall be deemed to be the true copy accompanying the instrument, presented for registration for the purposes of sub-section (1).

³[(2) Any registering officer receiving such instrument for registration has reason to believe, on the basis of the information available with him in this behalf, that the market value of immovable property which is the subject matter of such instrument has not been truly set forth therein, he shall, immediately after receiving of such instrument, refer it to the Collector for determination of the true market value of such property:

Provided that, in respect of the instrument presented for registration before the date of commencement of the Maharashtra Tax Laws (Levy, Second Amendment and Validation) Act, 1996 (Mah. IX of 1997) where, in the opinion of the registering officer, the true market value of the immovable property, which the subject matter of the said instrument, has not been determined by the Collector of the District, it shall be lawful for the registering officer to verify the true market value of such property as per the annual statement of rates of immovable property determined under the Bombay Stamp (Determination of True Market Value of Property) Rules, 1995, and issue notice to the person, who is liable to pay stamp duty under section 30 calling upon such person to pay the deficit amount of stamp duty and penalty at the rate of 2 per cent., of the deficient portion of the stamp duty, for every month or part thereof from the date of execution such instrument:

Provided further that, on the receipt of such notice, if the person liable to pay deficit amount of stamp duty and the penalty, pays within one month from the date of receipt of such notice, the deficient amount stamp duty and also pays the fixed penalty of rupees two hundred fifty, he shall not liable to make payment of penalty at the rate of 2 per cent., as provided in the first proviso; and the reference already made to the Collector of the District shall abate:

Provided also that, in no case, the amount of the penalty to be charged under the proviso shall exceed ⁴[four times] the deficit portion of the stamp duty.]

(3) If any person referred to in section 33, before whom any such instrument is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, has reason to believe that the market value of the immovable property which is the subject matter of such instrument has not been truly set forth therein, he may, after performing his function in respect of such instrument, refer the instrument along with a true copy of such instrument to the Collector of the District for determination of the true market value of such property and the proper duty payable on the instrument:

⁵[Provided that, if the person, before whom any such instrument is produced or comes in performance of his functions, is an officer appointed as the Collector under clause (f) of section 2, and he has reason to believe that the market value of the immovable property which is the subject matter of such instrument has not been truly set-forth therein, he shall, for the purpose of assessing the stamp duty, determine the true market value of such property in the manner laid down in the Bombay Stamp (Determination of True Market Value of Property) Rules, 1995.]

⁴[Provided also that, in no case, the amount of the penalty shall exceed ⁵[four times] the deficient portion of the stamp duty.]

(5) The Collector of the District may, suo motu or on receipt of information from any source, within ⁶[ten years] from the date of registration of any instrument referred to in sub-section (1) (not being the instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under section 32 or the instrument or the instrument in respect of which the proper duty has been determined by him under sub-section (4) or an instrument executed before the 4th July 1980), call for the true copy or an abstract of the instrument from the registering officer and examine it for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the market value of the immovable property which is the subject matter of such instrument and the duty payable thereon; and if, after such examination, he has reason to believe that the market value of such property has not been truly and fully set forth in the instrument he shall proceed as provided in sub-section (4).

⁸[32B. Appeal.— (1) Any person aggrieved by any order determining the market value under sub-section (3) of section 31 or under section 32A or any order imposing any penalty under section 32A may, within sixty days from the date of receipt of such order, by an application in writing (accompanied by such fee not exceeding three hundred rupees as the State Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify; and different rates of fees may be specified for different areas), file an appeal against such order, to the ⁹[Additional Controller of Stamps, Mumbai in respect of the property, which is the subject matter of the instrument, is situated in Mumbai City and Mumbai Suburban Districts and in respect of the properties situated in the other parts to the] Deputy Inspector General of Registration and Deputy Controller of Stamps, who shall after considering the same, pass such order thereon as he thinks just and proper; and the order so passed shall, subject to the provisions of section 32C, be final and shall not be questioned in any Court or before any authority:

Provided that, all application made and pending with the Collector immediately before the commencement of the Bombay Stamp (Amendment) Act, 1989 (Mah. XVIII of 1989) (hereinafter, in this section, referred to as “the Amendment Act”), for being referred to Courts for decision under Provided further that, nothing contained in sub-section (1) and the first proviso shall affect the references already made by the Collector to the Courts and pending before the Courts immediately before the commencement of the Amendment Act; and such references shall be disposed off by the concerned Courts as if the Amendment Act has not been passed.

