

The District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Dakshin Dinajpur, setting up a Legal Literacy Stall at the Biplabi Sangha Durga Puja Pandal in Basudebpur, Hili, is an effective way to raise legal awareness. Utilizing major cultural gatherings like Durga Puja allows essential legal information and assistance services to reach a broad audience, including local residents and school students with a special focus on Child Marriage Awareness and educating people about the harmful consequences of child marriage.
