These gestures symbolized gratitude, respect, and best wishes from the organization.

Journey Videos and Felicitations

A brief session featuring journey videos allowed attendees to revisit memorable moments from the officers' professional lives, evoking nostalgia and appreciation.

Felicitation addresses followed this:

- NICSI GM (Shri A. Maruthi Kumar)
- AINOA, NIC Telangana
- Team members and colleagues, who shared words of respect and admiration

Each message reflected the deep professional and personal bonds built over years of working together.

Addresses, Messages, and Shared Memories

Senior leadership, including SIO Telangana and ASIO Telangana, delivered brief addresses, acknowledging the officers' leadership, guidance, and contribution to NIC's growth.

Messages from family members, near and dear ones, and officers from NIC Telangana and district centres added a personal and emotional dimension to the event. These heartfelt words highlighted not only professional excellence but also the human values, mentorship, and friendships nurtured over the years.

Messages from the Superannuating Officers

In a deeply touching segment, the superannuating officers themselves addressed the gathering, sharing reflections from their long and fulfilling careers. They expressed gratitude to colleagues, leadership, and teams for the support received throughout their service, and extended best wishes to the organization and its people.

Glimpses of the Event

Conclusion: A Fond Farewell and Best Wishes

The programme concluded with collective felicitations by individuals, groups, and Heads of Divisions, followed by a message of appreciation and gratitude.

The event ended on a note of warmth and respect, reaffirming that while superannuation marks the end of an official role, the legacy of service, leadership, and friendship continues.

NIC Telangana extends heartfelt thanks for the years of dedicated service and wishes both officers a happy, healthy, and fulfilling retirement, filled with new opportunities and cherished moments.