(2) No appeal and no application for revision shall lie against the order of the ¹[Additional Controller of Stamps, Mumbai or the] Deputy Inspector General of Registration and Deputy Controller of Stamps, passed under sub-section (1).

32C. Revision.— Subject to the provisions of section 32B and any rules which may be made in this behalf by the State Government, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, suo motu, call for and examine the record of any order passed (including an order passed in appeal) under this Act or the rules made thereunder, by any officer and pass such order thereon as he thinks just and proper; and the order so passed shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court or before any authority:

Provided that, no notice calling for the record under this section shall be served by the chief Controlling Revenue Authority after the expiry of three years from the date of communication of the order sought to be revised and no order of revision, shall be made by the said Authority hereunder after the expiry of five years from such date:

Provided further that, no order shall be passed under this section which adversely affects any person, unless such person has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.]

CHAPTER IV

INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED

33. Examination and impounding of instruments.— (1) ²[Subject to the provisions of section 32A, every person] having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public office, except an officer of police ³[or any other officer, empowered by law to investigate offences under any law for the time being in force,] before whom any instrument, chargeable, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same ⁴[irrespective whether the instrument is or is not valid in law].

(2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law for the time being in force in the State when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that—

(a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under ⁵[Chapter IX or Part D of Chapter X of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974)];

⁵ These words, figures and letter were substituted for the words and figures “Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1998” by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 20(b).

(b) in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court may appoint in this behalf.

(3) For the purposes of this section, in cases of doubt,—

(a) the State Government may determine what offices shall be deemed to be public offices; and

(b) the State Government may determine who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of public offices.

¹[33A. Impounding of instrument after registration.— When through mistake or otherwise any instrument which is not duly stamped is registered under the Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908), the registering officer may call for the original instrument from the party and, after giving the party an opportunity of being heard and recording the reasons in writing and furnishing a copy thereof to the party, impound it. On failure to produce such original instrument by the party, a true copy of such instrument taken out from the registration record shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be original of such instrument.]

34. Instrument not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc.— No instrument chargeable with duty ²* * * shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer unless such instrument is duly stamped ³[or if the instrument is written on sheet of paper with impressed stamp ⁴[such stamp paper is purchased in the name of one of the parties to the instrument]]:

Provided that,—

⁵[(a) any such instrument shall, subject to all just exceptions, be admitted in evidence on payment of—

(i) the duty with which the same is chargeable, or in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped, the amount required to make up such duty, and

Provided that, in no case, the amount of the penalty shall exceed ⁷[four times] the deficient portion of the stamp duty;]

(b) where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters and any one of the letters bears the proper stamp, the contract or agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped;

(c) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court, other than a proceeding ⁸[under Chapter IX of part D of Chapter X of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974)];

(d) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any Court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of the Government or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by section 32 or any other provision of this Act;

¹[(e) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of a copy of any instrument or of an oral admission of the contents of any instrument, if the stamp duty or a deficient portion of the stamp duty and penalty as specified in clause (a) is paid.]

35. Admission of instrument where not to be questioned.— Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 58, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not been duly stamped.

36. Admission of improperly stamped instrument.— The State Government may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may, on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

37. Instrument impounded how dealt with.— (1) When the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of penalty as provided by section 34 or of duty as provided by section 36, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

²[(2) In every other case, a person so impounding the original instrument shall prepare an authentic copy of such instrument and where it is a true copy or an abstract referred to in section 31 or true copy referred to in section 33A, he shall send such authentic copy or, the true copy or, as the case may be, an abstract to the Collector, for the purpose of taking action on the authentic copy or a true copy or, as the case may be, an abstract as if it were the original instrument and endorsing thereon a certificate with reference to the instrument under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 39 or under sub-section (1) of section 41, as the case may be. On receipt of the authentic copy, the true copy or, as the case may be, an abstract with the certificate as aforesaid endorsed thereon, the person who has impounded the original instrument shall copy on the original instrument the certificate endorsed on the authentic copy and shall authenticate such certificate; and where it is a true copy or an abstract, on which the certificate as aforesaid is endorsed, the registering officer who has forwarded the true copy or an abstract shall make appropriate entries in respect of the instrument to which it was a true copy or an abstract, in the relevant register maintained by him and on an application made in this behalf issue under his signature a certificate to the effect that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect of that instrument, and the name and residence of the person paying such duty and penalty.]

