It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men. With a view to build strong and resilient children, who are well-versed with their rights, entitlements and duties, DLSA, Imphal (West), Manipur, in collaboration with a student organization "Project G Legal Aid Club", on 12th April, 2024, organized a day-long Legal Awareness Programme for the students of Royal Academy of Advance Learning, Top Siphai, Wangoi, Imphal West, Manipur. The inquisitive students asked many questions which were answered by the Resource Person, thereby making the programme a resounding success.

Children are the world's most valuable resource and its best hope for the future. On 25th May, 2024, with a view to educate and empower the children, DLSA Kargil organized a Legal Awareness Programme at Kasturba Gandhi Balika Vidyalaya, Minjee, Kargil. During the Programme, the idea that children were human rights holders, human rights claimants and human rights defenders was vociferously pressed and they were encouraged to challenge the existing norms and practices which were discriminatory and oppressive.

On 4th May, 2024, Hon'ble Mr. Justice M.K. Gupta, Judge, High Court of Allahabad & Executive Chairman, Uttar Pradesh State Legal Services Authority visited the Naini Jail, Prayagraj, Uttar Pradesh. He interacted with the prisoners and inspected the various prison facilities. He also inspected the Prison Legal Aid Clinic to monitor whether the guidelines issued by NALSA for the Prison Legal Aid Clinics were being followed in letter and spirit. Ld. Member Secretary, UPSLSA Ld. Principal District and Sessions Judge, Prayagraj, also accompanied the Hon'ble Executive Chairman, UPSLSA.

In our efforts to make societies more resilient to crime and to promote social cohesion, we must treat prisoners with respect, which is inherently due to them as human beings. In May, 2024, Delhi State Legal Services Authority started a project across all jails in Delhi to provide comprehensive rehabilitation and reintegration support to prisoners who had participated in skill development programs within the jails. A Job Mela was organized to facilitate their placements in the food and beverage industry.

LEGAL AWARENESS & OUTREACH PROGRAMMES

At Jails: Rekindling Hope behind Bars

Multipurpose/Recreational activity Hall

Calligraphy and Painting centre in Jail

Every individual deserves a second chance. However, in the confines of a jail, the prisoners often find themselves condemned to a life of doom and gloom. Very often they lose sight of the future. With a view to humanize the justice system and rekindle hopes in the hearts of the prisoners, DLSA, Srinagar in collaboration with the Jail Authorities at Central Jail, Srinagar has been coming up with different initiatives and programmes. By imparting one skill at a time through courses on calligraphy, painting, cooking, baking etc., these Authorities have been striving to unlock the potential of the prisoners, thereby transforming their lives.

Kitchen Jail

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjiv Khanna, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Executive Chairman, NALSA visited the Central Jail, Srinagar on 18.06.2024. He interacted with the prison inmates and visited different facilities in the Prison like the Tailoring Shop, Computer Training Centre, Calligraphy and Painting Centre, Kitchen etc. While lauding the initiatives being undertaken in the Central Jail, Srinagar, for the betterment of the prisoners, he said that such initiatives will go a long way in breaking the cycles of recidivism; foster rehabilitation and reintegration; cultivate self-worth and confidence by equipping the individuals with marketable skills and this will ultimately lead to a safer and more productive society. He added that by investing in the personal growth and development of these prisoners, we invest in our collective future.

STORIES OF IMPACT

Our Constitution has its place from the Court's corridors to the (remote) villages. It is not limited to books alone.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud
Chief Justice of India

Success Story 1: Empowering Justice, Enriching Hapless Lives

A disconsolate widow Smt. Bheemvarapu Manga approached DLSA Rajamahendravaram, Andhra Pradesh with a grievance that after the death of her husband, his employer i.e. Rajamahendravaram Municipal Corporation had not released his financial dues, leaving her and her children bereft of financial means. The Ld. Secretary, DLSA Rajamahendravaram promptly intervened in the matter and called for reports from Rajamahendravaram Municipal Corporation. Thus, nudged into action by the letter of the Ld. Secretary, DLSA, Rajamahendravaram Municipal Corporation released the dues to the widow, which were to the tune of Rs. 28,93,071.

Success Story 2: Bringing joyous tears of reunion

A child had accidentally wandered away from his home in Jamalpur District, Bangladesh and entered the border State of Assam in 2021, as the Covid pandemic wreaked havoc across the world. Found loitering, the child had been sent to a child-care institution in Boko, Kamrup, Assam. When his case was brought to the notice of Ld. Secretary, DLSA, South Salmara-Mankachar, Assam, he was provided legal assistance and steps for his repatriation to his homeland were initiated. After sustained efforts requiring coordination with multiple stakeholders, on 26th April, 2024, the child was handed over to the Border Guard Police of Bangladesh and successfully reunited with his family.

Success Story 3: Empowering young girls by securing bodily autonomy

While conducting a Legal Awareness and Outreach Programme, a PLV empanelled with DLSA Rajnandgaon, Chhattisgarh came across a 12 years old girl, who was a victim of sexual abuse. The girl was found to be pregnant. The PLV immediately reported the matter to the Ld. Secretary, DLSA, Rajnandgaon, who then interacted with the parents of the girl and informed them about the legal formalities before the pregnancy could be medically terminated. The girl was provided legal assistance to move application seeking permission to abort the foetus. The permission was subsequently granted by the Hon'ble High Court and soon thereafter, the pregnancy was terminated.

Success Story 4: Empowering Lives: Timely Legal Aid Brings Hope

On coming across a widow, who had two minor children to support and no financial means to do so, a PLV in Dhanbad, Jharkhand, immediately informed the widow about the Sponsorship Scheme for children and Widow Pension Scheme. He assisted the widow in getting necessary documents for applying for benefits under the Schemes. The PLV with support and guidance from the Ld. Secretary DLSA, assisted the widow in presenting her case before the Child Welfare Committee and the District Child Protection Officer in Dhanbad. Very soon, the widow and her children were given the sponsorship and pension amount, thereby enabling them to live a life with dignity.

Legal aid has a functional role in strengthening the justice system. It empowers individuals to participate and engage with the public institutions and become equal.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjiv Khanna

IN THE PIPELINE

The National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) in consultation with the Mediation and Conciliation Project Committee, Supreme Court of India (MCPC) is in the process of developing a 40+ hours Online Mediation Training Module.
