

REPORT ON NALSA (JAGRITI SCHEME, 2025) CAMPAIGN

World Literacy Day – 8th September, 2026

Date: 08.09.2026

Topic: NALSA Campaign on JAGRITI Scheme, 2025 on World Literacy Day

Theme: “Legal Literacy for People, Planet and Prosperity”

The West Bengal State Legal Services Authority (WBSLSA) conducted programmes at three different venues under the three themes of the JAGRITI Campaign—Planet, People and Prosperity—with the objective of promoting legal literacy and awareness among children and students.

Sukanya Home

The programme at Sukanya Home was conducted under the theme “Planet.” Smt. Swati Maulik, Deputy Secretary, WBSLSA, was present along with the officials/facilitators of the Home. A drawing competition was organised among the girls on the theme of Planet, followed by prize and certificate distribution to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd position holders. Thereafter, the Deputy Secretary addressed the girls on issues including child marriage, legal assistance and the role of NALSA, SLSA and DLSA. The children also shared their grievances and problems, which were heard during the interaction. Legal-awareness leaflets were distributed to all the girls by the SLSA, and pens were also distributed among them.

Barasat Girls' High School

The programme at Barasat Girls' High School was conducted under the theme “People.” Smt. Swati Maulik, Deputy Secretary, WBSLSA, and Md. Nurjaman Khan, Secretary, DLSA, North 24 Parganas, were present along with the principal and teachers of the school. The students presented posters on Right to Education, Child Marriage Prohibition, POCSO Awareness, Cyber Safety, Women's Legal Rights and Rights of Senior Citizens. The Deputy Secretary discussed child marriage, cybercrime and the rights of elderly persons, while the Secretary, DLSA, explained the framework and role of NALSA, SLSA and DLSA, including who can receive legal aid and how such assistance can be accessed. A detailed and interactive discussion was held with the students, and legal-awareness leaflets were distributed to all the students by the SLSA along with pens.

Banamalipur Santosh Bhattacharya Memorial High School

The programme at Banamalipur Santosh Bhattacharya Memorial High School was conducted under the theme “Prosperity.” Smt. Swati Maulik, Deputy Secretary, WBSLSA, and Md. Nurjaman Khan, Secretary, DLSA, North 24 Parganas, were present along with the Head Master and teachers. The students participated in a drawing competition and an extempore elocution competition on the theme, followed by prize and certificate distribution to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd position holders. The Deputy Secretary and the Secretary, DLSA, addressed the students on labour rights, minimum wages, consumer protection, financial fraud and access to poverty-alleviation entitlements. The grievances and problems of the students were also heard. Legal-awareness leaflets were distributed to all the students by the SLSA, along with pens.

The JAGRITI Campaign successfully promoted legal literacy through interactive activities, competitions, direct discussions and distribution of legal-awareness materials. The three programmes addressed the themes of Planet, People and Prosperity, while providing children and students with awareness about their rights, available legal assistance and the role of Legal Services Authorities.