38. [Collector's power to refund penalty paid under section 37, sub-section (1). (Deleted by Mah. 20 of 2015, s. 11.)]

39. Collector's power to stamp instruments impounded.— (1) When the Collector impounds any instrument under ³[section 33 or 33A], or receives any instrument sent to him under sub-section (2) of section 37, ⁴ he shall adopt the following procedure :—

(a) if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;

(b) if he is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped he shall require the payment of the proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty ¹[in case of registered instrument an amount equal to 1 per cent. and in other cases an amount equal to 2 per cent.] of the deficient portion of the stamp duty, for every month or part thereof] from the date of execution of the instrument subject to the payment of a minimum penalty of rupees one hundred]:

²[Provided that, duty for which reduction or remission is granted by the Government under clause (a) of section 9 under any prevailing policy shall not be treated as deficient portion of duty for the purposes of calculation of penalty, if the beneficiary of such reduction or remission in duty surrenders or forgoes or has surrendered or forgone such benefit with prior approval or with no objection from the Government:]

³⁴[Provided further that] in no case, the amount of the penalty shall exceed ⁵[four times] the deficient portion of the stamp duty:]

⁶[Provided also that], when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

(2) ⁷[Subject to the provisions of section 53A, every certificate] under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

(3) Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector under sub-section (2) of section 37 the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by this section, return it to the impounding officer.

40. Instrument unduly stamped by accident.— If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable with a duty of twenty naye paise or less is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped and offers to pay to the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under sections 33 and 39, receive such amount and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed ⁸[with the prior approval of the Additional Controller of Stamps, Mumbai for the areas in Mumbai City and Mumbai Suburban Districts and for the other areas the Deputy Inspector General of Registration and Deputy Controller of Stamps].

41. Endorsement of instruments on which duty has been paid under section 34, 39 or 40.— (1) When the duty and penalty (if any) leviable in respect of any instrument ⁹[(not being any instrument referred to in sub-section (1) of section 32A),] have been paid under section 34, section 39 or section 40, the person admitting such instrument in evidence or the Collector, as the case may be, shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

(2) ¹⁰[Subject to the provisions of section 53A, every instrument] so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly stamped, and shall be delivered ¹[on the application in this behalf, to the person who produced it, or the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the Officer impounding it, or to any other person according to the directions of such person:]

Provided that—

(a) no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 34, shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate;

(b) nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of rule 9 of Order XIII in Schedule I of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

42. Prosecution for offence against stamp law.— The taking of proceedings or the payment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the stamp law in respect of such instrument:

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

43. Persons paying duty or penalty may recover same in certain cases.— (1) When any duty or penalty has been paid under section 34, section 36, section 39 or section 40, by any person in respect of an instrument, and, by agreement or under the provisions of section 30 or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.

(2) For the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

(3) Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which such persons are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence. If the Court does not ²[for the reasons to be recorded in writing,] include the amount in such order, no further proceedings for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

44. Power to Revenue authority to refund penalty or excess duty in certain cases.— (1) Where any penalty is paid under section 34 or section 39, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Chief Controlling Authority stamp duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged and paid under section 34 or section 39, such authority may, upon application in writing made by the party concerned within ³[one year] from the date of receipt of the order charging the same, refund the excess.

45. Non-liability for loss of instruments sent under section 37.— (1) If any instrument sent to the Collector under sub-section (2) of section 37, is lost, destroyed or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.

(2) When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same, may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

³[(2) For the purpose of effecting such recovery, as arrears of land revenue,—

(a) the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Commissioner under the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966 (Mah. XLI of 1966);

(b) the officer appointed as the Collector under clause (f) of section 2 shall have and exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the Collector under the said Code.

(3) Every notice issued or order passed in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be notice issued or an order passed under this Act.]

CHAPTER V

ALLOWANCES FOR STAMPS IN CERTAIN CASES

47. Allowance for spoiled stamps.— Subject to such rules as may be made by the State Government as to the evidence to be required, or the enquiry to be made, the Collector may, on application made within the period prescribed in section 48, and if he is satisfied as to the facts, make allowance for impressed stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned, namely :—

(a) the stamp on any paper inadvertently and undersignedly spoiled, obliterated or by error in writing or any other means rendered unfit for the purpose intended before any instrument written thereon is executed by any person;

(b) the stamp on any document which is written out wholly or in part, but which is not signed or executed by any party thereto;

(c) the stamp used for an instrument executed by any party thereto which—

(1) has been afterwards found ⁴[by the party] to be absolutely void in law from the beginning;

⁵[(1A) has been afterwards found by the Court, to be absolutely void from the beginning under section 31 of the Specific Relief Act, 1963 (47 of 1963);]

(2) has been afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended;

(3) by reason of the death of any person by whom it is necessary that it should be executed, without having executed the same, or of the refusal of any such person to execute the same, cannot be completed so as to effect the intended transaction in the form proposed;

(4) for want of the execution thereof by some material party, and his inability or refusal to sign the same, is in fact incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended;

(5) by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or to advance any money intended to be thereby secured, or by the refusal or non-acceptance of any office thereby granted, totally fails of the intended purpose;

(6) becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value;

¹ Section 46 was renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof by Mah. 30 of 1997, s. 5.

² This word was substituted for the word "Chapter" by Mah. 17 of 1993, s. 35.

⁴ These words were inserted by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 28(a)(i).

⁵ Clause (1A) was inserted by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 28(a)(ii).

(7) is deficient in value and the transaction intended to be thereby effected had been effected by some other instrument between the same parties and bearing a stamp of not less value;

(8) is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose in executed and duly stamped :

Provided that, in the case of an executed instrument, ¹[except that falling under sub-clause (1A)], no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence and that the instrument is given up ²[to be cancelled or has been already given up to the Court to be cancelled.]

Explanation.— The certificate of the Collector under section 32 that the full duty with which an instrument is chargeable has been paid is an impressed stamp within the meaning of the section.

48. Application for relief order under section 47 when to be made.— The application for relief under section 47 shall be made within the following period, that is to say,—

(1) in the cases mentioned in clause (c) (5), within ³[one year] of the date of the instrument:

⁴[Provided that, where an agreement to sale of immovable property on which stamp duty is paid under Article 25 of the SCHEDULE I, is registered under the provisions of the Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908) and thereafter such agreement is cancelled by a registered cancellation deed for whatsoever reasons before taking the possession of the property which is the subject matter of such agreement, within a period of five years from the date of execution of the agreement to sale, then the application for relief may be made within a period of ⁵[one year] from the date of registration of cancellation deed.]

⁶[(2) in the case when for unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another instrument has been substituted cannot be given up to be cancelled, the application may be made within ⁷[one year] after the date of execution of the substituted instruments;

(3) in any other case, within ⁸[one year] from the date of purchase of stamps].

49. Allowance in case of printed forms no longer required by Corporations.— The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority or the Collector if empowered by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority in this behalf may without limit of time, make allowance for stamped papers used for printed forms of instruments by any banker or by any incorporated company or other body corporate, if for any sufficient reason such forms have ceased to be required by the said banker, company or body corporate:

Provided that such authority is satisfied that the duty in respect of such stamped papers has been duly paid.

50. Allowance for misused stamps.— (1) When any person has inadvertently used, for an instrument chargeable with duty, a stamp of a description other than that prescribed for such instrument by the rules made under this Act, or a stamp of greater value than was necessary or has inadvertently used any stamp for an instrument not chargeable with any duty; or

(2) when any stamp used for an instrument has been inadvertently rendered useless under section 15, owing to such instrument having been written in contravention of provisions of section 13;

the Collector may, on application made within ¹[one year] after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within ²[one year] after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if chargeable with duty, being re-stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused or rendered useless.

³[51. Allowance for spoiled or misused stamps how to be made.— In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled stamps under section 47, or misused stamps under section 50, or in respect of printed forms no longer required under section 49, the Collector may give, in lieu thereof,—

(a) the same value in money, deducting ⁴[there from such amount as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf by the State Government]; or

(b) if the applicant so requires, other stamps of the same description and value; or

(c) if the applicant so requires, stamps of any other description of the same amount in value:

Provided that, in the cases covered by clauses (b) and (c) a stationery charge as may be prescribed by rules made by the State Government, shall also be recovered in respect of spoiled or misused stamp papers, surrendered.]

52. Allowance for stamps not required for use.— When any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps which have not been, spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money, deducting ⁵[there from such amount as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf by the State Government] upon such person delivering up the same to be cancelled, and proving to the Collector's satisfaction,—

(a) that such stamp or stamps were purchased by such person with a bona fide intention to use them; and

(b) that he has paid the full price thereof; and

(c) that they were so purchased within the period of ⁶[six months] next preceding the date on which they were so delivered:

Provided that, where the person is licensed vendor of stamp, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, make the repayment of the sum actually paid by the vendor without any such deduction as aforesaid.

⁷[52A. Allowance for duty.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 47, 50, 51 and 52, when payment for duty is made by stamps or in a cash as provided for under sub-section (3) of section 10 or section 10A or section 10B, and when the amount of duty paid exceeds rupees ⁸[five lakhs], the concerned Collector shall not make allowance for the stamps, or the cash amount paid under the Challans which are spoilt or misused or not required for use, but shall, after making necessary enquiries, forward the application with his remarks thereon to,—

CHAPTER VI

⁴[REFERENCE, REVISION AND APPEAL]

53. Control of and statement of case to Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.— (1) The powers exercisable by a Collector under ⁵[Chapter III], Chapter IV and Chapter V and under clause (a) of ⁶[the second proviso] to section 27 shall in all cases be subject to the control of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority:

⁹[(1A) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Collector under Chapter III, Chapter IV, Chapter V and under clause (a) of the second proviso to section 27 may, within sixty days from the date of receipt of such order, by an application in writing, accompanied by a fee of three hundred rupees, file an appeal against such order to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, who shall, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard, consider the case and pass such order thereon as he thinks just and proper and the order so passed shall be final.]

⁷ This proviso was added by Mah. 16 of 1979, s. 11.

⁸ These words were substituted for the words “in relation to any instrument” by Mah. 9 of 1997, s. 13.

⁹ Sub-section (1A) was inserted by Mah. 9 of 1997, s. 13.

(2) If any Collector, acting under section 31, section 39 or section 40, feels doubt as to the amount of duty with which any instrument is chargeable, he may draw up a statement of the case, and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

(3) Such authority ¹[after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard,] shall consider the case and send a copy of its decision to the collector, who shall proceed to assess and charge the duty (if any) in conformity with such decision.

²[53A. Revision of Collector's decision under sections 32, 39 and 41.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 32, sub-section (2) of section 39 and sub-section (2) of section 41, when through mistake or otherwise any instrument is charged with less duty than leviable thereon or is held not chargeable with duty, as the case may be, by the Collector, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, within a period of six years from the date of certificate of the Collector under sections 32, 39 or 41, as the case may be, require the concerned party to produce before him the instrument and, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the party, examine such instrument whether any duty is chargeable, or any duty is less levied, thereon and order the recovery of the deficit duty, if any, from the concerned party. An endorsement shall thereafter be made on the instrument after payment of such deficit duty.

(2) On failure to produce the original instrument by the party, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority shall proceed under this section on the basis of the true copy or an abstract of the instrument filed with the Collector under section 31 or sub-section (2) of section 37 and such copy or abstract shall be deemed to be the original instrument for the purposes of this section.]

54. Statement of case by Chief Controlling Revenue Authority to High Court.— ³[(1) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may state any case—

(a) referred to it under sub-section (2) of section 53;

(b) on an application made to it by party interested, within the period, which in the opinion of the Authority is reasonable, raising a substantial question of law for referring the same; or

(c) otherwise coming to its notice;

and refer such case formulating the precise question with its own opinion thereon, to the High Court.]

(2) Every such case shall be decided by not less than three judges of the High Court and in case of difference, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.

55. Power of High Court to call for further particulars as to case stated.— If the High Court is not satisfied that the statements contained in the case are sufficient to enable it to determine the question raised thereby, the High Court may refer the case back to the Revenue Authority by which it was stated, to make such additions thereto or alterations therein as the High Court may direct in that behalf.

56. Procedure in disposing of case stated.— (1) The High Court upon the hearing of any such case shall decide the question raised thereby, and shall deliver its judgement thereon containing the grounds on which such decision is founded.

(2) The High Court shall send to the Revenue Authority, by which the case was stated a copy of such judgement under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar; and the Revenue Authority shall, on receiving such copy ⁴[, pass such orders as are necessary for disposal of the case conformably to such judgment.]

⁴ These words were substituted for the words “dispose of the case conformably to such judgement” by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 37.

57. Statement of case by other Courts to High Court.— (1) If any Court, other than the High Court, feels doubt as to the amount of duty to be paid in respect of any instrument under clause (a) of the proviso to section 34, the Judge may draw up a statement of the case and refer it, with his own opinion thereon, for the decision of the High Court.

(2) The High Court shall deal with the case as if it had been referred under section 54, and send a copy of its judgement under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Registrar to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and another like copy to the Judge making the reference, who shall, on receiving such copy, dispose of the case conformably to such judgement.

(3) Reference made under sub-section (2), when made by a Court subordinate to a District Court, shall be made through the District Court, and, when made by any Subordinate Revenue Court, shall be made through the Court immediately superior.

¹[(4) without prejudice to the provisions of section 58, no Court shall take action under this section,—

(a) where the instrument has already been impounded or a penalty is levied in respect thereof under clause (a) of the proviso to section 34; or

(b) in the case to which section 35 applies.]

58. Revision of certain decision of Courts regarding the sufficiency of stamps.— (1) When any Court in the exercise of its civil or revenue jurisdiction or any Criminal Court in any proceeding ²[under Chapter IX or Part D of Chapter X of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974),] makes any order admitting any instrument in evidence as duly stamped or as not requiring a stamp, or upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 34, the Court to which appeals lie from, or reference are made by, such first mentioned Court may, of its own motion or on the application of the Collector, take such order into consideration.

(2) If such Court, after such consideration is of opinion that such instrument should not have been admitted in evidence without the payment of duty and penalty under section 34, or without the payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, it may record a declaration to that effect, and determine the amount of duty with which such instrument is chargeable, ³[and may require,—

(i) the party or person concerned to make the payment of the proper duty or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty under section 34, or payment of a higher duty and penalty than those paid, to itself or to the Collector; and

(ii) any person in whose possession or power such instrument then is, to produce the same, and may impound the same when produced.]

(3) When any declaration has been recorded under sub-section (2), the Court recording the same shall send a copy thereof to the Collector, and, where the instrument to which it relates has been impounded or is otherwise in the possession of such Court, shall also send him such instrument.

⁴[(3A) When the duty and penalty leviable in respect of any instrument in accordance with the declaration made under sub-section (3) and required to be paid thereunder are paid to the Court or to the Collector, then the Court or, as the case may be, the Collector shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty and penalty, stating the amount of each, have been levied in respect of such instrument, and the name and residence of the person paying the same.

(3B) Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be delivered, on an application in this behalf, to the person from whose possession the instrument came in the possession of such Court, or as such person may direct, to any other person authorised by him.]

⁴ Sub-section (3A) and (3B) were inserted by Mah. 27 of 1985, s. 39(c).

(4) The Collector may thereupon, notwithstanding anything contained in the order admitting such instrument in evidence, or in any certificate granted under section 41, or in section 42, prosecute any person for any offence against the stamp law which the Collector considers him to have committed in respect of such instrument:

Provided that—

(a) no such prosecution shall be instituted where the amount including duty and penalty, which, according to the determination of such Court, was payable in respect of the instrument under section 34, ¹[is paid to the Court or the Collector, unless the Collector thinks] that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty,

(b) except for the purposes of such prosecution no declaration made under this section shall affect the validity of any order admitting any instrument in evidence, or of any certificate granted under section 41.

CHAPTER VII

OFFENCE AND PROCEDURE

59. Penalty for executing, etc., instrument not duly stamped.— (1) ²[Any person who, with the intention to evade the duty, executes or signs] otherwise than as a witness any instrument chargeable with duty without the same being duly stamped shall, on conviction, for every such offence ³[be punished with rigorous imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one month but which may extend to six months and with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees:]

Provided that, when any penalty has been paid in respect of any instrument under section 34, section 39 or section 58, the amount of such penalty shall be allowed in reduction of the fine (if any) subsequently imposed under this section in respect of the same instrument upon the person who paid such penalty.
